Complaints Heard on Plants' Noxious Odors

ORGANIZES THALIDOMIDE VICTIMS — German attorney Karl Schulte-Hillen, father of a child whose deformity is blamed on the drug thalidomide, checks indexed card file in Hamburg, West Germany. File is supposed to contain names of 400 families with children similarly deformed. He has started an association for the families and hopes to expand its organization to other countries. Remedial Action Is Sought

No Certain Firm Shoulders Blame

An investigation by and a report from Fire Chief James M. Brett was requested at Tuesday night's Common Council meeting after complaints by Alderman Frank C. Adams (D), Fifth Ward, and other spokesmen for residents of the Ponckhockie section, that noxious odors and dust were being diffused in the area apparently from industrial plants.

Cement and aggregate plants north of the area were held responsible by some, but one alderman said that judging from reports he had received, "I don't think we can blame any one place" for such conditions.

Not Aimed at Closing

Alderman Adams emphasized that the complaints were not aimed at closing such plants as that of Hudson Cement Corp., North Street, but those affected are asking for remedial action. He asked that Mayor John J. Schwenk be asked through the city clerk to direct an investigation by the fire chief, and to seek a report, if possible, at the next council meeting.

William Cozza, of 43 Walnut Street, said his daughter had been treated for a respiratory ailment and reported vomiting in the family as a result of conditions in the neighborhood.

One resident of the area said the odor was similar to that of rotten eggs, another reported dust sweeping over the area.

Are Not Certain

Adams indicated that residents in the area were not certain that the cement plant was the source of the trouble, and Donald M. Hastings (D) Third Ward, felt there were other sources. Complaints have also been received, he noted, of fires at the city refuse disposal site off Ulster Street.

Hastings said he had been told of occasional breakdowns in filtering systems at such plants, and he felt that if publicity were given such breakdowns, the public might understand and be prepared.

7th Death Is Reported in July Mishap

Death today claimed the life of a seventh victim of a two-car head-on collision which occurred Sunday, July 29 on Route 299, which links Route 9W and the State Thruway at New Paltz.

Mrs. Alphonse Tuozzo, 65, of New Paltz, operator of one of the vehicles involved in the collision which proved fatal for her husband and five well-known Poughkeepsie women, died at St. Francis' Hospital, Poughkeepsie, at 2:55 a. m. today.

Only One Survivor

Her husband, Alphonse Tuozzo, 66, retired New York City police sergeant, died the day of the Town of Lloyd crash, which authorities said was the worst highway collision to occur in Ulster County.

Mrs. Tuozzo was the former Hazel Hawkins, native of Brooklyn, and daughter of the late Edward and Elizabeth Hawkins.

Her daughter, Miss Patricia Grace Tuozzo, 28, was the only survivor of the crash.

Also killed in the crash was Mrs. Lucy Daughton, 73, of 91 Garden Street, Poughkeepsie, wife of the late Joseph A. Daughton, Dutchess County clerk many years prior to 1934.

Other Victims

Other victims of the collision were: Miss Elizabeth O'Shea, 68, of the Poughkeepsie address, identified as the driver of the car containing the five women; Miss Mary O'Shea, 65, same address, and Mrs. Julia C. Schlimmer, 65, of 75 Garden Street, and Miss Katherine Schlosser, 74, of 73 Garden Street, all of Poughkeepsie.

The Misses O'Shea and Mrs. Daughton were sisters.

The five women had been visiting in Kingston where they had dinner the day of the accident, (Continued on Page 16, Col. 6)

Salaries Are Up for Discussion

DPW Workers Ask Equal Pay Study

A recess was taken by the Common Council Tuesday night subject to call of Alderman-at-Large Harold L. Kaye for action later this month on the Washington Avenue viaduct-Esopus Creek Bridge project and on uptown urban renewal, after the aldermen voted to try again to gain a meeting with the police board, and heard discussion on salary increases.

Alderman Frank C. Sass (D), Seventh Ward, council majority leader, emphasized that the fire board has agreed to meet with the aldermen, and the council was asked also to consider raises for public works employes. The bid was made by Joseph McCardle, president of the Civil Service Employes Association, who asked that the men in public works be given the same consideration as policemen and firemen.

$7,000 Approved

A $7,000 budget note for reconditioning a unit known as a Traxcavator, and used for landfill on the city's refuse disposal site, was approved, continuance of commissioners of deeds was authorized, city polling places were designated and an agreement with hospitals pertaining to laboratory charges was approved.

The resolution asking the police board to meet with the aldermen, offered by Donald M. Hastings (D) Third Ward, gained 10 votes with Edward J. Schrowang (R) First Ward abstaining and Minority Leader Joseph F. Carroll (R) 11th Ward, and Clark W. Myers (R) Second Ward, voting against it. Robert P. Slover (R) Fourth Ward, and John Machione (R) 12th Ward, joined the Democrats in voting for the resolution.

A special committee was named to discuss the post of plumbing inspector after a request from master plumbers for a meeting.

Would Improve Point

Alderman Francis R. Koenig (D) Ninth Ward, asked that an inquiry be made to determine what action is in progress for development of a park in the Kingston Point area. Former Mayor Edwin F. Radel, he said, had started action toward gaining a park there, and he asked that City Clerk Walter S. Foster determine what progress has been made or what action is to be taken to gain a park.

Argument flared several times to the point of disrupting procedure and Council President Kaye dealt several times with interruptions and disputes among aldermen as to which one was out of order.

Majority Leader Sass and Alderman Hastings and Frank A. Adams (D) Fifth Ward felt that the police board should extend the aldermen the same courtesy and consideration as the fire board, and Minority Leader Carroll noting that the police board had looked upon such a meeting as unnecessary, held that it was, and that a council committee would do as well. Machione also felt that action by a committee would be sufficient.

Not for Controversy

Sass cited recently published reports dealing with police and fire department salaries. He indicated that he wanted no prolonged controversy on the subject, but felt that all concerned would gain, if the various boards concerned and the aldermen (Continued on Page 10, Col. 2)

Howell Probably Helped Some

Rain Welcome Tuesday, But Much More Needed

While Poughkeepsie and the central sector of Dutchess County reported three to three-and-a-half inches of rain Tuesday, an official of the Ulster County Extension Service Agriculture Department reported rainfall in Ulster County ranged from one-third to one-and-a-half inches.

Ulster County Agriculture Agent William H. Palmer and Dutchess County Agent Oren Burbank, both said the rain was welcomed and it did some good for crops and lawns.

Agent Burbank said three inches of rain was reported in the central section of Dutchess County, while Poughkeepsie reported more than three inches. He noted that at the Dutchess County airport, New Hackensack, and other sections of the county reported "much less rain."

Help, Not Enough

"We are thankful for what we got," Agent Burbank said. "It was a help and a blessing, but not enough.

Asked if he thought the rainmaking operations conducted by Dr. Wallace E. Howell, Lexington, Mass., rainmaker and his associates were responsible for yesterday's rainfall, Agent Burbank told The Freeman, "It is difficult to say definitely, but where silver iodide was used it undoubtedly helped to increase the amount of rain."

Burbank added, "of course that is a guess, but a logical one." He said corn crops will make good use of yesterday's rain which undoubtedly helped the second cutting of alfalfa and new plantings.

Commenting on the possible effects the rainmaking operations had on Tuesday's rain, Burbank noted that the weather bureau had forecast rain during the day.

Noting that the last sizeable rainfall in Ulster county was the early part of April, Agent Palmer stated that at intervals certain sections of the county had reported rain. He said the present shortage of water began about the first week in April.

High Officer To Do Night Troop Duty

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Each State Police troop will have a commissioned officer in charge of night activities as a result of a series of promotions and transfers announced by the Division of State Police.

In the past, night operations of the troops were supervised by the highest-ranking trooper on duty. Usually, he was a sergeant.

State Police officials, who announced the changes Tuesday, said the lack of a commissioned officer on duty at night was considered an organizational weakness.

New Supervisors

The following troopers were appointed lieutenant-supervisors:

Troop A, Batavia, Lt. Clayton E. Bailey, now at Troop A. Salary $11,720.

Troop B, Malone, Lt. Frank A. Nolan, now at Troop B. Salary $12,035.

Troop C, Sidney, Lt. James A. Vann, now at Troop D. Salary $11,720.

Troop D, Oneida, Lt. Robert J. Cummings, now at Troop D. Salary $11,720.

Troop G, Loudonville, Sgt. John A. Nadig, now first sergeant at Troop C. Salary $11,300.

Troop K. Hawthorne, Lt. Robert Sweeney, now BCI lieutenant-supervisor at Troop K. Salary $12,035.

Other changes:

More Changes

Lt. Thomas H. Denlea, supervisor of the Bureau of Criminal Investigation in Manhattan, was promoted to inspector and transferred to Albany headquarters. James J. Leary, senior BCI investigator in Manhattan, took over Denlea's position.

George F. Lake Jr., senior BCI investigator in Manhattan, was promoted to lieutenant-supervisor of the BCI at Troop K.

Donald G. Brandon, senior investigator at Troop G, Loudonville, was promoted to lieutenant-supervisor of the Troop G BCI.

Wenzel Critical, Forte Boy Fair After Car Mishap

One of two boys injured here Tuesday in traffic mishaps was reported in critical condition and the other was reported as "fair" today at the Benedictine Hospital.

Donald Wenzel, 8, son of former Alderman and Mrs. Joseph Wenzel, of 122 Hasbrouck Avenue, who suffered internal, head and face injuries, was reported critical.

He was involved in a mishap at about 4:10 p. m. at Hasbrouck Avenue and Theresa Lane during yesterday's rain. Others were reported injured in an Abeel Street collision some 10 minutes later, and a boy was hurt earlier in the afternoon at Foxhall and Flatbush Avenues.

Dirksen Mentions October

Says Kennedy 'Must' Would Detain Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said today Congress still will be here in October if President Kennedy pushes a "must" legislative program.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, the deputy Democratic leader, has outlined a 10-point program discussed at a White House meeting Tuesday. He has said Congress can pass it and wind up its work by Sept. 15.

"Is he kidding?" Dirksen asked in an interview. "The Senate won't even get the trade expansion bill until after Labor Day. The Democratic leaders are holding up the tax revision bill until after that. If Congress does all the things Sen. Humphrey says the President wants done, we'll still be here in October."

Dirksen and other candidates for re-election in the Senate and House are anxious to end the session and get home to campaign. In that situation, the Republican leader said there is likely to be "quite a bit of wreckage from the Kennedy program left behind" when Congress adjourns.

Beside the trade and tax bills, Dirksen said he thinks Kennedy probably will get the communications satellite, drug control and U.N. bond measures Humphrey mentioned. He said youth employment and mass immunization bills have little chance.

To Be Further Attack

He indicated he doesn't believe Kennedy will get any of the tight controls he wants in any farm bill that may be passed. He said there will be a "further attack" in the House on Senate-passed authority for the President to initiate public works projects in a threatened recession.

State CC Calling For Picket Ban, Change Crew Law

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The State Chamber of Commerce called on Republicans today to include in their campaign platform pledges to outlaw organizational picketing and to change the "full crew" railroad laws.

The Chamber said these and other measures were necessary to increase economic growth in the state.

John J. Roberts, executive vice president, outlined the Chamber's position in a speech prepared for a hearing of the Republican Pre-Convention Platform Committee.

The hearing was the first of six the 18-member committee has scheduled in various areas of the state prior to the GOP's state convention in Buffalo Sept. 18-19.

Committee to Advise

The committee will make recommendations to the official platform committee at the convention.

James A. FitzPatrick of Plattsburgh, chairman of the pre-convention group, said several policies and programs adopted by Gov. Rockefeller's administration originated in pre-convention platform hearings held in 1958.

Star Goes to Rest Today in Plain Dress, No Jewels

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Marilyn Monroe, the waif who won movie stardom but couldn't find happiness in her own life, goes to her final resting place today in a plain green dress.

Although invitations to final rites for the 36-year-old blonde sex symbol were limited to about 15, police prepared for the worst—a mob scene that could involve thousands of fans and curiosity seekers.

Police and movie studio guards were assigned to keep order outside the Chapel of the Palms, in nearby Westwood. By midnight a crowd of 100 already had clustered around the entrance.

The shapely actress, who specialized in gay movie roles but found sorrow and disappointment in her own life, was found dead in her bed Sunday, victim of an overdose of barbiturates.

An investigation is under way to determine whether Marilyn's death was accidental or deliberate.

Couple Killed, 2 Paltz Children Injured in Crash

LIVINGSTON MANOR, N. Y. (AP) — Willis Dittman, 72, and his wife, Marion, 73, of Walden, N.Y., were killed Tuesday in a four-car crash on Route 17.

Police said Dittman, civil defense director of the Town of Montgomery since 1952, was driving the family car.

Two of the Dittmans' grandchildren riding with them were injured. Paul Barton, 7, of New Paltz, N.Y., was reported in critical condition today at Roscoe Community Hospital at Roscoe. His sister, Linda, 9, was reported in good condition.

Romney Is Top Vote-Getter In Michigan's GOP Primary

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Former automaker George Romney was Michigan's biggest vote-getter Tuesday as he ran unopposed for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

In other primary elections Tuesday, Sens. Frank Carlson and James B. Pearson won Republican nominations in Kansas and Sen. Edward V. Long usually a backer of the Kennedy administration, won Democratic nomination in Missouri.

Romney, former president of American Motors, had tallied 380,540 votes with 4,516 of the state's 5,199 precincts counted while Democratic Gov. John B. Swainson, also unopposed, had 266,066 votes.

As expected, Swainson ran ahead in the normally Democratic stronghold of Detroit and Wayne County, while Romney, mentioned as a possible GOP presidential candidate, held a big lead in the usually Republican outstate area.

Voter turnouts were light in all three states with most candidates for major offices have little or no opposition.

In Michigan, Alvin Bentley, a former representative, won the Republican nomination for congressman at-large without opposition. Democratic state chairman Neil Staebler, also unopposed, won his party's nomination. Bentley, like Romney, ran well ahead.

In the only major test of political figures, Sen. Pearson decisively defeated former Gov. Edward Arn of Kansas. Pearson, appointed to the Senate earlier this year after the death of Sen. Andrew Schoeppel, seeks election to the remaining four years of the term. Opposing him in November will be Democrat Paul Aylward.

Carlson easily won renomination over farmer Joe Corpstein. K. L. Smith was running well ahead of Joseph J. Poizner for the Democratic nomination to oppose Carlson this fall.

The only incumbent Kansas House member with a contest, Republican Rep. George McVey, was losing. Joe Skubitz, former administrative assistant to Sen Schoeppel, held a narrow lead over McVey with only a handful of precincts not reported in the 5th District.

Treasurer Lists Town Tax Dates

Fred H. DuBois, county treasurer, advises taxpayers in the various towns of Ulster County that the town tax collectors' warrants for collection of 1962 taxes expire September 1, 1962. After that date, they will turn in their tax rolls to the Ulster County treasurer's office.

Any unpaid taxes for the current year should be paid to the collector before that date in order to avoid extra penalties. The penalty for taxes paid to the collector during August is 4 per cent. After the tax is returned to the county treasurer's office, a five per cent penalty is charged, plus an additional penalty of interest at the rate of 10 per cent per annum figured from Feb. 1, 1962, to date of payment.

Government Officers Give Encouragement, But—

JFK Impact on Business Groups Is That He's Not on Their Side

By REIMAN MORIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has tried to convince businessmen that he is not "anti-business."

He meets them in groups. He exchanges letters with David Rockefeller, president of Chase Manhattan Bank, New York, outlining his economic policy and philosophy. Or he invites the individual businessman to the White House, seats him on the long sofa in his office, and says, "I'd like to hear what you think I should do."

But the impact on the business community as a whole has not been notably deep. In many quarters, the belief persists that he is "anti-business."

Specific Reasons

In some cases, the motivation is visceral an instinctive feeling that Democratic presidents are unsympathetic to business. The more specific reasons that emerge in conversations with businessmen go like this—

1. "I don't have any confidence in him. He says one thing but does another."

2. "He never had to meet a payroll, so he doesn't know the value of the dollar."

3. "Kennedy may be all right, but I'm scared stiff by some of the wild-eyed theorists around him."

4. "I don't hold any brief for the way Roger Blough (chairman of the board of U.S. Steel) handled the price increase. But Kennedy's reaction was bound to frighten business."

5. "He played mighty rough with management in the steel case, but I don't believe he will play rough with labor."

6. "He says a budget deficit is just a 'myth.'" (a reference to the President's speech at Yale, last June 11.)

Other Side Speaks

And these are the answers of government officers—

1. Business had confidence in presidents Herbert Hoover and Dwight D. Eisenhower, but four recessions developed during their administrations. Business confidence is based, in fact, on the ability of the economy to invest, produce and consume.

2. Kennedy expresses concern over the outflow of gold and deficits in the balance of payments. He says the dollar will not be devaluated. And he recently gave business a tax break—long in the works — which was estimated at $1.5 billion, on depreciation of plant equipment. A Cabinet officer points out, "that break could have been given at any time in the past 10 years."

Point to Policy System

3. Policy advisors advise, but policy is made in the deliberations of many men who would not be described as "wild-eyed."

4. In the steel case, Kennedy considered the competitive position of American steel and the impact of steel prices on the prices of other commodities. He calculated that the increase would take $3 billion from the economy. He also felt a "question of good faith" was involved, since the United Steel Workers had accepted a contract that the administration considered non-inflationary.

5. A high-placed officer says, "I know of a lot of pressure on the unions." He points out that, in the steel case, the government began "exerting the public interest" by discussing the contract with the unions.

6. At Yale, Kennedy spoke of several "myths." He said one was that "federal deficits create inflation and budget surpluses prevent it." He noted that the post-World War II surpluses "did not prevent inflation and persistent deficits for the last several years have not upset our basic price stability."

The President also called for a "serious dialogue" in all sectors of the American society on these questions. It has not developed and he is disappointed today.

Tivoli Man Pleads Innocent to Charge

2 Possibilities Left as Unions Fight Job Cuts

CHICAGO (AP) — Two possible courses of action remained today for the five unions representing the 200,000 operating employes in their fight to prevent the nation's railroads from eliminating thousands of jobs.

They could appeal a federal judge's decision which ruled out court intervention in the dispute, or they could call a strike, sending the dispute to the White House.

The railroads have served notice that they will place into effect Aug. 16 drastic new work rules which would eliminate the jobs of 40,000 diesel firemen and grant no immediate pay increases for on-train workers.

The unions represent the engineers, trainmen, enginemen, conductors, brakemen and switchmen.

U.S. Dist. Judge Joseph Sam Perry informally dismissed Tuesday an injunction suit filed by the unions in an effort to prevent the job cutback.

Lester P. Schoene, attorney for the unions, said no decision was reached immediately on whether to appeal.

Threatened to Strike

Spokesmen for the unions had no immediate comment on their future plans. During negotiations the unions threatened to strike if the carriers put the job cutbacks into effect without union consent.

If a strike is called, President Kennedy could appoint, under the Railway Labor Act, an emergency board to review the dispute. Such action would postpone a strike for at least 60 days.

Judge Perry's dismissal of the unions' injunction petition was a tactical victory for the carriers, which sought to force the issue to a White House settlement.

The rails have sought to put into effect the recommendations of a presidential commission, which recommended an overhaul of the railroads' pay and hours system and recommends the railroads be given more power to introduce technological changes.

Commission Will Decide Sanity of Accused Killer

LOCK HAVEN, Pa. (AP) — A sanity commission has been named to determine whether Dennis M. Vogel, 21, is mentally competent to stand trial on charges he murdered two fellow employes of the W. T. Grant Store in Lock Haven.

Judge A. H. Lipez named the commission Tuesday. Vogel, of Mill Hall, meanwhile faced a formal hearing Thursday before Alderman Eugene E. Wolf.

He is accused of fatally shooting D. W. Atwood, 55-year-old manager of the Grant Store, and Mrs. Shirley Rechel, 27, assistant manager, then robbing the store safe of $1,000. Vogel was a clerk at the store.

Lipez said the three-member Sanity Commission will determine whether Vogel can distinguish right from wrong.

Marilyn Was Warm and Witty As She Talked at Interview

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)— Memories of Marilyn.

When I saw Marilyn Monroe for the last time, she had the figure of a starlet, but the unmistakable aura of a star.

It was two months ago on the set of "Something's Got to Give," and she gave one of her last interviews.

Actually it was more like a conversation with an old friend, for she was warm and witty. She was still glowing from her tumultuous reception at President Kennedy's birthday celebration in Madison Square Garden.

She looked great. Gone was the pot tummy that she had displayed in recent movies. She had dropped 15 pounds and I asked her how she did it.

"It helps to have a bad gall bladder," said Marilyn, who had hers removed a year ago. "The rest is low cholesterol: Avoid animal fats. Who needs them? Eskimos, maybe. Not us."

Enjoys Being Alive

She talked gaily of her forthcoming 36th birthday and said: "I like celebrating birthdays. I enjoy knowing that I'm alive."

She was doing a scene with two child actors who were playing her children in the film. Her concern for them was strangely touching. The boy was shivering after a swimming scene, and she wouldn't continue until an electric heater was installed to warm him.

Between scenes her conversation was punctuated with high laughter. Despite her exhilaration, there was an undertone of the trouble that lay ahead.

I mentioned that the studio was unhappy with her absence because she went to the President's birthday party, especially since she had been out of the picture many days with illness.

"I told the studio six weeks ago that I was going," she snapped. "I consider it an honor to appear before the President of the United States."

It was shortly afterward that relations with the studio erupted with her firing and the hurling of threats and lawsuits. Marilyn dropped into seclusion.

Everyone has his own memories of Marilyn Monroe. My own go back to her early days on the same lot, when she was a young and eager starlet. She seemed little different from the throng of starlets in the talent factories of that era, except perhaps that she gave a better interview.

And when you saw her on the screen for the first time—slithering on a couch as Louis Calhern's mistress in "Asphalt Jungle"—you knew that she had that quality that separates stars from starlets.

There were other places, other times, but there won't be any more. The Marilyn Monroe story is over.

It will long be debated whether she was an actress. No one will ever doubt that she was a star.

Too Much Purity

DON'T COUNT THEM OUT

"How you gonna keep 'em down on the farm?" once was a popular song theme when great hordes of the rural population went to the cities where working and living conditions were better and wages were higher.

These masses of people strained cities' facilities until they burst their confines. The trend to suburbia was on, a great surge which continues to send its eddies farther and farther away from the central city.

Municipal authorities awakened too late, in most instances, to the fact they were left holding an area of deteriorating homes, traffic congestion, heavily commercialized and industrialized sections largely inhabited by lower income groups forced by economics to stay put.

Recently, a new look at this problem was undertaken by two University of Michigan economists, who polled urban residents on their preferences for city or suburban living.

Results show that the force of the magnet of suburbia has not diminished; the pollsters conclude that before large cities can be rehabilitated, urban planners first must create an entirely new image of the central city as an attractive place to live.

Currently, it was found, 2 out of 5 (38 per cent) of residents of large cities want to live farther out in the country, while only 6 per cent would like to live closer to the city's center. Half prefer to stay where they are.

The reasons given by those seeking escape to the suburbs certainly should be grist for the mills of urban planners. Those polled named such conditions as building congestion, heavy traffic, deteriorating schools and noise.

The economists' report sheds light on the effort of industry and business to follow the flow of residents. It appears to result in enlarging the circle. "Urbanization of areas surrounding cities (shopping centers, outlying factories, fewer open places)," they say, "reinforces the drive to get farther into the country, away from urban environment."

The efforts to keep the downtown areas the drawing card they are now, as this trend continues, is a knotty problem. Those far-seeing communities which are now launched on programs designed to rehabilitate their cores and to make them interesting and comfortable places to live appear to be on the right track.

MAN WITH AN IDEA

Dr. Maynard A. Peck, Professor of Economics and Business at Sterling College, is a man with an idea. It involves a cooperative effort on the part of businessmen and teachers to foster a greater understanding of the American economic system.

Here's the way it would work: Dr. Peck would supplement the regular academic course of his students by calling in business leaders to lecture on the practical applications of the theories these students have been learning in the classroom.

In his opinion, "college students want to know more about the practice, as well as the theory, of economics as it functions on the American business scene." Theory is all very well and necessary, but it is vitally important that it be illustrated with examples and principles of action, to show what our system has done and is doing. Of top importance, Dr. Peck thinks the result would be to arm young people with facts to combat the fallacies of alien "isms".

A YEAR OF THE WALL

Aug. 13 will mark the first anniversary of one of the Reds' worst international blunders, the erection of the Berlin Wall. The anniversary is one that should be marked.

Shortly after midnight on the morning of Aug. 13, 1961, the Communist Warsaw Pact governments issued a declaration in East Berlin calling on the East German government to impose effective controls to halt the flight of refugees across the line to the west. Before dawn the government complied, closing the border and setting in motion the machinery for erection of a concrete block wall.

There followed a barrage of notes between the Eastern and Western powers, Moscow hurling its usual charges of spying. Before the month ended President Kennedy issued a solemn warning to the Russian government that it would be held responsible for whatever untoward events resulted from construction of the wall.

The uneasy truce has continued, but by now the Reds must realize the scope of their blunder. After the war they wanted a ruined Berlin as a sort of monument to remind the world of the evils of Nazism. Their part of the city really did become a ruin. But West Berlin, in sharp contrast, became an even greater city.

So East Berlin has become a monument, all right, but not a monument to the horrors of Nazism. What it emphasizes, rather, is not only the poverty inherent in communism but its dependence on imprisonment of its people to keep them at home

OUR MONEY

Unquestionably the most serious problem that faces the United States today is our money—yours and mine. The law says that the dollar must be backed by 25 per cent gold. If the European countries continue to demand gold for dollars, we shall have to take all gold protection away from the dollar or we shall be forced to refuse to give the Europeans gold for dollars. In either case, the value of the dollar will depreciate and we shall suffer a severe economic crisis.

There is no use arguing that gold is of no importance. The fact is that the world accepts gold as the yard-stick for measuring the value of currency. When some other yard-stick will become equally acceptable, then the other yard-stick will be significant.

When some of the Wall Street bankers suggest that we go off gold, they are asking for trouble. It is quite possible that Europe will drive us off the gold standard. The Europeans can do that if they insist on taking gold instead of dollars. It will not be the Communist who will bury us, but our former allies whom we assisted so beneficially after World War I and World War II.

The Europeans can do this by sending back the dollars we gave them or what they earned and demanding gold therefore. Their demands are growing so pressing that the supply is running short. Today, we pay $35 an ounce for gold; we shall probably have to pay $50 an ounce, in which case the dollar will be devalued. But devaluation is more sound than the elimination or even the reduction of our gold reserve.

When the United States or American bankers make new loans to foreign countries, no matter which countries, the indenture should contain a clause that they can only get gold for dollars at the price of gold at the moment that the loan is made. Interest and principle should be repaid at $35 an ounce. In a word, the Europeans must not be able to hold us up by demanding expensive gold for cheap dollars.

Our economic troubles started at the end of World War II when wisdom indicated that a ceiling should be put on prices, wages, dividends, rents, interest, everything until an adjustment could be made between the costly waste of war and the reconstruction of peace. Instead, two elements of the population, agriculture and labor, were selected for protection and special privileges. The soldiers, professional groups, middle class personnel, business enterprises, etc, were not equally protected.

Instead of meeting the economic problems head-on back in 1945 to 1948, as Bernard Baruch suggested, we issued short term obligations which are now a plague upon us. The problem was handled politically, not economically.

It is difficult to get a fair estimate, but we probably lost over $100,000,000,000 (billion) in our world-saving effort. We did not have the money to lose. We do not have it now. During the 1960 campaign John F. Kennedy made an issue of the economy. He found it stalemated and he demanded that it be got moving. Kennedy's diagnosis that the American economy was sick and stalemated was correct, but his problem was not growth as much as that we were over-produced and that we would have to have a good old-fashioned "fire-sale."

It is difficult to find a solution to the fiscal problem, except to confess to our mistakes and to recognize that our domestic situations cannot be solved until the Berlin question is solved so that the cost of impending war can be reduced. We cannot afford to continue to pay for the preparation for war and at the same time maintain the value of our currency and do all the things we would like to do.

This involves a very serious dilemma for President Kennedy. If any solution is found over Berlin by compromise, the President will be accused of being soft on Communism. In fact, it will be suggested that he favors a "no win" policy. If, on the other hand, he does not find a solution to the Berlin question, we shall go broke preparing for war.

Facts You Should Know On Appendicitis Condition

By HAROLD T. HYMAN, M.D.
Written for
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Important facts you should know about appendicitis — compiled by surgeons at Massachusetts General Hospital:

Acute appendicitis develops in more than 200,000 Americans each year. It is accountable for over 2,000 deaths yearly.

When the inflammation is seen in its earliest phases, the death rate is less than one-tenth of 1 per cent. When it is seen a little later, after the inflamed appendix has burst, the death rate rises to 3.6 per cent. And, if the operation is still further delayed, for whatever reason, and an abscess forms around the inflamed and burst appendix the death rate exceeds 13 per cent.

Despite great advances in surgical treatment, including use of miracle drugs, the death rate in the last group of appendiceal abcess has not been significantly reduced. And, what is especially important to prospective patients, the record shows that persons with appendicitis are seen no earlier in their disease today than they were 23 years ago.

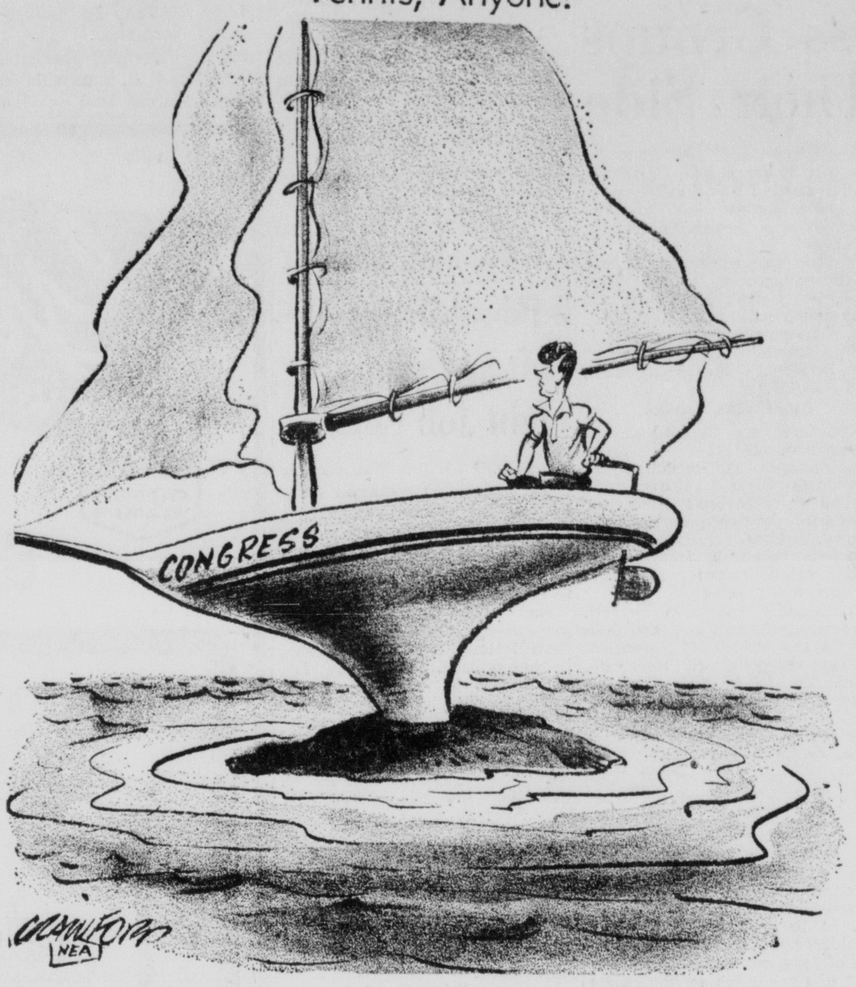
In their report, the surgeons tend to excuse referring physicians for this delay.

If their conclusion is correct, and if it is applicable to the country as a whole, then the cause for the continued mortality must rest with patients, especially the elderly, and with the parents of young patients who delay seeking medical consultation at a time when the inflamed appendix can be removed without risk.

For that reason, it may be wise to consider the early signs of acute appendicitis:

Pain in the right lower region of the abdomen that may, as a matter of experience, first begin in the pit of the stomach before it settles down below; fever, however slight, perhaps only a few tenths of a degree above normal; tenderness when the painful region is ever so gently poked.

If and when distress persists and is accompanied by fever and nausea or actual vomiting, the time for amateur observation has come to an end and the problem had best be turned over to the nearest physician.



Washington News

By PETER EDSON
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — In all the talk about businessmen's lack of confidence in the Kennedy administration, one of the principal criticisms has been that the President is getting the wrong advice from the wrong kind of people.

At first there was confidence in Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon, a Republican right out of Wall Street. Lately there has been some uneasiness that he is being too flexible in supporting Kennedy programs.

WHEN DILLON TOOK OVER at Treasury he found that he had no economic staff. Former Secretary George M. Humphrey had abolished it. He didn't believe in economists. "They can't tell you where you're going," he used to say. "All they can do is tell you where you've been." And, "If anybody knew all the answers, he'd soon have all the money."

Anyway, Dillon took his problem of having no economists at Treasury to President Kennedy.

He suggested that Seymour Harris of Harvard, his old professor and adviser, be called in. This was done. Harris assembled a group of academic economic consultants—now numbering 37.

AMONG THE BETTER KNOWN NAMES on the list are Paul A. Samuelson of MIT, Roy Blough (no relation to Roger) of Columbia, James F. Dussenberry of Harvard, Dean G. L. Bach of Carnegie Tech, Daniel B. Suits of Michigan, Isidor Lubin of Rutgers, Walter S. Salant and Joseph A. Pechman of Brookings Institution. There are no private business economists.

Usually they work in small panels on specific problems. The full group has been called in only twice—in November 1961 before this year's budget was approved and last June 27. There was no publicity either time.

Last November the economists were all optimistic. The business outlook was rosy. The consensus was that the gross national product would top $570 billion this year. All indicators pointed to a big boom and high growth rate.

When about 30 members of the group met at Treasury June 27, they heard seven papers on the domestic economy and one on the international outlook. All were gloomy. Twenty of the 30 business indicators were down.

NO SPECIFIC RECOMMENDATIONS were made on what ought to be done about it. No votes were taken. Policy making was left to the politicians and administrators. But the consensus of the meeting was that there should be a tax cut. Cuts of from $6 billion to $10 billion were mentioned. The implication was that the cut should be made quickly.

One Treasury skeptic at the meeting is reported to have whispered to the man in the next chair, "If these economists were so wrong last November, why should we think they are so right now?"

The question was put to the panel out loud. The answer that came back was, in summary:

"Well, we didn't anticipate the stock market slump."

THIS HIGHLY REVEALING report recalls a column which the late, great Fred Othman wrote toward the end of the 1957 recession. He had sat all day in the old Supreme Court chamber in the Capitol, listening to one expert after another tell the Congressional Economic Committee that the business outlook was terrible and that Congress ought to do something about it, without specifying just what.

Fred came back to the office and wrote a piece which began, "The recession is all over." His logic was that any time you get economists to agree on something unanimously, they're all wrong. As it soon developed, Fred was right.

Anyone interested in checking out this Othman theory of economics might file this piece for six months or a year and see how things turn out.

If it develops that the administration advisers were all wrong, then business indeed would be justified in telling the President to hire some new advisers.

The Drive on U. S. Reds: What's Behind Obstacles?

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—Is there a faction in the Democratic party today which consideres the fight against communism in the United States as just a lot of nonsense?

If there is a renewed tendency in that direction, it is quite possible that the Democratic party itself will be facing again the charge of being "soft on communism" which led in part to its defeat in the 1952 Presidential and Congressional elections.

It seems strange that the 13-state conference of Western Democrats at Seattle should have given its time to listen to a speech by W. H. Ferry, vice-president of the Fund for the Republic, denouncing as ineffective "spy-swatting" the efforts of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in fighting communism.

Mr. Ferry apparently differs with Attorney General Robert Kennedy in appraising the significance of the activities of the Communists in this country. For the Attorney General has repeatedly said in public speeches that Communist subversives cannot be ignored.

Mr. Ferry said in one part of his speech:

"No one cares to have spies and saboteurs percolating through the republic, and if the FBI is not up to finding and prosecuting them, let us set up an agency that can."

Benefit of Law

Mr. Ferry talks as if all the FBI has to do to get rid of persons suspected of Communist activities is to arrest them, and that they will then of course, be convicted and put in jail without much difficulty. But the truth of the matter is that Communist agents are not only subtle and skillful in their methods, but they know American laws very well and they have the benefit of resourceful American lawyers who manage to keep them out of jail.

Also, the Supreme Court of the United States has been of no little assistance on many occasions which its rulings that Communism is just a kind of belief and that freedom of speech should protest those accured of furthering the Communist cause in public. It's a bit difficult to prosecute—and even for Congressional and State Legislative committees to investigate—when the arm of the law is thus weakened.

This means that the cooperation of the American people is most essential, and one of the most effective ways to combat communism is to educate the people concerning the insidious methods used to influence them through the press, the radio, the church, the school systems, the educational faculties and the labor unions. It is conceded that the number of Communists is small but that many innocent people have been duped and misled by the real Communist agents.

The problem nevertheless remains. It takes only one Klaus Fuchs to steal atomic secrets. The British government gave clearance to Fuchs when he came to the United States to work on the atomic bomb project, and this was accepted by the American government. Eventually, however, it was found that Fuchs conspired with others and gave information to the Communists that accelerated the time when the Soviet Union was capable of developing atomic weapons.

For the past two weeks newspapers have been publishing the story of Robert Soblen, who escaped from this country even though he was under $100,000 bail. He was a convicted spy sentenced to life imprisonment. But the FBI is powerless when a man is granted bail who never should have been given even temporary freedom. The FBI doesn't control the courts.

Mr. Ferry has been quite a controversial figure and has for years taken an active part in belittling the Communist menace in this country. Not so long ago, he tried to combat the efforts of the New Hampshire legislative committee which investigated alleged Communist infiltration of educational institutions.

Attack on Hoover

Mr. Ferry, in his address before the 13-state Democratic party conference, seemed to level his attack particularly at J. Edgar Hoover. This is not a new tactic. For many years now, many persons have been trying to damage the prestige of the head of the FBI, but have not succeeded. Mr. Ferry said:

"Then Mr. Hoover warns against Soviet espionage in the U. S. This is an old line of the FBI chief, and its success year after year is a tribute to the trance into which sermons throw Americans, not excepting Congressmen. Mr. Hoover is, after all, our official spy-swatter. In these persistent reports about espionage and sabotage, is he delicately telling us that he isn't up to the job, that Red spies are running loose despite his best efforts? If, in fact, we are infested with these rascals, as Mr. Hoover intimates, it might occur to many peoples that the country needs a more efficient spy-swatter."

Not content with his blows at the FBI and its efforts to ferret out Communists subversives, Mr. Ferry aimed a few swipes at American business and industry. He took issue with those who have suggested that President Kennedy now is trying to "woo" American business. Mr. Ferry said:

"Industry should not be wooed, but watched and tolerated and reined in when it gets out of line . . . They (the corporations) are not there to be loved but to be used."

Mr. Ferry, as vice president of the Fund for the Republic has a lot to say nowadays about how the money accumulated by the late Henry Ford should be spent. Mr. Ford was probably the best example of how one man can build up an individual enterprise that this country has ever seen. He might never have made the success he did if American business had been regulated to the extent that it is today. It's strange how often the funds bequeathed by men who are pilloried as "big business" are used by so-called "liberals" to create antagonisms against business as an institution.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

TUCSON, Aug. 7—James Allison, the editor of the Midland, Tex., Reporter-Telegram, and president of the Chamber of Commerce, offers a wistful interpretation of the collapse of the market for family dwellings in the financial and technical capital of the West Texas petroleum empire.

My own superficial observation had been that the economy was out of joint because the Big Fellows of international oil were restricting West Texas production to eight days a month as a favor to their overseas possessions. Mr. Allison ignores this factor to insist that loan policies of the Federal Housing Administration are the cause of the slump which only two weeks ago had thrown about 700 Midland dwellings onto the market and moved the FHA director of 73 Texas counties to shut off "acceptances" of new subdivisions.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch at San Angelo, in the sheep and goat country, the Standard-Times tumbled to a similar situation. The Standard-Times ran a loud piece by Dave Anderson headed "Repossessed Homes Glut West Texas Market — Little Down, Long Terms One Cause for Troubles." There was a five-column photograph of Jefferson Heights, a local phenomenon which materialized in the last few years, now known by the familiar and depressing name of a "repo area". The cut-lines said:

"This is Jefferson Heights, San Angelo's last big speculative building development where more than 100 houses now stand empty. They were repossessed by FHA and Veterans Administration when buyers walked away without completing payments. One street alone has 30 repos. On July 3, the FHA had for sale in this area 108 repossessed houses, slightly more than half of the total of 191 the FHA had for sale on that date. Other areas with high repo concentrations are College Hills, Western Hills and Glenmore."

Anderson's story said the government had 47,000 such homes on its hands across the nation, and further as follows: "The large surplus of empty homes hurts real estate business and in some places depresses values. The FHA and VA have slapped freezes on many communities, including San Angelo. Builders can't let loan commitments from the FHA or VA unless they have a buyer before they build the house. Some local sources say home construction is off 50 per cent.

"Mrs. Shell Barth, local real estate board president, blames the high foreclosure rate on the fact that FHA and VA home owners often have hardly anything invested in their homes, often after living in them several years. The minimum down payment is three per cent, but local sources admit that builders have sometimes found ways of eliminating even this requirement. Loans have been increased from 20 to 35 years" and few of the houses seem to have the stamina for more than 15 years of wear and tear with successive broods of children.

There are many such in Tucson which three years ago were enchanting, especially by contrast in my own eyes with the cheese-paring squalor of Khrushchev's luxurious little cells in the new 12-story hives in Modern Moscow. They had two bathrooms, three bedrooms and, many of them, teevy room with a hot-dog and coke bar giving onto the kitchen. But many of them looked like hell in a few months and the lowdown, shiftless quality of the pesters was in part responsible. Having nothing at stake and no pride in their credit, floaters of the type called Oakies and Arkies in "Grapes of Wrath" proved that they were no better in pretty homes than they had been in their box-wood California shacktowns in the Great Depression. The prices of the repos have been in the range between $12,500 and $14,500. In California today signs along the freeways offer homes with no down payment.

Notwithstanding Mr. Allison's contention that the Government's idiotic loan policies are the only local economic sore spot, the fact persists that oil and gas are now down-at-the-heel industries which, with less restriction, might be blow-hards as of yore. Moreover, the loud-mouth economy which formerly shot craps with sheaves of $100 bills last year adopted a penny-ante sales tax to make up for revenues foregone by self-denial of taxes on oil and gas waiting to be sold.

Odessa, 20 miles from Midland, is a major and growing industrial center of the petrochemical trade. But when Paul Kayser, the president of El Paso Natural Gas, recently hove up at a big speaking party of corporation executives he dealt in gaudy generalities and shunned the fact that his own stock has fallen from 32 to 19-plus in a few years. There was no lack of markets or reserves, but the Federal Power Commission had clamped down limits on prices at the wells. He even had to lay off exploration experts because there is little incentive to find new reserves.

YMCA Day Camp Open House Friday

The Kingston YMCA Day Camp will conduct an open house at its Ticetonyk Mountain setting for all campers and their parents Friday evening, August 10, from 5 to 8. Camp Director Steve Orozco and his staff have a program of camp activities set up to give all parents and guests an opportunity to have a night of fun. Swimming, boating, skits, fishing and a picnic lunch are the main features of the affair.

The final week of camp, beginning Monday, August 13, will feature a YMCA Olympic games. Track and field events and swimming races will be highlighted, with first, second and third place winners in age brackets receiving ribbons. All boys and girls in this area should plan to attend.

Paltz Families Hold Reunion on Coast August 4th

Local historian, Kenneth Hasbrouck, who is on tour of the west, has written to say that Aug. 4, members of descendants of New Paltz families held a reunion at the Claremont Hotel, Berkely, Calif., in keeping with Stone House Day on the old street in New Paltz.

This reunion is in answer to a promise made a few years ago to the west coast members of the Hasbrouck Family Association and Huguenot Historical Society. The people here had requested that a meeting be held as it was impossible to come East.

The newspapers in the Bay area such as the San Francisco Chronicle, Oakland Tribune and local papers gave the reunion and the story of New Paltz good coverage. From the response to the newspaper articles, it would appear that the New Paltz group could very well organize branches in other parts of the country.

August 15 there will be a reunion of Freers at Warren, Ohio. This group will also take their place as a branch of the New Paltz organization. Mrs. Griswold Hulburt, editor of the Warren Chronicle, is to head the group in Ohio, aided by James Faunce.

Mr. Hasbrouck goes on to say "throughout our journey West, it was most interesting to find that the families that originally came from New Paltz are still vitally interested in what we have been doing to preserve the old houses on Huguenot Street. They want to know more about the town and its people. Many of them want to visit the community."

Playground Plans Include Dog Show

Aug. 9 is the scheduled date for the fifth anual Ken-L-Ration Kids Dog Show as a part of the New Paltz Recreation Program. This event will be held on the Central School playground at 1:30 p. m.

All materials for the show are provided as a public service by the Ken-L-Ration Company. First, second and third place in each classification will receive a loving cup, T-shirt, dog leash and can of dog food. Best of show will be awarded a wrist watch.

Entries wil be made for the classifications of best costumed dog; dog with the longest tail; dog with shortest tail; largest dog; smallest dog; best trick dog; best cared-for dog.

The first place winner in each of these classifications is eligible for show, and also eligible to enter the county finals at Forsyth Park, Kingston, Aug. 15 at 2 p. m., during the Ulster County Fair. Best of show owner at the county finals will receive a bicycle.

Other events drawing the recreation program to a close will include another teen dance and a trip to the Polo Grounds.

The first teen dance, which was held recently was such a success that a second one has been scheduled for Thursday from 7-11 p. m. on the Central school parking lot. Music will again be provided by the Tornadoes.

For the trip to the Polo Grounds to take place on Wednesday, Aug. 15, those wishing to go must sign up this week between the hours of 9-12 a. m. at the central school playground. Anyone between the ages of 9-16 may go. Adults interested in accompanying the group on this trip should contact Marlene Winnie.

Fair and Supper Set on Saturday

Saturday the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service will hold its annual fair and supper at the Methodist Church, Main Street.

At 3 p. m. the fair will open on the church grounds and the supper will start 5 p. m. and continue until all are served. Tickets are available at several stores in town and through Mrs. Alvin Beatty, Mrs. Kenneth Baumgartner, members of the WSCS and at the door.

Those wishing to donate articles may leave items at the church in labeled boxes or contact Mrs. Baumgartner if items are to be picked up.

The Men's Club of the New Paltz Methodist Church will hold its annual auction on the church grounds Saturday, Sept. 15. Items are still being requested. If items are to be picked up arrangements can be made by contacting Myron Ronk, while the Rev. Willett Porter and his family are on vacation.

It has been announced that Joseph Vaccaro of the Springtown Road has purchased the DeZort Market at 80 Vineyard Avenue, Highland. He will operate it along the same lines established by William DeZort, 17 years ago.

Mr. Vaccaro has had 22 years experience in the meat business as meat manager, most of them spent with one of the leading chains, working in Saugerties, Poughkeepsie, Highland and New Paltz. He served in Highland from 1949 to 1956.

Area Activities

The annual picnic of the New Paltz Democratic Club will take place Sept. 9 at the New Paltz Rod and Gun Club grounds. The menu will be a charcoal broiled beef dinner. Activities for all will follow the meal.

Donna and Gail Langwick have as their guest for a two week vacation, their cousin, Diedra Jensen of Farmingdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil DePuy were Saturday night dinner guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dolcemascolo of Clintondale, to celebrate both their daughter and son-in-law's birthdays.

Ivan Ferguson recently scored a hole-in-one on the fifth hole "Pitch Down" while golfing at the Lake Mohonk golf course.

The next regular meeting of the New Paltz Rod and Gun Club will be held at the Club House Wednesday, Aug. 8. President Robert DuBois is hoping for a large turnout to discuss the field day which is to be held on Sept. 15 and the barbecue to be held Oct. 7.

Girl Scouts from Troop 58 danced as a group Saturday, Aug. 4 at Stone House Day. They performed two folk dances in Dutch costume under the leadership of Mrs. Bernard Bartz who was assisted by Mrs. Morgan Coutant and Irene Bartz. Those taking part were Jane Clarkson, Barbara Bartz, Margaret Corey, Mary Beth Coutant, Cynthia George, Carol Huber, Joan McCord, Suzanne Maurer, Mary Ann Pratt, Evelyn Schneider, Marion Tozzi, Lorna Rode, Ann Tenagelia and June Phillips.

The New Paltz Methodist Men's Club has planned a trip to New York for Aug. 25 for the New York Mets-Los Angeles Dodgers baseball game. For reservations, Wilbur Fredenburgh, ticket chairman, may be contacted.

KING OF FLOCK—Kevin McCabe of Hurley Wranglers 4-H Club displays his Red Rock Cross rooster which he will enter in the Ulster County Fair Aug. 15 and 16 at Forsyth Park. His entry will be among the 50 to 75 poultry exhibits expected. (Freeman photo).

Dental Clinic to Be Held at West Hurley

Dr. E. Franklin Hall, commissioner of Health of Ulster County, announces a series of dental clinics for pre-school children, ages four and five, which will be conducted at the West Hurley Firehouse on Monday, August 13.

Children participating in these clinics will have their teeth inspected, cleaned and will have an opportunity to participate in the program of decay prevention.

The children will be able to see dental equipment and have a chance to learn and understand the importance of dental health. In this way, they will become interested and look forward to future visits to the dentist.

Appointments for those interested may be made by calling the Ulster County Health Dept.

Highland State Police To Have New Station

State police at Highland will move into new and larger quarters in a six-room ranch type barracks about three-quarters of a mile north on Route 9W from the present station on September 1.

The structure is being built by Walter Seaman of Esopus who will lease the building to the state.

The new station will be on the east side of Route 9W and will have a larger parking area.

In Basic Training

Alo Saluste, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Saluste of 130 Cedar Street, Kingston was recently assigned to Company R of the 4th Training Regiment for eight weeks basic training at Fort Dix, N. J. He graduated from Kingston High School and the University of Rochester.

Poultry Exhibits To Be Feature at Fair Aug. 15-16

Poultry exhibits will be one of the many features to be seen at the Ulster County Fair Aug. 15 and 16. It is expected that some 50-75 poultry exhibits will be entered at the fair. All exhibits will be in place on Wednesday morning at Forsyth Park.

The poultry exhibits beside chickens will include some geese, ducks, turkeys, bantams, pigeons and perhaps some guinea pigs. There will also be some exhibits of eggs.

The 4-H members who exhibit poultry own and raise their own birds. They also keep poultry records as part of their 4-H poultry project.

The birds will all be judged using the Danish system. In this system all entries in each class are judged against a standard of excellence for that class. This method stresses the educational values of county fair exhibiting rather than the competitive aspect. Judging the poultry classes will be Leonard Gunsch of Newburgh.

Members of 4-H will also have an opportunity to "judge" poultry at the fair. A poultry judging contest will be held at noon Wednesday for all 4-H members enrolled in the poultry projects. The contest consists of judging two classes of poultry, one class of cull or keep and a class each in grading exterior quality and interior quality of eggs.

The members receive instruction in judging at their local club meetings and also at special training schools held in the summer. From the contest high scoring individuals, who meet state exposition requirements, will be selected to represent Ulster County at the New York State Exposition in Syracuse, Aug. 28-Sept. 3.

Do You Remember by Sophie Miller

Robert E. Haines of 48 Roosevelt Avenue, Kingston, who had sent me some excellent material on the Clinton family just sent me some more items. One bit of information is interesting at this time, for he writes, that it was on July 30, that Clinton was inaugurated as governor of New York State, here in Kingston, which makes it 185 years ago this summer.

Mr. Haines was interested in the item on Hewitt Boice and bluestone mentioned the other day in the column. Hewitt Boice "was first cousin" to his maternal great-grandfather, Horace Boice. He writes, that he has a wonderful daguerreotype of Hewitt Boice and Horace Boice, given to him by Horace Boice's daughter, Mrs. Harry Hulsair of Sawkill.

Mr. Haines refers to A. T. Clearwater's History of Ulster County coverage of Hewitt Boice. H. Boice was a grandson of Peter Boice and Samuel Davis, life long Olive town residents. Hewitt Boice was born in Boiceville, Ulster County in 1846, and early in life became interested in bluestone. In connection with his father and brother, Peter, he also carried on a tannery, lumber and bluestone business in Samsonville, Ulster County, under the name of William V. N. Boice and Sons, which continued until 1875, in which year he started in the bluestone business at Brodheads Bridge. Two years later he bought property on East Strand, in Rondout, where his bluestone business became the largest of its kind in the country, running into some half a million dollars worth annually.

Now perhaps folks from various parts of town will believe that some of the real big money was made downtown in Rondout, and I guess some of the largest and finest bluestone came through Hewitt Boice's place. Mr. Boice also owned five barges and a 350-ton schooner. He also owned a stone yard and mills at Higginsville and quarries at different points along the Ulster and Delaware Railroad. In 1901 he sold his large business enterprise to the Hudson River Blue Stone Co. at, it is said, a very large figure.

Mr. Haines then refers to Nelson Greene in his five volume set History of the Valley of the Hudson, River of Destiny, Vol. III, p. 188-191, S. J. Clarke, Pub. Co. Chicago, 1931). In this book, Hewitt Boice was known as the "Blue Stone King." It was said, "Boice was regular in his habits and quick and decisive in action, and was able to perform duties as varied in character as they were successful in results." This book also tells about Boice coming to Rondout in 1877, buying a frontage of 300 feet on East Strand and the beginning of his bluestone business, which under his guidance achieved large proportions.

This book tells about Mr. Boice selling his plant to the late Samuel D. Coykendall of Kingston but retaining other important business interests. For many years Boice was president of the Kingston Iron and Ore Co., also controlled the Lake Superior Copper and Zinc Co. He had interests in the L. B. Van Wagenen Co. Elmhurst Southern Realty Co. He was director of the U. S. Gypsum Co. of Chicago, Ill., for some 10 years and a member of the Board of the First National Bank of Rondout for 20 years. I just wonder what advice he could give the people of Kingston and Rondout for today's trials and tribulation.

The official board of the Modena Methodist Church will meet Monday evening, Aug. 13, at 8 p. m. at the Hasbrouck Memorial Hall.

The planning board of the Town of Plattekill will meet Tuesday, Aug. 14, at 8 p. m. in the Town Hall, Ardonia.

The regular meeting of the Plattekill Town Board will be held Wednesday, Aug. 8, at 8 p. m. at the Town Hall, Ardonia.

WSCS Activities

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Modena Methodist Church met Thursday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Eldred Smith, Ardonia.

The meeting was previously planned to be held at Mrs. Joseph Simmons' home in Ireland Corners, but was changed owing to a death in Mrs. Simmons' family.

Attending Thursday's meeting were Mrs. Charles Cooper of Washingtonville, Mrs. Earl B. DeWitt Sr., of New Hurley, Mrs. Anna Tonnesen of New Paltz, Mrs. LeRoy Gruman of Clintondale, Mrs. Ira Hyatt of Ardonia, Mrs. Augustus Coleman of Savilton, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Joseph E. Hasbrouck, Mrs. Fred Bernard, Mrs. William Decker, Miss Emma Behm, Mrs. Lester I. Arnold, and Mrs. William H. Boyle, of Modena.

A report was given by the committee conducting the annual Methodist Church fair, held at the Hasbrouck Memorial Hall during July of the sum of $114.55, from the sale of articles and food.

The next meeting Thursday, Sept. 6, at 2 p. m. will be held at the home of Mrs. Simmons in Ireland Corners.

Firemen Meet

The Modena Fire Department met Thursday, 8 p. m. at the firehouse.

Reports were given by chairmen of various committees, and of activities of the past month

The annual fair, held recently on the firehouse property was reported as successfull and appreciation, was extended for cooperation of all.

Kenneth Dimsey was appointed chairman of the publicity committee. A total of 18 local firemen participated in the parade of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen, held at Port Ewen recently, in connection with the 27th annual convention and banquet.

Fourteen local firemen assisted in the child search at Napanoch.

A Mutual Aid set up is being planned, with extensixe drills in order to aid New Paltz, in case of necessity.

A recheck is being made of sources of water supplies, throughout the area, some reported to be depleted from the continued drought.

Richard Abbott was appointed to head a committee to provide kits of equipment for firemen when on field work such as search parties.

Firemen have been busy preparing the Modena school ground in preparation of the donkey baseball game between Modena and Clintondale Firemen, Wednesday, Aug. 8 at 6:30 p. m. Admission will be charged.

The next meeting of the department will be held Thursday, Sept. 6, at 8 p. m. at the firehouse.

Vacation Bible School

The cooperative vacation Bible school for the Modena-Clinton dale area opened Monday, Aug. 6, and will continue through Friday, Aug. 17. The Modena Methodist Church, the Clintondale Methodist Church and the Clintondale Meeting of Friends are cooperating in this venture.

Classes will be held for children of kindergarten age, through the sixth grade, and a special study seminar for young people from the seventh grade through high school.

The Rev. George E. Davidson, pastor of the Methodist Churches is acting as coordinator and director, this year.

Teaching staff members are Mrs. Vernon Lyons, kindergarten; Mrs. Jean Kalamucki, primary; Mrs. LeRoy Gruman, junior; the Rev. Mr. Davidson, intermediate and senior. Each daily session will open at 9 a. m. and close at 11:45 a. m.

Mrs. Laura Jenkins is in charge of recreational activities, while Mrs. Harold West and Mrs. Robinson are acting as administrative assistants.

The ladies will also act as teaching assistants. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Richard Abbott.

The curriculum for kindergarten through junior grades is directed primarily at biblical understanding and worship, with an emphasis on understanding the meaning of church for primary students. The intermediate-senior program will be a two-week seminar type class on the history of the Christian Church.

Expert North Safe on Error

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Here is a hand where a couple of experts really managed to go wrong. The scene was the Asbury Park sectional and they were playing together for the first time so there were some extenuating circumstances.

Expert West chose to pass South's opening heart bid and wait developments. After North responded one no-trump, South passed and West decided action was indicated so he bid two spades. North tried three clubs and when that was passed around to West he chose to double. It was one of those duplicate doubles designed to produce a plus score of 200 points, but it did not work out that way.

East opened the queen of spades. Dummy's king lost to West's ace and now West underled the ace of diamonds to put his partner in for a heart lead. East missed that cue and led a second spade, whereupon North made the rest of the tricks. Of course, it made little difference. Three clubs doubled, making either four or five was a top score for North and South.

Incidentally, if East does bid diamonds he can make five by means of a spade-heart squeeze and end play against South. The play is not too simple but you can work it out if you remember to ruff a club and run out trumps.

Second Death Occurs From Thruway Crash

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (AP)—A head-on collision between an automobile and a pickup truck on the State Thurway near here has taken a second life.

Lloyd Dick, 49, of Mansfield, La., died at a Schenectady hospital Tuesday night of injuries suffered in the crash earlier in the day.

Mrs. Caroline Avignone of Bayside, Queens, was dead at the scene of the accident.

State Police said her car crossed the dividing strip from the Eastbound to the westbound lane of the highway and into the path of the truck.

Two men riding with Dick in the truck were reported in serious condition at Ellis Hospital here.

First railroad tracks in Missouri were laid in 1851.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Psychiatry is the next candidate for television's glamor treatment of medicine.

One of NBC's important fall entries is "The 11th Hour," about the cases of a widowed forensic psychiatrist and a handsome clinical psychologist.

"The 11th Hour" started as one program in the "Kildare" series, but the program was never aired. Now it has been re-shot to kick off the new series this fall. Like its parent show, meticulous attention is given to authenticity and small, important detail.

There is a consulting psychiatrist on the set for advice on scenes and to guide stars Wendell Corey and Jack Ging in portraying professional men.

NBC, of course, just hopes it has a popular new show on its schedule.

"But one of our goals," says Dr. Harold W. Arlen, the Los Angeles psychiatrist who is the show's chief consultant, "is to present psychiatry as a medical science rather than something mysterious and bizarre, and to show psychiatrists and psychologists as human beings rather than gods or magicians."

Dr. Arlen and the committee drew up a list of books on psychiatry for the script writers to read for background. Dr. Arlen coached the stars on proper behavior: Never touch the patient other than shaking hands, learn areas of restraint—when to be gentle or harsh, when to lead in questioning and when to follow, and, most important, how to look objective and compassionate at the same time.

"A delicate balance," says the doctor.

Catskill Village Board President Dies in Sleep

President of the Village Board, long-time trustee, businessman, Lions Club president and a well-known and devoted native of Catskill was found this morning dead in the bed where he slept Tuesday night.

Raymond Rothrock, 52, could not be awakened from his sleep this morning. It was then that his wife discovered that he had died some time during the night.

Mrs. Rothrock said that her husband had complained of indigestion prior to going to bed Tuesday night and that he appeared to be asleep when she last noticed.

Henry Millspaugh, Greene County coroner, said that Mr. Rothrock had apparently died of a heart attack.

He was the owner of Ray's Appliance.

Funeral arrangements were still incomplete today as The Freeman went to press. Surviving, besides his wife, are a son and daughter.

Driver Is Found Innocent Tuesday Of Drunk Charge

A city court jury returned a verdict of innocent Tuesday afternoon after trial of George J. Strbich, 40, of Plainfield Street, on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

The arrest, police said, dated back to June 8, 1961. The jury was out about a half hour before returning the verdict. The trial began Tuesday morning before Judge Joseph D. Saccoman. Attorney Frank Martocci appeared for Strbich, and Ward W. Ingalsbe Jr., for the district attorney's office.

Robert Harrell, 29, of 53 Van Buren Street, charged with disorderly conduct, paid a fine of $25. The charge was lodged by Officer Richard Scherer, who claimed that Harrell was abusive and disorderly as Scherer investigated a recent accident at Hasbrouck Avenue and East Chester Street.

Robert William VanHouton, of Newburgh, charged with speeding, was fined $15, and Judy Surico, of Poughkeepsie, booked on a stop-sign charge, paid $10.

Troopers Check Vols Carnivals For Gambling

State troopers have checked firemen's carnivals and bazaars in Dutchess, Orange and Putnam Counties and reported no evidence of the use of gambling devices, according to State Police Captain George L. Infante, Troop K comamnder.

Recently troopers from Troop C in Ulster County and Troop G in Columbia County closed down some booth's at firemen's events because they had games of chance. At Clintondale, four volunteer firemen were recently arrested on charges of keeping a place for gambling, but the charges later were dismissed after the men pleaded innocent.

Po'keepsie Council Approves Bond Issue

Initial steps towards financing the purchase of an aerial snorkel type hook and ladder and a pumper for O. H. Booth Hose Co., Poughkeepsie, have been taken by that city's Common Council.

The Council authorized the finance committee to obtain a bond issue from Sykes, Galloway and Dykeman, New York City attorneys.

City Manager Kenneth Pearce noted the existing 25-year-old pumper would be retained as a reserve fire truck. The estimated cost of the two pieces of apparatus is about $85,000, according to Fire Chief Irving Merrick.

Portugal Has Surplus

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — Finance Minister Pinto Barbosa reports the Portuguese government ended 1961 with its 33rd consecutive budget surplus. He said this year's surplus is $40,810.

Council Recesses

met to discuss salaries and other department problems. Police and fire departments also have uniform allowances to be discussed.

Hastings, in requesting the second letter to the police board emphasized that its members should be asked to extend to the council the same courtesy given it by the fire board.

Some time was spent to determine if Minority Leader Carroll was proceeding with questions pertaining to the subject of the resolution. He was allowed to proceed but attempts continued to declare him out of order.

Commended Later

Machione, at one point during random comment, asked "Who is out of order?" and Council President Kaye replied, "You are." Machione, who felt that the council should act through a committee, later commended Kaye for the manner in which he has conducted council sessions.

Sass indicated that he failed to understand why there was so much objection to the proposal that the aldermen meet with the police board when none followed the suggestion that one be held with the fire board.

Carroll said the city's entire "financial picture," must be considered in dealing with salaries. Hastings noted that Carroll in his letter published July 27 had proposed a long-range study dealing with the fire and police department salary problems. He felt aldermen should be included in the study proposal because they will be called upon for final action.

Carrolll had written that he had proposed three years ago small increases on an annual basis and in effect charged the Democrats with not following through. Sass in a letter of reply, noted that Mayor Edwin F. Radel had made provision for annual raises which were achieved in his administration.

Slover Wants Action

Alderman Robert P. Slover (R) Fourth Ward, in voting for the Hastings resolution, said the problem 'would eventually have to be ironed out" and he saw no reason why the aldermen should not be involved from the start. Machione thanked Kaye for indicating that he would also name a committee to deal with salary problems.

Carroll noted that the police board has indicated it has no desire to meet with the entire council, and he noted that the proposal will be one to be dealt with ultimately by the council's finance committee. Hastings emphasized that sums in the 1963 budget cannot be arrived at immediately ,and he held that "now is the time to look ahead."

Adams felt that the council is going to be in a position either to "rubber stamp" any proposal made by the police board, or it is "going to have to find out" how they arrived at whatever solution they decide upon.

Asks Same Consideration

McCardle, in his bid for pay boosts for public works employes, noted that while salaries for members of police and fire department personnel has reached $5,000 a year, it still ranges from $3,250 to $4,200 for public works men. It was learned from another source that the department's foremen get $18 a day, a truck driver $15.56 and a laborer $13.42 a day.

McCardle said he wished the aldermen "were battling for us as they have been for the police and fire departments." He asked for the same consideration in the discussion of salaries. In a recently published letter, emphasized that public works employes are called out for storm and other emergencies, and held that without such services a city cannot function. The last pay raise, he said, was in January, 1960 and was for $100 a person for laborers and drivers.

Letter From Mayor

Mayor John J. Schwenk, in a letter to the council, asked for the recess so that legislation pertinent to the viaduct project and uptown urban renewal may be considered before the end of the month.

The mayor said he had been informed by the state public works department that "they have speeded up their timetable for letting of bids for the Washington Avenue viaduct elimination project, and are prepared to move ahead upon passage of four enabling resolutions" to be acted upon by the council.

They deal with approval of design, plans, specifications, cost estimates, and reconstruction or improvement of the arterial route system; with maintenance of sidewalks and sewers, with legislation against encroachment on the right-a-way, and a measure dealing with the city's share of land acquisition costs "over a period of 10 years without interest, or in one lump sum."

Still Awaiting Information

The mayor said the city still awats information from the state public works department dealing with "the relationship of this project, and the uptown urban renewal project," and said he would "appreciate it, if this matter could be held under consideration by your Honorable Body until later this month." He said he had requested Kaye to recess at call of the chair to act on the HHFA contract for uptown urban renewal, and he hoped that the "viaduct elimination project could be resolved at the same time."

Council President Kaye, after the reading of a letter from John H. Matthews, plumbing board president, asking for a meeting, named Majority Leader Sass, Minority Leader Carroll and Alderman Hastings as a committee from the council to meet with members of the plumbing board, the Kingston Licensed Master Plumbers and the Heating Contractors Association.

The purpose of the meeting, the letter said, is to discuss the office of plumbing inspector.

The list of city polling places as submitted to the council were the same as those in 1961, district by district, except for the first district of the Second Ward where the polling place is to be re-established in School No. 6. It will be moved from a Tremper Avenue garage to a new section of the school.

Legislation dealing with the agreement between the city and local hospitals for the collection of laboratory charges, extends the agreement to Jan. 1, 1963. The hospitals act as agents for collection of the fees.

Commissioners of deeds named in August of 1960 were authorized to continue. Their function is similar to that of a notary public. Police department members and several departmental clerks have been renamed to serve as commissioners.

Two Zoning Petitions

Two petitions for zoning changes were referred to the laws and rules committee. The one was from Thomas J. and James J. DeCicco, for 11 High Street, a bar and restaurant, which is to be enlarged. It was noted that records indicate that the building has been designated as being in a residential district, and the change was requested. The other filed through Attorney Howard C. St. John was for 14 Henry Street, the former New York Telephone Company building, which had also been used to house the YWCA for several years. It is now owned by the Junior Order of United American Mechanics. The purpose for which it is to be used was not reported.

A claim for $3,000 for injuries suffered in a sidewalk fall on Wall Street last May 22, was referred to Corporation Counsel Harry Gold. It was filed by Rusk, Rusk and Feeney for Genevieve and Henry Fallerman, RD 31, Box 77, Tillson, to collect $2,500 for the former for chest, ankle, wrist and other injuries, and $500 for the latter for loss of services and payment of bills.

Claim Settled

Settlement of another claim was approved. It had been filed by Arthur Buck and Clara H. Buck (now deceased) and a lawsuit of $55,000 was pending in court. The corporation counsel informed the aldermen that Richter and Werbalowsky, counsel for the claimants, had indicated that the claim could be settled for $300. The claim was for injuries suffered in a fall on Crane Street.

A letter from Mayor Schwenk noting the appointment of Albert M. Appa, of 33 Third Avenue, as head janitor at the Municipal Auditorium, was read and filed. The appointment is for a probationary period of 90 days.

Rochester Official Dies

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—City employment director Louis J. Natale, 36, died unexpectedly today. Relatives said he had suffered a heart attack.

Natale was one of three city officials indicted last week by Monroe County grand jury on charges in connection with alleged payroll fraud in department of public works. He had pleaded innocent and was at liberty in $2,500 bail.

County Woman Arrested for Sale of Dope

State police have arrested a 10th person in connection with an investigation of an alleged narcotics ring operating in Ulster and Sullivan County resort areas.

Troopers said Josephine Johnson, no age given, of 109 Canal Street, Ellenvihlle was arrested Tuesday night by Investigator Charles Teelon on a charge of sale of narcotics.

Seven men and two women were arrested on various charges pertaining to the sale and possession of narcotics and policy slips early Tuesday. The raids were carried out by state police under the direction of Lt. Edgar Croswell in cooperation with local police departments and the Sullivan County Sheriff's Office.

Joseph F. Smith Dies at 92; Was Oldest Plumber

Joseph F. Smith, 92, one of Kingston's oldest and most highly respected residents, died in this city Tuesday evening following a long illness.

Born in Kingston he was a son of the late Joseph F. and Cecelia Mellert Smith. Mr. Smith had lived in Kingston all of his life. Until his retirement about 30 years ago he was engaged in the plumbing business. He was the oldest living master plumber in the city.

Mr. Smith was a lifelong devout member of St. Peter's Church where he was the oldest living male member. He was also the oldest member of St. Peter's Holy Name Society.

Until several years ago he had been active in local firemanic circles and was a member of the Weiner Hose Company.

He was married to the former Caroline Motrie. They celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary June 2 of this year.

In addition to his wife he is survived by a daughter, Miss Cecelia M. Smith at home and a son, Louis J. Smith of Kingston.

Funeral will be held from the Jenson and Deegan Funeral Home, 15 Downs Street, Friday 9 a. m. thence to St. Peter's Church where at 9:30 a. m. a high Mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of his soul. Burial will be in St. Peter's Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home tonight 7 to 9 and Thursday 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.

Rusk Talks With Russian About New Ban Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk called in Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Bobrynin today to put new pressure behind U.S. efforts to reach agreement on a pact to outlaw atomic testing.

Rusk and Dobrynin huddled for an hour and a quarter in Rusk's State Department office while the U.S. foreign affairs chief explained the new U.S. test ban proposals, aides said.

Rusk's meeting with the Soviet envoy, his first since returning from Geneva last month, was described as another effort to get across to the Russians what the United States considers an important proposal.

Parallel efforts are being made by the U.S. disarmament ambassador at Geneva, Arthur Dean, but the Soviet delegates there have informally turned thumbs down.

Wenzel Critical,

mishap, said that a car driven by Donald Gunzelmann, 19, of 18 Elmendorf Street, struck the boy "who appeared to run across the street into the path of the car." The boy carried an umbrella, the report said.

Gunzelmann was treated at Kingston Hospital for shock.

Edward Forte, 6, of 14 Deyo Street, police said, suffered injuries of the right thigh and head in the mishap at Foxhall and Flatbush avenues, and was taken to the Benedictine Hospital for treatment and X-rays. Alderman William G. Davis, 52, of 1 Fitch Street, 13th Ward, was listed as driver to the car. Police said the car had stopped for a light and the boy ran between parked cars into a fender.

Truck Spins Around

Virgil Finger, 42, of 20 Elm Street, Saugerties, driver of a Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp. truck, suffered a head injury, and Michael McGowan, 64, of 220 East Union Street, was reported slightly injured in an accident at 4:20 p. m. on Abeel Street near Wilbur Avenue. McGowan was in the truck.

Officer George Deyo, who investigated, said Finger reported trying to stop for a small caution sign, and when he applied the brakes, the truck spun around into a car owned and driven by James V. Johnson, 54, of 12 South Clinton Avenue.

Conservatives Say Javits Makes Up Birch Story Link

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — The state chairman of the Conservative Party charges Republican Sen. Jacob K. Javits with "conjuring up a John Birch Society bogey-man" as a basis for attacks on the recently formed party.

J. Daniel Mahoney, the chairman, said in a speech here Tuesday night that his party "refuses to conduct a witch hunt to expel John Birch Society members from its ranks."

Because of this, Mahoney said, "Sen. Javits has seen fit to ascribe to the party a set of views...to which no spokesman for the Conservative Party has ever given utterance."

Mahoney charged that Javits was deliberately using the ultra-conservative John Birch Society "to avoid an honest and intelligent discussion of the issues...."

David H. Jacquith the party's candidate for governor who also spoke, said the John Birch Society "is not the real issue, and it will be obvious that the Conservative Party is wholly independent."

Mahoney and Jacquith addressed a meeting of the party's Central New York county chairman.

Over 5,000 Books Sent To Filipino Children

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—More than 5,000 books are enroute to school children in the Philippines in response to an appeal from a Peace Corps worker.

The books were carried from Syracuse aboard an Air Force plane Tuesday on the first hop of their 7,000-mile trip to the Western Pacific.

Miss Nancy Susan Dunetz, 22, of Brooklyn, a Syracuse University graduate, told of the need for school texts in a letter last year to the university newspaper.

The books were collected from Syracuse students and faculty and two publishing houses.

Students on Visit

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Eighty-five Swedish students vacationing in the United States have completed a three-week visit to the Twin Cities and Southern Minnesota.

The students left Minneapolis Monday in two buses and will visit Chicago, Detroit, Niagara Falls, and Albany, N.Y., before they fly for home from New York City next week.

Two More Named On Committee for RacingCentennial

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller appointed two additional members today to the Governor's Committee for the Saratoga Thoroughbred Racing Centennial.

That raised the committee's membership to 21. Previously, the governor's office said the committee would be made up of 19 members.

The members appointed today are Spencer B. Eddy of Saratoga Springs, a member of the State Harness Racing Commission, and Harry F. Guggenheim of Port Washington, publisher with his wife of Newsday.

Committee members are not paid.

Rockefeller also announced the reappointment of Harold M. Stanley of Skaneateles, recently retired secretary of the State Grange, to the Industrial Exhibit Authority, which develops a state or interstate exhibit at the State Fair. Authority members are not paid.

Gardiner

ReformedChurchNotes

GARDINER — Next Sunday congregational worship and outing of the Gardiner Reformed Church will be held at Tillson Lake. After the worship service at 11 a. m. the picnic lunch will be served. Each family will bring a covered dish.

Daily vacation school opened Monday and will continue through Aug. 17. Classes are held 9 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. Monday through Friday. The theme is My Bible and I.

The Couples Club will meet at the Van Aken home Saturday evening. A Hawaiian theme will be followed. Those attending will bring a covered dish.

Building committee met at the church hall Tuesday evening.

Community Notes

Kenneth Freer spent two days recently at the University of Buffalo where orientation for members of the freshman class entering in September was held. He was recently awarded a New York State Regents scholarship.

T/Sgt. Myron E. Wells and Mrs. Wells and children of Suitland, Md., are spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wells.

Miss Ourda Vick of Baton Rouge, La., and brother Carl Vick of Water Valley, Miss., spent last week with their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Stamatedes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Panza and family of Mt. Vernon spent a few days last week at the Lucy home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jayne accompanied their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jayne of Highland to Florida, N. Y., where they called on relatives. Enroute they visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burnett of Montgomery.

Joel Moran of New York is spending his vacation with his great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Upright.

Mrs. Jack Boland and son of Poughkeepsie spent Monday with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Frank Boland.

Murder Indictment Dismissed in Troy

TROY, N.Y. (AP)—A second-degree murder indictment against a 31-year-old woman in connection with the drowning of a newborn girl in 1956 has been dismissed.

Dist. Atty. John T. Casey, in asking for the dismissal Tuesday, said Mrs. Ruth Snyder Goodermote of East Poestenkill could not be held responsible for acts committed when insane.

County Judge DeForest C. Pitt granted Casey's request.

Mrs. Goodermote and John Danaher, 59, of Troy, both had been accused of the slaying Oct. 25, 1956. They were committed to Matteawan State Hospital for the Criminal Insane in 1957.

Mrs. Goodermote was released from the hospital recently. Danaher died there in 1958.

100 Are Laid Off By Firm in Area Listed as Solid

ROME, N.Y. (AP)—About 100 of the 235 employes of the Cook Electric Co., an electronics firm that does business with the federal government, have been laid off, the company reports.

A spokesman for the company has declined to give the reason for the layoffs, announced Tuesday. The company supplies electronic components to Griffiss Air Force Base in Rome.

The U.S. Labor Department reported Monday that the Utica-Rome area had been removed from the list of the nation's major labor markets that have substantial unemployment.

Hurley Fire Company Annual Fund Drive

The annual fund drive of Hurley Volunteer Fire Company No. 1 will come to a close Saturday, August 11, according to Chairman Charles Goble.

Fund Drive Committee members will begin collecting the coin cards, which were distributed in Hurley Fire District No. 1 homes 16 weeks ago. Collections will commence Saturday, August 11, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m., for the convenience of donors, and will continue for an approximate two-week period.

Early contributions to the fund drive indicate a successful campaign. Since there is still time before the drive officially closes, members are confident that everyone will make a sincere effort to fill his card. Proceeds of the fund drive are the sole means of financing the fire company's civic activities programs, among which are the free Saturday night movies shown at the Hurley Fire Hall, baby-sitters courses, Babe Ruth League shared-sponsorship, and sponsorship of a Hurley Little League team, to name just a few.

Headed by Vice President Charles Goble, the Fund Drive Committee also includes area captains Edwin Geloewski, Raymond Croswell, Richard Ruth Jr., James McCutcheon, David Van Etten, Walter G. Pilz, Paul McGuire, Robert Snyder and John Landers. In the event that anyone is inadvertently missed in the Drive collection, donors may call any one of these committee members to pick up coin cards.

Red Devils Take Second Title In Two Months

The Kingston Red Devils of Joyce-Schirick Post 1386, Veterans of Foreign Wars, won their second state championship in two months last Saturday.

The Red Devils took first prize money at the Kiwanis Convention in Stamford against corps from all over the state of New York.

They also won the VFW championship at Binghamton in June.

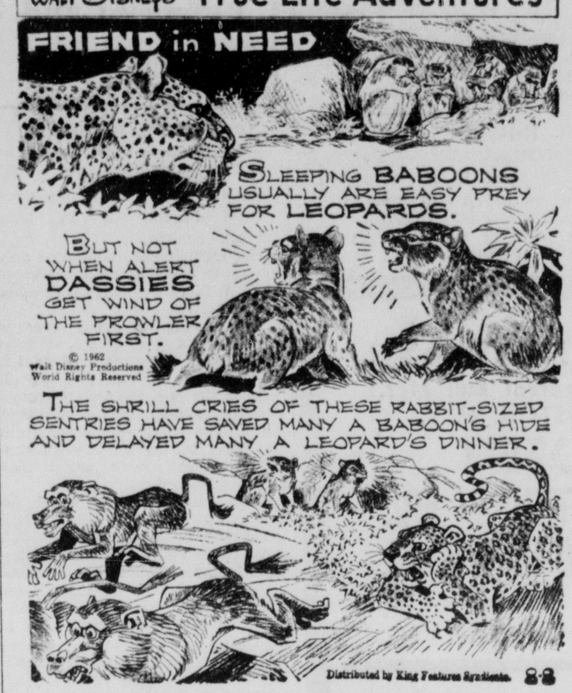
Po'keepsie Driver Hurt in R9W Mishap

A 28-year-old Poughkeepsie motorist was injured shortly after 11:15 a. m. Tuesday, when his car skidded on wet pavement on Route 9W one mile south of Route 44-55, Highland, and struck a guard rail. State Police Investigator Joseph Franke said Albert G. Boyle, of 20 Forbus Street, Poughkeepsie, was driving south when the vehicle skidded and slid on a soft shoulder before hitting the guard rail. Boyle complained of an injury of the right leg and said he would see his own physician.

Records having been lost, it is unknown who were the first riders (April 3, 1860) of the Pony Express.



Still Investigating Park Office Theft

Poughkeepsie police today continued investigation of a report that a cash register, a telephone and an undetermined amount of cash had been stolen from the Pulaski Park Swimming pool office sometime early Tuesday.

City Detective Jack Benton said the damaged cash register was later found emptied of its contents in a nearby wooded area off North Avenue. He reported the telephone contained $20 to $25 in change.

Two Escape Injury As Autos Collide

Occupants of two cars escaped injury at 3:55 p. m. Tuesday, when the vehicles collided on Route 44-55, two miles west of Highland.

State Police Investigator Joseph Franke reported the cars driven by John J. Narose, 21, of Highland, and Edward R. Seeger, 27, of Somerville, N. J. Narose was traveling east on Route 44-55 and Seeger was going in the opposite direction when his car skidded on wet pavement during a shower and sideswiped the Narose vehicle.

4,000 Red Troops Land in Cuba

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A Cuban news specialist claims that more than 4,000 Soviet troops have landed in Cuba recently.

In a Spanish broadcast from a Miami station Tuesday, Dr. Salvador Leu attributed his information to travelers from Cuba in a position to know. The program, "Voice of the People," broadcast by WMIE for Miami's refugee population, said the reported troops were sent in response to Fidel Castro's fear of rebellion.

An associate, Ramiro Boza, declined to name the source of the broadcast information, but said, "we know it is true when this source tells."

There was no immediate comment from the State Department in Washington.

Iceland was first settled in the Ninth Century by hermits from Ireland.

Time Is Extended For Soblen Flight

LONDON (AP)—The British government today extended until Friday midnight the deadline for El Al Airlines to take fugitive spy Robert A. Soblen to the United States.

This put off a showdown in the three-nation wrangle over Soblen which had been due to come to a head at midnight tonight, the original deadline. El Al, the Israeli airline, has a flight going to New York on Friday afternoon.

There was no indication, however, that the airline will comply with the British Home Office order. It is under instructions from the Israeli government to take Soblen only to Israel.

Russia's First Aid

ALGIERS (AP) — The Soviet cargo vessel Ugleuralsk docked in Algiers today with Russia's first economic aid for independent Algeria. Port authorities said the ship brought 6,500 tons of grain.

Financial and Commercial

By RICHARD H. HOENIG
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Prices fell early this afternoon as the stock market headed for its third straight decline.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off 1.0 at noon at 216 with industrials down 1.9, rails off .2 and utilities off .3.

As in the last two sessions most of the losses were relatively small. The trend was lower from the start but as the session continued a few more small plus signs appeared.

Drugs, steels and rails led the way downward. Most other major industry groups also fell.

An exception were some of the building material issues. Johns-Manville and U.S. Gypsum were both ahead major fractions. Construction activity continues at a high level.

Many of the rails showed fractional losses as the possibility of a strike next week mounted.

A handful of firms in the international communications field posted declines of ⅛ to almost a point. Late Tuesday the chairman of RCA proposed creation of an independent, privately owned U.S. monopoly in the field.

RCA was off about ½, A T & T almost a point, ITT about ½

At noon the Dow Jones industrial average was off 2.97 at 585.38.

Another Soviet Nuclear Blast Reported by AEC

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union set off another atmospheric nuclear test Tuesday, the Atomic Energy Commission reported today.

"The detonation occurred at the Soviet test site in central Siberia and was in the low-kiloton range," the brief announcement said.

That means the blast represented the explosive force of only a few thousand tons of TNT.

The bigger Soviet tests are held in the arctic, far north of the central Siberian area.

Senators Against Satellite Bill Seek Outside Aid

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)— Senators fighting the administration's communications satellite bill sought outside help today after getting little or no support from government officials.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee's hearings on the measure—a truce period agreed on to end a five-day filibuster—must be concluded Friday.

And Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., a leader of the Democratic faction opposing the bill, asked that outside witnesses be heard before the measure is returned then to the floor for more debate.

His Observation

He observed that all the administration witnesses have lined up behind President Kennedy's proposals for a private, government-regulated corporation to own the satellite system.

Half its stock would be sold to the public, half to communications firms.

Two Washington lawyers—Benjamin V. Cohen, a former State Department counselor and one-time delegate to the United Nations, and Joseph L. Rauh Jr.—were scheduled to testify today.

The committee kept Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara on the stand for two hours and 50 minutes Tuesday, with Morse and Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., asking most of the questions.

McNamara, like other administration witnesses, urged speedy enactment of the space communications measure.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING...

ROGER E. SPEAR

Widow Buying Duplex Told to Buy Outright

Q) "I am a widow of 68 with assets but no home to call my own. I am thinking of buying a duplex which would give me a place to live and some income besides. Should I redeem Government E bonds and buy outright or should I make a down payment only and hope that the rent will cover my monthly charges?"

E. B.

A) At your age I advise you to buy outright. I say this with the provision that you can do so and still have enough liquid savings to tide you over any emergency.

When this sort of question is asked me by young people, I usually advise them to take on a mortgage—if their financial position is sound. A reasonable amount of well-secured indebtedness is good for young people, since it will probably be paid off years hence with much cheaper dollars. I sincerely hope you find the home you want and that you will be happy in it.

Q) "We have $27,000 in savings bonds and three savings accounts. Over a long period we have accumulated 500 shares of Northern States Power. Would you advise holding that or maybe adding to it? How about Texaco or Corn Products for new investment?"

E. B.

A) I like Northern States Power. It is a strong and conservative public utility with a record of steadily increasing earnings and dividends in recent years. The shares yield over 4 per cent and are a relatively stable and secure investment. I suggest you keep your present holding—representing about $15,000 at recent levels—but I would branch out a little from now on. Both of the other stocks you mentioned—Texaco and Corn Products—are on my most favored list. With new funds, I advise you to buy some of each and you will be well started on a solid investment portfolio.

Mr. Spear cannot answer all mail personally but will answer all questions possible in his column.

Burglary Reported At Stony Hollow

Kingston State Police are today investigating a burglary reported at Polkanetts drive-in restaurant on Route 28, Stony Hollow.

Senior Investigator Edward Shannon reported the burglary was discovered at about 6 a. m. by Janice Effner, an employe, who notified authorities.

Entrance was gained by smashing a rear window. Vending machines were emptied of contents. The amount taken was not immediately determined.

Complaints Heard

also under state control, and he suggested a letter to the State Bureau of Mines to determine what could be done.

Desire Control

Adams emphasized that "We are not concerned with shutting down any plant," but were more interested in a system of control.

Cozza said his back door faced the cement plant area, and he felt that if the health department does not take action the fire department should.

Adams read from a 1949 local ordinance dealing with air pollution which provides for action by the fire department. It was aimed mainly at control of smoke from industrial plant smoke stacks.

Odor Travels Far

Florence E. Cordts, of 132 Lindsley Avenue, vice president of the Cordts Realty Corp. said that "even up on West Chestnut Street they have been getting this awful odor." She said she talked with the cement plant manager on five occasions and without apparent result. She said those who appeared at last night's meeting represented a large group of residents in the Ponckhockie area. "We think it is time to do something." The odor, she said, had been noted in various parts of the city.

Winifred M. Sullivan, of 45 Walnut Street, also complained of conditions in the area and asked that something be done for relief.

Adams, in gaining privilege of the floor for those who spoke, said a group of some 50 in the Ponckhockie area had the same complaint, but rather than have all attend the council session, they decided in favor of the few spokesmen who appeared.

Adams again made a bid for the hiring of a stenographer or stenotypist to take record of council procedure. Full records, he felt, can better indicate the thought behind various action and legislation at the meetings.

State CC Calling

the 1958 sessions was for a more comprehensive program of state aid for schools. This was more than achieved, FitzPatrick said, by the school-aid program passed by the Legislature this year.

Modernization Important

Roberts told the committee it was obvious that industry needed to modernize plant and equipment in order to compete with foreign and out-of-state firms. Such modernization will take more effort in this state than in most, he said, because New York is one of the older of the industrialized regions and therefore many of its plants are outmoded.

Roberts also called for changes in the unemployment insurance law so that unemployment insurance benefits will not be paid those on strike. Strikers receive the benefits after seven weeks and employers contend that this amounts to financing a strike against themselves.

Virginia Schwenk

of Kingston, Jamaica, that his daughter was being sent there as an emissary in a letter which extended "congratulations of your sister city, Kingston, New York United States of America, upon the occasion of Jamaica's new status as the most recent independent nation in the Western Hemisphere."

The letter also disclosed that Virginia will arrive in Kingston Jamaica Sunday on the United Fruit Line, S.S. Hibueras and will be accompanied by a friend, Joan Whalen.

Star Goes to Rest

gave these details of the final rites:

The movie queen, bejeweled and befurred in her many public appearances, will wear a demure, light green dress and no jewelry. The non-denominational services, expected to last about 35 minutes, will be conducted by the Rev. A. J. Soldan, Lutheran pastor of the Villa e Church in Westwood.

The body will lie in an open, solid bronze casket lined with champagne-colored velvet. After the services, the casket will be sealed and carried a few yards away to a crypt, where Marilyn will be entombed.

The Quiet She Sought

The three principals in charge of final arrangements Tuesday night explained that the rites were made private "so that she can go to her final resting place in the quiet she has always sought."

The statement was issued by ex-ballplayer Joe DiMaggio, second of Marilyn's three husbands; Bernice Miracle, her half-sister, and Inez Melson, her former business manager. They said:

"We could not in conscience ask one personality to attend without perhaps offending many, many others. And for this reason alone we have kept the number of persons to a minimum.

"Please, all of you, remember the gay, sweet Marilyn and say a prayer of farewell within the confines of your home or church."

Rain Welcomed

but generally the rainfall has been relatively little. Yesterday's rain ranged from one-third of an inch in the western part of the county to about one-and-a-half inches in the eastern section of Ulster.

Good for Corn, Grass

"It was quite a variation in precipitation," Agent Palmer stated. He noted that yesterday's rain was beneficial to shallow-rooted crops, such as lawns and corn, but apparently did little good to trees and deep rooted crops.

"What lasting effect Tuesday's rain will have, will depend on when the area will have more showers," Agent Palmer said. "If we don't have more rain soon, the rain of yesterday will evaporate."

.25 of Inch in City

The city engineer's' office at City Hall reported precipitation measured .25 of an inch.

Walter G. Schreiber, Red Hook fruit grower, said he hopes the rain could be credited to the rainmaking operations financed by Dutchess farmers. One of the 15 or 20 generators placed at strategic points to send silver iodine into rain-making clouds, is operated on the Schreiber farm.

It was reported that the northern, eastern and southern sections of Dutchess County, reported the rainfall was light and not sufficient to help the crops, especially the deep-rooted crops and trees.

Dr. Howell and associates remained on the job in Dutchess County today, prepared to operate the generators if rain-making clouds appear.

Rains Swells River 3 Feet Over Normal

MALONE, N. Y. (AP) — Five inches of rain fell between 2:45 a.m. and 11 p.m. Tuesday, three miles south of this northern New York village, a Weather Bureau observer said today.

There were no reports of flooding or damage, although the Salmon River was three feet above normal.

Says Kennedy

about the fate of a committee-approved mass transportation bill. The Democratic policy committee did not act on it Tuesday when it cleared the drug and farm bills for later Senate consideration.

Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said he hopes to take up the farm bill next week if the Senate can act by then on the communications satellite measure, which will return from the Foreign Relations Committee Friday noon. He said Saturday Senate meetings will be the order of the day for the rest of the session.

Mansfield said the drug bill will follow the farm bill. He would not go beyond that in scheduling any measures.

Program Listed For 'Civil War Skirmish' Fete

A Civil War skirmish will be staged at Knaust Field, Saugerties, on the weekend of Aug. 25 and 26. The event sponsored by the 9th New York Volunteer Cavalry of Schenectady and the 120th New York Volunteer Infantry (Washington Guard) Probationary of Saugerties will get underway 9 a. m. Saturday with seven scheduled events of the shoot beginning 11 a. m. Sunday, Aug. 26.

Throughout the day, Saturday, Aug. 25, at least 14 teams are expected to check in at the assigned camping area, complete with authentic Union Army Civil War uniforms, field regalia, and display of antique rifles and artillery guns. a meeting of team captains has been scheduled at the staff tent at 6 p. m., Saturday.

The public is welcome to attend the Civil War encampment sing and campfire at the field Saturday beginning at 8:30 p. m. Quartermaster Manderville Diaz, of the 120th will lead the sing with his guitar, assisted by musician members of the other regiments.

Sunday morning, Aug. 26, the competing regiments will form with colors at the staff tent for review, promptly at 10:30 a. m., prior to formation on the skirmish line at 11 a. m.

There will be a 30-minute break for rations consisting of hardtack and sowbelly, at 1:30 p. m., after which competing regiments will again form on the skirmish line at 2 p. m.

Afternoon Ceremonies

A high point in the afternoon's activities will be the artillery demonstration at approximately 3 p. m. Ceremonies and competitions will conclude at 4:30 p. m. with a short review and the presentation of awards and streamers to the regiments.

For the regiments competing, the skill of their members will be put to the test by the following program of events: clay pigeons (24 on backboard); suspended clay pigeons (16); MOskeets suspended (8); four-inch clay flower pots (8); four inch water filled balloons (16); stake cutting shoot; dynamite shoot, which is an extra event with rifles, not to be counted in scoring of teams.

Since all the events will be under the direction of members of the North South Skirmish Association, all targets will conform with the association's regulations. The events will be presented total time elapse style witch six and eight minute time limits.

Regiments Take Part

In addition to the two sponsoring regiments, among those scheduled to appear are 1st New York Light Artillery, Cohoes; 3rd New York Volunteer Cavalry; 115th New York Volunteer Infantry, St. Johnsville; 1st Connecticut Volunteers, South Windsor, Conn. All are in the northeastern regional division of the North-South Skirmish Association.

Refreshments will be available at the field on the day of the shoot, and the public may attend. There will be no admission charge.

ThruwayDriverCaught In 100-Mile Chase

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—State Police said today they had arrested a 20-year-old Corning driver on the State Thruway west of here following a 100-mile chase reached speeds up to 120 miles an hour.

The man was identified as Joseph Berto, an employe of the Corning Fiber Box Co.

State police said Berto was caught about a mile west of the Henrietta interchange when his late model automobile had a flat tire.

They said the car traveled route 14 from Watkins Glen at speeds up to 120 miles an hour and crashed through the interchange at Geneva onto the Thruway with four police cars following.

Second Quarter Profit Margins

BABSON PARK, Mass.—Second quarter reports on 16 key stock groups show that although sales were up for all groups, profit margins in only 9 of the industries were ahead of last year. The study, produced by Spear & Staff, investment advisory firm, shows a significant slackening from healthier first quarter comparisons only three months ago.

Overall, second quarter sales were up 9.3 per cent, earnings ahead by 13.6 per cent over the same period last year. The first quarter of this year, however, showed bigger gains over '61—15.4 per cent and 47.3 per cent, respectively.

Groups showing strongest gains in second quarter profit margins included automobiles, paper, radio-TV, and science and electronics. Dips in profit margins over the previous year were noted by construction, steel and iron, and tobacco.

As to the future, Roger E. Spear, president, said: "Economic uncertainties force us to continue cautious in general, although we are moderately bullish regarding certain groups. Prospects for Discount Merchandising and some segments of the electronics industry are favorable, for example, but we would avoid most of the construction, ethical drugs, steel, tobacco and food stocks for now."

A comparison Spear analysis, based on earnings of 22 of the 30 D-J industrials, puts earnings at $9.04 for the second quarter, or $36 on an annual basis. At a price-earnings multiple of 16, this would peg the Dow at around 576, or moderately below the current level. If earnings dip, Spear notes, so will the Dow. However, downswing periods in business are typically followed by recoveries, Spear observes, and if such a cyclical business upsurge occurs after a tax cut, there would be a double-barrelled impact to restore investor confidence and move the Dow substantially above present levels.

12,437 Tour Museum

CORNING, N.Y. (AP)—A record total of 12,437 visitors toured the Corning Glass Museum Tuesday.

The previous one-day high in attendance, 11,838, was set last year, also on the first Tuesday in August. The museum was opened in 1951 and passed the five million mark in visitors last October.

Nine Young Artists Featured In Exhibit at Tannery House

The Woodstock Artists Association announces an exhibition of paintings and drawings by nine young artists who are living and working at the Jane Burr Winslow House in Woodstock this summer.

This is the fourth summer that the Woodstock Artists Association has sponsored a program enabling young artists to live and work at the 'Burr House'. The exhibition, which is the first of its kind, will be held at the Tannery Brook House, just opposite the Espresso Cafe. The use of this building has been generously donated by J. Constant van Rijn. The exhibition will open Friday, August 10, and will continue through Sunday, August 18. It will be open to the public from 1:30 to 6 p. m., daily except Monday, and it will also be open during the evening on weekends.

The opening party will be from 5 to 8 p. m., Friday, August 10. The public is cordially invited to attend. There will be a 25 cents admission charge for those who are not members of the Artists Association.

The nine artists who will be participating in this exhibition are: Jay Elliott, Astra Kleinhof, Vaughn Kurtz, Raymond Siemonowski, Irwin Tendler, Richard Rappaport, John Warren Oakes, Linda Villency and Marsha Zagar.

Miss Elliott is from Sacramento, California; has studied at the University of Nevada and at Sacramento State College. She is interested in writing and illustrating children's and religious books. She is studying with Richard Munsell at the Art Students' League this summer.

Astra Kleinhof is a painter who studied at the Academy of Fine Arts in Philadelphia. She will enter her fourth year of studies at the Art Institute of Chicago and the University of Chicago this fall.

Vaughn Kurtz is in his senior year of painting at the Art Institute of Chicago. He has also studied at the University of Chicago and at Shimer College.

$3,000 Award Winner

Raymond Siemonowski has just graduated from the Chicago Art Institute, and was the recipient of a $3,000 traveling fellowship from that school to study in Europe.

Irwin Tendler has studied at the University of Miami, and he is now working for his master's degree in painting, at the Chicago Institute.

Kleinhof, Kurtz, Siemonowski and Tendler all studied with Edward Millman, a Woodstock painter and former chairman of the Woodstock Artists Association in Chicago during the past year. They are continuing their studies with him this summer at the Art Students League, and are working independently as well.

Richard Rappaport is a 1962 graduate of fine arts from Syracuse University. While at Syracuse, he studied with Edward Chavez, a Woodstock artist and teacher. He will start work towards his master's degree at Yale University this coming fall. At present, he is painting and drawing independently.

John Warren Oakes will enter his senior year in painting at Western Kentucky State College this coming fall. He is studying with Arnold Blanch at the Art Students League this summer.

Linda Villency is a graduate of the Fieldstone School in Riverdale, New York where she was a student of Philip Held, a Woodstock painter. She will enter the University of Michigan this coming fall as a freshman.

Marsha Zagar has been studying with Morris Kantor at the Art Students League in New York City, and will return to her studies at that school in the fall.

Both Miss Villency and Miss Zagar have been working under Arnold Blanch at the Art Students League Summer School in Woodstock.

This exhibition is being sponsored by the Woodstock Artists Association, and although this is the first exhibition of its kind, the Association hopes to make this an annual and integral part of its program at the Burr House.

Needs Financial Aid

The program at the Burr House needs the support and interest of Woodstock, its townspeople, artists and non-artists alike. This is a vital and important plan to encourage and aid young artists to come to Woodstock. Woodstock is a unique community because of its background of intellectual honesty and because of the imagination, curiosity and integrity expressed by the creative people who have lived here and who are active here now. When young people with fresh ideas and vitality stop coming to Woodstock and cease to settle here any longer, we run the risk of stagnating and becoming an ingrown and mediocre community.

The Jane Burr Winslow House and its program are in need of financial and moral support if they are to continue and if the property and the program are to be maintained and improved. Contributions for this purpose are urgently needed. Contributions should be made payable to the Woodstock Artists Association-Burr House. All contributions are tax deductible. For information, call Ainslie Burke or Robert Jacobson.

Schimmerling Plans Another Trip to Europe

Again, as in the past, to see what others do, how they do it and why they do sometimes better (or not) than we do, I shall fly in a few days to the Old World as the eternal student I have been during these last . . . . ty years. I shall have with me three important things: open eyes, open ears and an open mind. The open mouth will come only after my return when I shall tell you what I found out.

Because of the encouraging arrangements made by the Office of Cultural Relations in the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, I decided to go to Oslo first, instead of the Middle East as originally intended.

The Norwegian program will start with an introduction to the Ministry of Education, followed by visits to school classes on various levels. It will include a tour through the Pedagogical Institute and the University of Oslo. The Norwegian Opera, the National Theater, the broadcasting system and visits to various institutions of the Ministry of Social Affairs will be accompanied by interviews with leading personalities in these fields, among them newspaper editors, curators of the National Gallery, the State Hospital, and others. A visit to Bergan, the birthplace of Edward Grieg, will follow.

Similar arrangements were made for Copenhagen by the Press Department of the Danish Ministry for Foreign Affairs. Stockholm might be added to the Scandinavian program, if time permits. After Sept. 10, I am scheduled to visit some schools in the German state Schleswig-Holstein and after Sept. 15 in the state Nordrhein-Westfalen. The "Pedagogical College" and the "Permanent Conference of the German Ministers of Education" in Bonn will be two special features suggested by the Secretary of Education, Werner Schutz, in Dusseldorf.

Speaking about Bonn, let us first pay tribute to the spirit of Beethoven. A getting-acquainted tour through the organization "Inter Nationes" in Bonn will be arranged by its cooperative director, Dr. Moenig. A few days in Munich will be spent for some schools, opera and a few interviews. From there it is not far to Salzburg. Nearby in Mattsee lives Frau Schonberg who has still some manuscripts of her famous brother-in-law, Arnold. To see her and the widow of Hans Pfitzner (Salsburg) as well as the musicologist Alois Melichar will be a matter of three days.

On the way to Yaduz, the capital of the tiny principality of Lichtenstein (the eldorado for stamp collectors), I have a chance to see a publisher and some old friends in Tyrol and Vorarberg. After that, some officials in various Swiss financial institutions might tell me what they think of our present American economy, the stock market, etc. One of them let me know already that he had a lot of new American customers who were interested in making investments in Switzerland, Frankfurt, Heidelberg, Trier (the oldest German-Roman city) . . . if time permits.

Finally, in Saarbrucken I shall bid farewell to Germany but not without having inspected some of the schools in this area on the French border. In October, I shall be in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. I understand I have to expect some surprises there. What is it? I imagine the European School. And then back to the blessed USA, but not without having visited the nearby American Cemetery where thousands of our boys are buried, one of them, General George Patton.

For the next weeks don't expect any story from me. I shall be busy to see, to hear, to observe, to watch. God bless you all. Au revoir. H. A. SCHIMMERLING.

GOP Club Awaits Name of Speaker

The Woodstock Republican Club is awaiting word on the name of a prominent speaker for the club's annual rally on Sept. 8, rally chairman, J. Monroe Longendyke, has announced.

Longendyke said that several prominent Republicans on the state level are under consideration and a definite choice will be announced in a few days.

Meanwhile, the ticket sale is moving along briskly and advance reservations indicate one of the largest attendances ever for a GOP rally in Woodstock.

Raw Hide Ranch Equitation at WRC Horse Show

The Raw Hide Ranch of Lake Hill, owned by Jack and Peewee Franks, is scheduled to put on a colorful parade and equitation exhibition at the Woodstock Riding Club's annual Field Day Sunday, Aug. 12, at the Ohayo Mountain Ring in Woodstock. The show will start at 10 a. m. and last all day.

The Raw Hide Ranch contingent will be dressed in the green and white Western attire characteristic of the ranch and with their flags and banners will make a colorful addition to the show. They expect to bring 36 horses with them and participate in many events besides their special parade and equitation exhibition which will be put on immediately after the lunch hour break.

Other features of the show are $50 stake clasess in pole bending and barrel event. All classes carry money prizes and entry fees are low. The show has been especially scheduled with spectator appeal in mind. The distinguished AHSA recognized Mr. Leon Losey wil judge the events.

Exhibit at Gladstone Draws Large Crowds

The current exhibit at Gladstone Galleries in Woodstock, featuring the work of William H. Harris, Hilton Leech and Loran Wilford, who has been attracting a steady stream of visitors whose comments have been uniform laudatory about the work of these three painters.

At the opening reception last Saturday, the striking canvases of William Harris, hung in the studio gallery, were particularly acclaimed, both for their intriguing statement and their brilliant execution.

The paintings of Hilton Leech, after their showing at Gladstone Galleries, are scheduled to go on a Rockefeller touring exhibit to the west.

Loran Wilford, who is nationally known as a top-ranking water colorist, has been honored, together with Hilton Leech, by invitation, to exhibit this year with the British Water Color Society in London.

The present exhibits at Gladstone will remain on view until August 17.

Show by Brock Opens Aug.: 11 at Lewis Gallery

The Lewis Gallery, opposite the Playhouse in Woodstock, has announced that Brock's one-man show this year will run from Aug. 11 to Aug. 19. A preview for special guests will be held on Friday between 5 and 7 p. m.

It's a show that promises much excitement for area art lovers. It will consist largely of work done by Brock, after an absence since boyhood, returned recently to his native Cornwall for a stay of several months.

The country is as wild as any in England, with pounding seas, stark headlands, coves once the haunt of Buccaneers, mist-shrouded moors, and villages dominated by ancient Norman towers. And Brock has caught the rugged beauty and the high drama of it all with his knowing, indigenous brush.

Christian Science Sermon Theme: Spirit

The practical value of striving for perfection will be stressed at Christian Science church services Sunday.

"Spirit" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read. It will include this admonition of Christ Jesus (Matthew 5): "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect."

Among the correlative citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following:

"The divine demand, 'Be ye therefore perfect,' is scientific, and the human footsteps leading to perfection are indispensable. Individuals are consistent who, watching and praying, can 'run, and not be weary; . . . walk, and not faint,' who gain good rapidly and hold their position, or attain slowly and yield not to discouragement. God requires perfection, but not until the battle between Spirit and flesh is fought and the victory won" (p. 253).

3 Industries Oppose Foreign Trade Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Spokesmen for the American glove, glass and pottery industries have let the Senate Finance Committee know of their strong opposition to President Kennedy's proposed foreign-trade expansion bill.

James H. Casey, executive secretary of the National Association of Glove Manufacturers, Gloversville, N.Y., told the committee at a hearing Tuesday that American glove tariffs have been cut steadily for more than 20 years.

As a result, he said, Italy, France and Germany now control better than 75 per cent of the U.S. glove market.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Business as usual rather than jitters or retreat has marked the summer in most of the United States.

Seasonal quietness has been in evidence in many industries but only as expected. The stock market break of May and June has failed to panic either the consumer or the businessman.

That is the most common reading of the current statistics. And a few signs of a fall pickup already are being sighted, along with pleasant predictions by many businessmen that the fourth quarter should be a good one.

Spending As Usual

Consumers are spending about as usual for this time of year. Some say they are inclined to be cautious. But businessmen are starting to bet on a good retail sale pickup in the fall. Business loans at commercial banks have taken their first upward jump, apparently as manufacturers and merchants prepare to produce and stock up for the fall and winter trade.

Employment has risen. Some of this has been in manufacturing industries, reflecting the increase in industrial output. Much of the new employment has been in the service industries, as consumers demand and pay for more services of all kinds.

The stock market has managed its summer rally, keeping up a long tradition despite the gloom that shrouded Wall Street in May and June.

Some Customers Back

Steel production is rising. Part of this is the seasonal recovery from the lowpoint of the July vacation slowdown. But part apparently reflects a return to the market of a few of the customers who have been living off their built-up inventories since the threats of a strike or price rise were dissipated in March and April.

Despite the downturn in steel output from April into July, the total production for the year to date is ahead of that for the like period of 1961. Many steelmen are now expressing modest hopes for a fair pickup of orders from Labor Day on.

All the talk about economic uncertainty hasn't hampered the auto industry. It has enjoyed one of its best years in sales and production. It now enters its usual lull for changeover to new models—and its traditional uncertainty as to how the public will accept them, always a gamble.

Construction Going Good

Construction continues at a high level. Building of new homes spurted in the spring and levelled off in the summer. But commercial structures and apartment houses continue to rise at an unslackened pace.

Personal income totals are at a peak. Savings have increased despite high retail sales and a continuing modest rise in consumer instalment debt.

So, as the third quarter nears its halfway point, this summer looks like most summers. Then why the continuing gloom in many circles?

Mostly it is because the economy has advanced moderately rather than at an accelerated pace as hoped at the start of the year. Partly it is because of the psychological effect of the downward revision of stock market values.

And, to no small degree at the moment, the uncertainty is due to the involvement of all economic planning—whether tax cutting, increased government spending, more incentive for private enterprise—in politics. In many news items today it's hard to tell where economics ends and politics begins.

Fresh Fashions

Don't watch for a single "look" in fashion this fall. Fashion is evolving season by season, just as it should. The new fashions will have a fresh, different look.

Woodstock Fire Company 3 Acts For Efficiency

Action destined to increase the efficiency of the department was taken Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of the Woodstock Fire Company 3, serving the Shady, Lake Hill and Willow area.

The creation of a telephone emergency communication system manned by the Women's Auxiliary, the placing of fire numbers on all of the buildings in the area, and the setting of definite times each month for fire drills, were reported progressing by President Richard Peters and Captain Albert Ostrander.

The communication system, known in some quarters as a mobilization plan, would involve members of the Women's Auxiliary who would each have a number of firemen to alert by telephone in cases of fires or other emergencies. This system would augment the regular siren-alarm system which apparently cannot be heard at some times by members of the fire company.

The placing of fire numbers on every property served by the fire company has been the subject of planinng and work for some time, according to Captain Albert Ostrander. Each number would appear on the road-side of each property and would be supplied by the fire company. These numbers would be keyed-in with a master list which is already posted and in use in the fire company's quarters. Ostrander explained that in one Delaware County community, this number system has been in use for some time and is also used by people of that area to direct others who might be looking for some particular property.

Fire drills by company members, which have been held during the past year, will now be observed each second Sunday afternoon of the month, beginning at 2 p. m., and the last Wednesday of each month beginning at 7 p. m., stated President Peters. All active members of the company are asked to participate in these drills so that they may become familiar with the equipment and thus know what to do when an emergency arises.

A committee, headed by Captain Albert Ostrander, was appointed by the president to investigate the possibilities of obtaining a tank truck to augment the water supply at a fire. The company's quarters was originally built to house two pieces of equipment, so the possible acquisition of a tank truck would utilize the other stall in the firehouse.

Claim American Flour Was Contaminated

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Contaminated American flour has been blamed officially for a wave of partial paralysis in West Bengal and Assam, but investigation has failed to disclose how the gift flour became contaminated.

Deputy Food Minister A. M. Thomas told Parliament Tuesday 630 persons have been reported stricken after eating the flour.

The U.S. Embassy said the flour was processed under the same rigid standards used for flour consumed in the United States.

Two Teeners Killed

WOLCOTT, N. Y. (AP) — Two teen-agers were killed today when their automobile collided headon on Route 104 near this Wayne County village.

The victims were Norton A. A. Waterman Jr., 18, of Ontario, N.Y., and Eugene G. Shove of Wolcott.

FOOD FOR AMERICANS

Eat This Dessert in Wafer Cups

WAFER CUPS filled with ice-cold chocolate, rice and peanut butter make a tempting and delicious summer dessert.

GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Here's a cool impressive-looking dessert to delight youngsters and oldsters alike. It is delicious and should be eaten in the hand just like an ice cream cone. Be sure it is thoroughly chilled before serving.

Choco-Nut Rice Cones
(Makes 8 servings)

1 3¼ ounce package prepared chocolate pudding
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
¼ cup sugar
1½ cups milk
½ cup peanut butter
1½ cups cooked rice
1 cup chopped nuts
½ pint heavy cream, whipped
8 wafer ice cream cups

Combine chocolate pudding mix, gelatin and sugar in a saucepan. Stir in milk. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until pudding thickens. Blend in peanut butter and beat until smooth. Add rice and cool until mixture begins to set. Fold in the nuts and about 2/3 of the whipped cream (reserving about ½ cup for garnish). Spoon mixture into wafer ice cream cups. Return to refrigerator and chill. Garnish each cup with whipped cream and aditional nuts or whole nut meat.

SHOKAN NEWS

SHOKAN—Old Hurley residents calling in the village center Thursday included the Mmes: C. A. Henze, Frank Race and Severyn Hasbrouck. They were accompanied by Mrs. D. P. Lanier of Sanford, Fla.

James Gallagher, Kingston, is the electric company's meter reader in this area pending the return of Ernest Gardner to his duties. Gardiner has a broken arm and is doing office work in Kingston for a few weeks.

Mrs. Carlton Hoyt and Mrs. Wilson Hoyt of Mt. Pleasant were callers at the local museum Friday.

The Rev. Richard Guice, formerly of Ashokan, is again occupying the pulpit of the Roxbury Methodist Church following a camping trip with Mrs. Guice along the St. Lawrence River. The couple during the first week of July served on the staff of the assembly week at Epworth Camp, High Falls.

Frank Neri, deputy sheriff and World War II veteran, is settled in his remodeled home along the Tonche Mountain road near Temple's Pond. He has made many improvements at the former Harold Buley house and grounds.

Mrs. Frank Mouer and daughter Jo-Ann of Millbrae, Calif. have been visiting Mrs. Mouer's aunt Edna Longyear of Glenford, Barbara MacKay, Charlottesville, Va., another niece, also has been visiting Miss Longyear.

Kingston area women calling here Thursday included the Mmes. Joseph Lampshere, Sherman Short, James Sisco and Faxton Cone. They had been calling on Mrs. Lamphere's aunt, Susie Winchell of Route 28 near Boiceville. Mrs. Short resided as a girl at Mt. Tremper.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wallach, Woodstock, were in town Sunday. Mrs. Wallach is a writer.

Freeman news from Town Olive in early August, 1916: "The Misses Mabel Raichle, Nellie Elmendorf, Ethel Bishop and Lottie Johnson are spending a week at Asbury Park, N. J. . . . The new auto stage of John Winne through Shokan is a great convenience. Quite a loss to the U. & D. Railroad which put the only two depots in Olive where folks didn't want them. . . . Aug. 2—The reported completion this week of the roadway over the main Ashokan Dam means we shall have the unique experience of touring Olive without a detour. Five years of going way around by Boiceville is enough for one town to put up with."

Peter Weider of Town Hurley reportedly has bought a tract of land adjoining the James Matthews and George Pratt holdings in the Tonche Mountain neighborhood.

Coming over the mountain to Shokan from Claryville Thursday were Mrs. Charles Jackson and Mrs. Frank Hermo of Patchogue, L.I.

William Hitchcock, East Jewett young man who is in the navy, left his base at Pensacola Thursday at 10 a. m. on a motorcycle and arrived at his mountain top home for the weekend at 7:30 Friday evening.

Having a birthday Aug. 9 is Jennie Kerr who was brought up in Watson Hollow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kerr. Miss Kerr whose father was Olive's best known bear hunter, is currenly spending some time at Woodstock.

2 County Fairs And Parade Are On Rocky's Slate

MIDDLETOWN, N.Y. (AP) — Two county fairs and a parade in Norwich were on Gov. Rockefeller's schedule today, the second day of a three-day tour of several Upstate areas.

The emphasis was on rural politicking. The Republican governor's tour began Tuesday in Schroon Lake and takes him Thursday to the Oswego County fair at Sandy Creek and a chicken barbecue at Fort Ontario.

He also is scheduled to address the Fulton Chamber of Commerce and the Oswego County Republican Committee in Oswego Thursday.

In a speech prepared for delivery at the Orange County Fair here today, Rockefeller said his administration had plans to spend $52.8 million on highway construction in the next four years.

The governor, who seeks reelection in November, said the state had spent $31.9 million on highways in the county since he took office in 1959.

Later today, Rockefeller was to ride in a parade down Main Street in Norwich to the Chenango County fairgrounds where he was to speak.

State Police Moving

State police at Highland are preparing to move to a new Route 9W location about Sept. 1. The present barracks is on the west side of Route 9W just north of the Route 299 intersection. The new building is on the east side of Route 9W a half mile further north. The new sub-station is being built by Walter Seaman, Highland.

Good seasoning trick: add celery salt, along with the usual lemon juice and Worcestershire sauce, to ice-cold tomato juice. Serve as a first course with crisp crackers and a cheese spread.

ONE PLAYER SHORT

Q: I play samba with five other women every other week. We play partners — three and three. On occasion something will turn up at the last minute making it impossible for one of the women to come. When this happens, we naturally have to play two and two and one has to sit out. I would like to know if it is up to the hostess at whose house the group is playing, to sit out the entire evening or may she expect her guests to take turns in sitting out?

A: The hostess of the evening should be the first to sit out, but you should then cut to see who sits out of each ensuing game.

Broken Engagement

Q: About a year ago I became engaged to a serviceman. It was rather a hurry-up affair and now I realize that it would never work out and have broken off the engagement. The question is this: Just how do I go about returning shower and engagement presents? Should I just return the gifts received from his family and friends, or from mine as well? What is the proper procedure?

A: You should return all presents that are not marked with your initials and those which you have not yet used.

Introduction in A Restaurant

Q: The other evening my wife and I were dining in a restaurant when my employer and his wife came into this same restaurant and were seated at a table next to ours. I greeted them both and exchanged a few words with them and that was that. I did not, however, introduce my wife to them and she is very much put out over it and says that I was very discourteous to her. I didn't think an introduction was necessary in this instance. Will you please tell me if I was wrong not to have introduced my wife?

A: Your "exchanged a few words" indicates that they were sitting close enough to you to have some conversation in addition to saying "good evening" and in this case you should have introduced your wife very informally from your place by turning or leaning back so that they could see her and saying, "Mr. and Mrs. Jones" and then turning your head toward her, "This is my wife."

MRS. CHARLES JOSEPH SAMMONS JR.

Josephine Marie Tecce Exchanges Vows With Charles Sammons Jr., at St. Joseph's

Miss Josephine Marie Tecce, daughter of Mrs. Rose Tecce of 17 Stickles Avenue, this city, and the late Anthony Tecce, wed Charles Joseph Sammons Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joseph Sammons Sr., of Plattekill, before a nuptial Mass at St. Joseph's Church, Kingston, on Saturday, July 28.

Officiating was the bridegroom's uncle, the Rev. Joseph Sammons, assistant pastor of St. Dominic Church, Wilkes Barre, Pa. Mrs. Frank W. Rafferty was the organist and Charles Jarvis of New Rochelle was the soloist.

White gladioli and baby's breath decorated the church. The pews were marked with white satin ribbons.

The bride's brother, Anthony Tecce Jr., gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of pure silk organza with a molded bodice, three-quarter length sleeves and a circlet neckline. The bouffant skirt swept back into a chapel length circular train. The bodice and skirt were appliqued with Alencon lace and accented with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She also wore a coronet of seed pearls to which was shirred a fingertip veil of imported illusion silk. Her flowers consisted of white roses in a cascade bouquet.

Miss Mary Jane McSpirit of Sawkill Road served as maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of taffeta blue styled with a scooped neckline, cap sleeves and bouffant skirt. A leaf cap with pearls, and crystals held a short circular veil. She carried a cascade of blue and white Shasta daisies.

Roberta Jarvis of Stamford, Conn., cousin of the bride, and Elena Cardella of Massachusetts, served as bridesmaids. Junior bridesmaids were Joann Tecce, sister of the bride, and Linda Krom. Their gowns were similar in style to that worn by the maid of honor except in light blue. They also wore queen's crowns of crystals to which were attached short circular veils. Their nosegays consisted of deep blue and white marguerites.

Jane Ann Long of Sawkill Road, Kingston, was the flower girl. She wore a full length gown styled identically to that worn by the maid of honor. She also wore a leaf cap and carried a white princess basket with light blue and white marguerites.

John Sammons, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Ushering were David Sammons of Plattekill, Thomas Sammons of Highland, brothers of the bridegroom, Francis Kalisky and Nathaniel Daws of Highland. Floyd Michael Krom Jr., was the child ringbearer.

A reception was given at the Capri Restaurant in Port Ewen for approximately 200 guests.

The bride was graduated from Academy of St. Ursula and attended the Moran-Spencerian School of Business. She is a secretary for Nytralite in Kingston. Her husband is a field engineer for Modjeski and Masters of Harrisburg, Pa.

For her wedding trip to Niagra Falls, the bride wore a blue Jersey suit with white accessories and a white orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. Sammons will reside in Highland when they return.

AAUN Chapter Will Have Meeting This Month; Set Plans

On Wednesday, Aug. 1, the pro-tem officers of the newly formed Ulster County Chapter of the American Association for United Nations were informed by the President Pro-tem, Dwight Harris that our application for a chapter has been accepted by the Southern New York State Division of AAUN. There are other members-at-large of AAUN in Kingston and other parts of Ulster County to whom we extend a cordial invitation to join our group.

The following tentative program has been adopted:

August 15—8 p. m. meeting of the Board of Directors;

August 22—8 p. m. a joint meeting with members-at-large who wish to join us. A discussion of future plans and program.

September 19—8 p. m. a meeting to elect permanent officers, discuss outstanding current UN issues, and plan for celebration of United Nations Week.

Sugar beets are grown at Sandringham, the estate of the Royal Family in England.

Daughter Injured, Father Asks $20,000

A Highland man has filed a $20,000 damage claim against the City of Poughkeepsie, for injuries reportedly suffered by his daughter in the vicinity of the city-operated swimming pool at Pulaski Park.

Richard S. Nostrand, New Paltz Road, Highland, filed the claim on behalf of himself and daughter, Lynn Ruth. Nostrand claims his daughter received cuts as the result of stepping on broken glass. He claims the city was negligent.

The claim was referred by the Common Council to City Corporation Counsel Allen Weisman. Michael Nardone, Highland, is attorney for the claimant.

Hellman Play at Woodstock

I suppose there is a moral or two hiding somewhere in Lillian Hellman's play TOYS IN THE ATTIC, which opened last night at the Woodstock Playhouse, but frankly they were lost on me. I fully recognize the fact that this play is an award winning drama (New York Drama Crtics Circle Prize for the best American play of the 1959-60 season) and its stars on Broadway were showered with honors.

The plot revolves around two spinster sisters who devote their lives (and life savings) to their younger, charming ne'er-do-well brother, Julian. To show his appreciation for their years of hard work, Julian weds (for money) a childlike girl. The girl's mother is glad to get her out of the house in order that she may continue her own love affair with her chauffeur. Julian uses the money he gets from the marriage pact for an eye operation for one of his sisters.

Events reach dizzy heights when Julian, always a failure in business, stumbles upon a "get rich quick" scheme. The realization of many dreams is at hand but the house of cards is destroyed by one flick of his child-bride's hand.

The plot is further complicated by unnatural yearnings, lust, greed, and the old story of the little fellow trying to be a big-big guy.

There is a lot to be said for Lillian Hellman's cross-section of life as presented in her play. She takes well aimed stabs at the moral and social decay in evidence around us.

As for last night's presentation of TOYS IN THE ATTIC, I have seen better productions. By the time the weekend audiences get to Woodstock, I'm sure some of the performances will have been ironed out. George Gitto has always been a favorite of mine, but his southern drawl seemed to screech a little last night. Appearing as the two sisters were Jane Lloyd-Jones and Gaye Glaeser. Roberta Bennett's performance as the child-bride certainly needs more polishing.

Also appearing in the cast were Barry Hober as Gus; Alison Howard as the mother; Mark Mirsky, the chauffeur; David Gale and Michael Van Dow as the moving men.

Taste of Honey Is Next

A TASTE OF HONEY, Shelagh Delaney's sensational success in London and New York, will be presented next Tuesday, Aug. 14, through Sunday, Aug. 19, at the Woodstock Playhouse, Woodstock. This play won for the 18-year-old Miss Delaney two national awards, the sale of film rights, productions at Stratford, London and Paris and a round of applause by critics all over the world. This production is expected to be a smash hit at the Woodstock Playhouse.

A TASTE OF HONEY concerns a tender emotional sequence in the life of an adolescent girl. Her relationship with her fun loving saloon frequented mother and her mother's newly acquired husband is completely detached. She yearns for companionship and love. When she meets a young sailor her life takes on a fresh meaning. His departure on board ship leaves her empty and alone. After this occurrence the whirlpool of drama enfolds when a gentle sensitive art student develops a protective love for her. Her awakening to reality and life climaxes this exciting and moving drama.

New Hurley

NEW HURLEY — There will be regular preaching services in the New Hurley Church Sunday 11 a. m. by the Rev. Laverne VanderHill, director of Warwick Estates Center. Sunday school in the church hall meets 9:45 a. m.

Mrs. Myron Anderson and sister, Bulah Kelder attended the wedding of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kelder Jr. at the Hurley Reformed Church Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dylewski and daughters Lois and Dawn returned home Friday after a week's vacation in Maine.

Mrs. Mary Margittroyd and Miss Bertha Sutton spent Thursday afternoon and evening with the latter's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James Shurter at Marlboro.

OTTO K. SCHEU of 28 Overlook Drive, Woodstock, was promoted to Cadet Corporal in the Provost Section of the Norwich University Corps of Cadets, Norwich University, Northfield, Vt. An Onteora High School graduate in 1961, Scheu is majoring in physics at Norwich. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Scheu.

Kennedys Arrive For Villa Vacation

ROME (AP)—Jacqueline Kennedy and Caroline arrived in Italy today for a private holiday in an ancient clifftop villa on the Amalfi coast.

The American president's wife and daughter landed in Rome aboard a Pan American jetliner after a nonstop overnight flight from New York. They traveled aboard a regular commercial flight in a special bedroom converted from a four-seat section.

Mrs. Kennedy and her 4-year-old daughter will spend their holiday in an 11th century green and white two-story villa at Ravello, 20 miles southeast of Naples. It has been rented by Mrs. Kennedy's sister, Princess Lee Radziwill and her husband, Prince Stanislas.

W'dstock Woman Hurt As Car Skids on R9

A Woodstock woman was injured at 5 p. m. Tuesday when her 1961 car skidded on wet pavement during a heavy downpour of rain and struck a tree off Route 9 in the village of Rhinebeck.

Trooper William Anagnos, Rhinebeck, reported Gail Brownlee, 35, of Woodstock, was driving north on Route 9 when the car skidded out of control. As the car hit the tree she was ejected.

She was taken to Northern Dutchess Hospital, Rhinebeck, by the Rhinebeck Rescue Squad, and treated for lacerations of the forehead, cheek, eyelid, head and multiple bruises and contusions.

Veterans Exhibit At State Exposition

The New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs will again participate in this year's New York State Exposition. The Division will present a highly informative exhibit on the State and Federal benefits to which veterans, members of the Armed Forces and their families are entitled. Area residents planning to attend the exposition at Syracuse were invited today by Charles Culver State Veteran Counselor, New York State Division of Veterans Affairs, and John Tyler, Director, Ulster County Veterans Service Agency, to visit this display in the State Exhibits Building from August 28th through Sept. 3, 1962.

Culver and Tyler added that the Division presentation is a pictorial exhibit designed to bring to the attention and understanding of the general public the services rendered by the New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs. Visitors at the exhibit will have the opportunity of seeing, through the use of Tel-A-Story Slide Projectors, just how the Division functions in serving the veteran population of the Empire State. New York State Veteran Counselors will be on duty at the exhibit to answer any questions that visitors and members of their families may have concerning their rights and entitlements to veteran benefits.

Force of 70,000 Poised for Biggest Test Since WW 2

By HOWARD D. CRISWELL

FLORENCE, S.C. (AP)—More than 70,000 Army and Air Force troops were poised in North and South Carolina today to begin the nation's biggest peacetime maneuvers since World War II.

The exercises, cloaked in secrecy to make them more realistic, were to begin with an air drop of units of the 82nd Airborne Division near here.

The 82nd Airborne, famed for its World War II exploits in Europe, will form part of the aggressor forces in Operation Swift Strike II.

The joint exercise will test the abilities of the new Strike Command, a unified Army-Air Force group capable of going anywhere to combat brush-fire wars.

The troops will go about their grim business of make-believe war on 5,500 square miles of Carolina and in a section of North Carolina extending westward to Lumberton and Fayetteville.

The 82nd is part of an aggressor army of the mythical nation of Gatasu, which is attempting to seize control of part of a neighboring nation called Renola.

After the aggressor attack, U.S. Strike Command forces will come to the aid of Renola, spearheaded by the 101st Airborne Division, which likely will stage a division-size jump Thursday or Friday.

High Falls Woman Assaulted and Robbed

Two men are being sought by state police for questioning in connection with an assault and robbery of a High Falls woman some time after 2 a. m. today.

Senior Investigator Edward Shannon, Kingston State Police, said Mrs. Mary Lou McKenna, High Falls, reported to authorities she was on her way home between 3:30 and 4 a. m. when an unidentified car forced her vehicle off the Clove Valley Road at Mohonk Road, south of High Falls.

Mrs. McKenna told troopers two men jumped from the car, struck her on the back of the head and stole $40 from her pocketbook. The men sped away in their car.

Mrs. McKenna said she left Walker Valley at about 2 a. m.

Jamaica Offers Base Site, Asks No Commitments

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP)—If the United States ever needs a military base in newly independent Jamaica, it can establish one without commitments, Prime Minister Sir Alexander Bustamante said Tuesday night.

Bustamante told a news conference the United States has not asked for such a base nor should his statement be construed as an invitation to Washington to set one up on this Caribbean island 90 miles south of Cuba.

Bustamante said the United States and Jamaica "are friendly nations and the United States can come in when and if it pleases."

The United States maintained bases in Jamaica during World War II under the destroyers-for-bases deal made by the United States and Great Britain. The bases were returned after the war.

Since then, the bulwarks of U.S. defense of the Caribbean approaches to the Panama Canal have been Puerto Rico and the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Britain handled Jamaica's foreign affairs before the island became independent Monday.

Israel Airline Firmly Defies Order on Soblen

LONDON (AP)— Israel's state-owned airline stood firm early today in defiance of a British order to fly Dr. Robert A. Soblen to the United States by midnight tonight.

Israeli Ambassador Arthur Lourie expressed hope Tuesday night that the three-nation dispute over the fugitive American spy would "shortly be satisfactorily resolved." But an embassy spokesman indicated that no solution has been found for the international deadlock.

"If Britain wants to get rid of Dr. Soblen, it will have to change its attitude," the embassy spokesman asserted.

Home Secretary Henry Brooke has ordered the airline, El Al, to fly Soblen out of Britain to New York by midnight. The Israeli government told the airline to transfer him back to Israel only, "and under no circumstances to New York."

New Sewer District Discussed by Board

Formation of a sewer district has been discussed by members of the Red Hook Village Board, who plan to obtain further information about the proposed project at a September meeting.

Francis A. Rabbett, village clerk, said the board plans to meet with representatives of the State Office of Local Government and State Health Department regarding the establishment of a sewer district with state aid.

Cooper Decision Could Be Made by End of August

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee could complete, action this month on President Kennedy's controversial appointment of Irving Ben Cooper of New York City as a federal district judge for Southern New York.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., acting chairman of the subcommittee which completed hearings on Cooper's appointment Tuesday, outlined a tentative schedule which looks to full committee action the last week in August.

After Cooper answered the subcommittee's questions for almost three hours, McClellan gave the New York City Bar Association until Saturday to file a brief on Tuesday's testimony.

Cooper stood throughout his appearance Tuesday — as he did during his direct testimony on July 24 — and denied some of the testimony presented against him at earlier hearings by the New York City Association.

The association claims Cooper lacks the judicial temperament to sit as a federal district judge.

Ceasing Operations

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — The only drydock facility at Buffalo harbor will cease operations beginning next month, the American Ship Building Co., has announced.

Stanley A. Midnight, executive vice president of the company, said Tuesday lack of ship-repair work and "high labor costs" prompted the move.

Girl Will Undergo Open Heart Surgery

A 4-year-old Dutchess County girl will undergo open heart surgery at the Albany Medical Center some time in September.

Mrs. William Arnold, Millerton, said she hopes word of the impending operation slated for her daughter, Lee Marie, will "help to give parents of children with the same condition the strength that has been given to me."

Mrs. Arnold said her daughter was born prematurely and physicians determined she has an enlarged heart, with a hole between an auricle and ventricle.

Angels Rally to Beat Bosox; Broglio Hurls 4-Hit Shutout

Three-Run Ninth Nets 3-1 Victory; Yanks on Top, 14-1

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The regular Wednesday meeting of the second guessers society will now come to order.

The subject of today's session is manager Mike Higgins of the Boston Red Sox.

The Los Angeles Angels were playing the Red Sox Tuesday, and no-hit pitcher Earl Wilson was sailing along without allowing an Angel past second base. The Sox were leading, 1-0. Wilson got the first man in the ninth.

Now, second guessers, do you go to the bullpen?

Higgins, who had only one guess, did. Arnold Earley came in, wild pitched the runners along, walked Leon Wagner to load the bases, and yielded a two-run single to Bob Rodgers. Dick Radatz took over and gave up the final run on a sacrifice fly.

Los Angeles 3, Boston 1. Well, better luck next time, Mike.

Elsewhere in the American League, the New York Yankees shoved Minnesota five games behind with a 14-1 pasting. Ray Herbert pitched the Chicago White Sox to a 4-0 win over the Baltimore Orioles. The Cleveland Indians trimmed the Detroit Tigers 4-2, and the Kansas City Athletics trounced the Washington Senators 10-3 in the only night game on the card.

Kubeck Homers

The Yankee-Twins game was played between two violent rain storms that came too early and too late for the Minnesota team. Tony Kubek, in his first time at bat since he returned from nine months of Army duty, smashed a three-run homer that capped a five-run Yankee first inning.

Camilo Pascual (15-7) was the victim, as the Yankees snapped a three-game losing streak. Ralph Terry (16-9) got the victory.

Herbert, the winner in the second All-Star game, was overpowering against the Orioles. He had a perfect game until he walked Dick Hall in the sixth, and a no-hitter until Russ Snyder opened the seventh with a single. Herbert allowed three hits in all.

The White Sox got all their runs on five singles in the fourth, with Al Smith and Camilo Carreon each collecting a two-run hit.

Catcher Doc Edwards, subbing for the slumping John Romano, contributed a homer, a double and two singles to the Indian cause, as Jim Grant posted his first victory since June 15, with relief help from Pedro Ramos. Chuck Essegian also had a homer for Cleveland. Steve Boros clouted his 10th homer for the Tigers and his fourth in two games.

There was no reason to go to the bullpen in Kansas City, where Bill Fischer pitched his third straight complete game. It was also the third straight complete job for the once downtrodden Athletics staff, and the fifth straight win for Kansas City.

The A's now have won 10 in a row over the Senators, and are 12-3 for the year.

Dark to Stand Pat WithGiantLineup

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Lanky Bob Bolin shuffles into the San Francisco Giants lineup to do the pitching tonight but otherwise Manager Alvin Dark vows to stand pat with that alignment that's won four straight games.

As the New York Mets come to Candlestick Park for a series of two before the weekend gigantic between the second place Giants and the NL leading Los Angeles Dodgers, the man who has done a good bit of lineup juggling declared:

"I'm not going to change anything until we lose."

As the Giants rallied behind Harvey Kuenn's wind - assisted home run for a 4-2 victory over Philadelphia Tuesday, the lineup, except for the pitcher, read the same as the day before and the day before that.

Juan Marichal did the hurling Tuesday, a right-hander after victories by lefties Billy O'Dell and Billy Pierce.

"I didn't have a good curve all day and my fast ball didn't zip," Marichal complained. Yet he still notched his 14th triumph as the Giants beat tough Art Mahaffey who missed his 16th victory.

Cards Defeat Pittsburgh, 5-0; Drysdale Has 21

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

On a night when two masters of the pitching fraternity—Don Drysdale and Joey Jay—continued their sizzling efforts, there was a half hour stretch when Ernie Broglio was the hottest pitcher in the majors.

Broglio posted his second consecutive four-hitter for his fifth straight victory as St. Louis blanked Pittsburgh 5-0 Tuesday night and he continued to pitch while a fire blazed behind him in the right field stands at Forbes Field.

The blaze, which started among some tarpaulins and empty rubbish hampers, broke out while Broglio was coasting along with a two-hitter in the seventh inning. With the flames clearly visible, Broglio got two more out and gave up a hit before play was halted.

Broglio sat down while firemen did their work, then returned after a 27-minute wait and finished up a sparkling job to continue his comeback efforts. The 1960 21-game winner, who fell to 9-12 last year, now is 9-4.

11th Straight Win

Drysdale, the 26-year-old right-hander trying to become the first 30-game winner since Dizzy Dean in 1934, recorded victory No. 21 and his 11th in a row as the National League leading Los Angeles Dodgers whipped the New York Mets 7-5.

Jay, who along with Milwaukee's Warren Spahn were the only 20-game winners in the league last year, won No. 17 by limiting Houston's punchless Colts to four hits while homers by Gordie Coleman and Frank Robinson powered third-place Cincinnati to a 3-0 victory.

It was a pitchers' day all around. In the other games, Juan Marichal bested Art Mahaffey as the second-place San Francisco Giants remained 4½ games behind the Dodgers by defeating Philadelphia 4-2, and Lew Burdette hurled Milwaukee to a 4-1 triumph over the Chicago Cubs.

Ike's Club Goes To Golf Museum

NEW YORK (AP)—A club that holds a double distinction for one of the world's most famed amateur golfers has been presented to the U. S. Golf Association Museum.

The club is a No. 5 wood and the man who made it a part of the museum's exhibit is Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

In a letter to John D. Ames of Chicago, a former USGA president, Eisenhower described the club as "not only a replacement for the only one that I ever saw disinegrate as the result of a clean stroke, but also a reminder to me of the occasion on which I came closest to a hole-in-one."

In the letter, Eisenhower said he was playing in a foursome at the Augusta National in Georgia and teed off with a No. 5 wood.

"At the precise instant that the club struck the ball something happened, startling me so much that I practically jumped off the ground . . . I stood there stupidly staring at my club shaft, which I gradually came to realize had lost its head . . ."

"It was some time before anyone thought of the ball. No one knew, but after looking all over the foreground we discovered it lying only inches from the flag."

Sprite Rodney Wins in Michigan

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sprite Rodney beat five other Hambletonian hopefuls Tuesday night in Michigan's richest trotting event to brighten prospects for an Eaton Ridge Farm entry to capture the $150,000 Hambletonian.

Sprite Rodney won the $26,525 Matron Stakes at Wolverine Raceway in Detroit by two lengths in the first dash and a full length in the second to win $13,262 and push her lifetime earnings above $119,000.

Owned by Mel and Tom Eaton of Norwich, N.Y., the three-year-old filly, driven by Frank Ervin, took the lead in both dashes and was never headed.

Impish, another Eaton entry, was the early Hambletonian favorite until injured July 20. Despite the injury, experts still rate her a strong third choice for the big race scheduled Aug. 29.

Harness racing results last night:

Vernon — Major Discovery $3,000 won a $2,000 conditioned pace for her sixth win in 10 starts. Dainty Dean, at 105-1 odds, finished second and paid $43.30, and Better Buy, 129-1, placed third to pay $17.80.

Saratoga—Lusty Lawrence ($3.90) captured the $2,020 Corinth Pace and Federalist ($2.90) won the $3,000 Fonda Pace.

Batavia — Guy's Buddy ($20) won the $1,600 Class B2-B1 trot in 2:06 2-5.

Winner to Compete

MONTREAL (AP)—Richelieu Raceways announced Tuesday that the winner of its Canadian Trotting Championship Sunday will compete in the $50,000 International Trot Aug. 18 at Roosevelt Raceway, Westbury, N. Y.

Paul Hornung Spurns Big Bid Of $250,000 to Jump to AFL

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

GREEN BAY, Wis.—(NEA)—Paul Hornung, the Golden Boy of Green Bay, has been offered $250,000 by an American Football League team to play out his option this year and jump to the rival circuit.

The proposal to the spectacular star of the National Football League champions took the form of a $150,000 playing contract spread over three years, plus $100,000 for personal services.

And what was Hornung's reaction?

"When they start throwing that kind of money around," he said, declining to name the team, "you've just got to think about it."

But Green Bay doesn't have to worry about losing the 26-year-old halfback to the AFL.

"It would be like going from the New York Yankees to the Louisville Colonels," he shrugged off the quarter-million dollar deal, the greatest offer ever made a professional football player.

Despite the fancy figures, he feels strongly about the salary scales in professional football.

"We don't get paid enough," he declared, "considering the energy we expend and the career risk of the violent sport we're in.

"Green Bay is a nonprofit organization, and all that money they're making is going into a bottomless pit.

"Sure, the pay is better than it used to be. Heck, any kid who's drafted in the first three rounds has got to come up with a five-figure contract.

Paul Hornung

"But I wish I were coming out of college now, with those two leagues competing. Man, I'd be set."

Originally, this was to have been the great halfback's last year in professional football. He is on the last leg of a three-year in 1960, he said it would be his contract and when he signed it farewell to football.

"Maybe," he admited, "if I hadn't gone into the Army and had a chance to set up my duplicating machine business, I wouldn't even be playing now.

"But things change. They look a lot better when you're successful, like we've been in Green Bay the last couple of years. I can see myself playing until I'm 30 now.

"Green Bay has treated me good. And it's fun playing here because we're such a close club."

A slight pull in the hamstring muscle has impaired his early workouts and limited his ball carrying in the Packers' win over the College All-Stars.

"Paul looked better than I thought he would," confessed Coach Vince Lombardi.

"Come back and see me a month from now," said Hornung airily.

The Packers' hopes for repeating hinge squarely on the blond husky from Notre Dame who made a remarkable transition from All-American quarterback to heavy duty halfback in the pros (and the most prolific scorer in pro history).

"I had no idea I'd be working so hard," he grinned. "I wanted to play quarterback. I found out I couldn't—after two games."

Injury is an ever present risk. He has a trick nerve in his shoulder which knocked him out of the championship game in Philadelphia in 1960. His heavy legs are susceptible to muscle pulls.

"But you don't think about getting hurt when you're going good," said Paul. "A sprained ankle doesn't mean anything. In the pros, if you can walk, you play. They get their money's worth."

So, of course, do the fans.

Burdette Denies He's Washed Up

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Fidgety Lew Burdette, the right-handed ace of the Milwaukee Braves' pitching staff for nine years, fired back today at critics who hint he may be all washed up at the age of 35.

"This has been a real bad year, but I've got a lot of pitching left," Burdette said after scattering eight hits Tuesday night in a 4-1 victory over the Chicao Cubs.

"When a pitcher has a couple of bad games when he's around 35, it seems everyone says he's getting old," Burdette said. "Heck, they started calling me old years ago."

Burdette, who will be 36 in November, struck out eight, equalling his 1962 game high, and did not walk a batter in posting his 9th victory in 16 decisions. He lost a bid for a shutout on George Altman's 18th homer in the seventh inning.

The home run pitch was Burdette's 22nd of the season. But, he noted, he has thrown many more in years he won 19, 20 or 21 games. A control artist, he can run into trouble when his pitches are even a couple of inches from the corner he attempts to hit.

"Control isn't just getting the ball over the plate," he explained. "It's putting the pitch where you want. Altman hit a fast ball that got up a little high around the waist on the outside corner. He hit it just right, going towards left field."

Fullmer, Tiger Bout Postponed to Oct. 16

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Champion Gene Fullmer of Utah and Dick Tiger of Nigeria will meet in a 15-round National Boxing Association middleweight championship bout on Oct. 16 instead of Sept. 12.

The site remains the same, San Francisco's Candlestick Park.

It was the second announced postponement of the fight. The bout originally was scheduled for Aug. 27.

What a Problem

Kubek May Have Trouble Getting SS Job From Tresh

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Tony Kubek, who celebrated his return from a nine-month Army hitch with a three-run homer the first time he stepped the plate, will not automatically reclaim his shortstop job with the New York Yankees.

"Tom Tresh has done valuable work for us all year," said Yankee Manager Ralph Houk today. "I would like to use Kubek and Tom in every game. I have not decided how to do that, so it will be on a day-to-day basis."

As if to underline Houk's words, rookie Tresh himself blasted two home runs and a single in the Yankees' 14-1 rumble over Minnesota Tuesday. The victory lengthened the Yanks' lead to five games over the second-place Twins.

Kubek, usually a taciturn bloke, couldn't have been happier at the turn of events.

"I used to think of what would happen when I got back to playing with the Yanks again during those months in service," he said. "I wasn't exactly worried. But common sense told me a fellow who hadn't had any spring training could be rusty.

"Then Ralph told me to play left field. I saw we were facing Camilo Pascual. That didn't encourage me any. He has perhaps the best curve in the American League."

But Kubek caught a low curve on a 0-1 pitch and deposited it into the lower right field stands in the first inning. In his other three times at bat, he also got good wood on the ball on long out field flies.

Kingston Legion To Play Today At New Rochelle

Yesterday's State Legion semi-final game between Kingston Post 150 and Staten Island was postponed because of rain and the clubs were scheduled to play this afternoon at 2 at City Park, New Rochelle.

The winner will journey to Cooperstown over the weekend to play in the state finals.

Staten Island beat Kingston in the semi-finals last season and the team went on to win the state title.

Templeton Dies, Was Track Coach

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) — Robert L. (Dink) Templeton, 65, one of Stanford University's most famed coaches and a world renowned track and field authority, died Tuesday of an acute heart attack.

He was admitted to Palo Alto-Stanford Hospital Saturday suffering pneumonia. An autopsy showed exact cause of death to be coronary thrombosis.

Templeton's death followed by only four days that of his greatest coaching rival, Dean Cromwell of the University of Southern California.

Templeton entered Stanford in 1914 but his education was interrupted by service as a pilot in World War 1. He graduated in 1921, having starred in football, rugby and track.

At Woodstock CC

Mrs. Kaye-Rifenbary Invitational Winners

Mrs. Louise Kaye and Dr. George C. Rifenbary combined for an even par best-ball 70 to win first place in the Woodstock Country Club's Husband and Wife Invitational tournament.

Under the rules of the tournament, the wife of the host team was paired with the husband of the guest team and vice versa.

Dr. Rifenbary played one of his best games of the season and Mrs. Kaye made solid contributions, as they carded nines of 36-40 for 76 gross to go with 6 strokes deduction under the Calloway system. The net was two strokes better than five runnerup teams to lead a field of 32 tandems. Play was conducted under the Pinehurst system which proved extremely popular with the field.

The five teams tied for second place with net 72s were:

Floyd DeWitt — Mrs. William McLaughlin, 82-10-72.

Mrs. A. J. de Lisio-George Schneider, 75-3-72.

Joseph Fitzsimmons-Mrs. Sidney Velser, 90-15-75.

Walter S. Van Wagenen-Mrs. Arnold Pinsley, 81-9-72.

Mrs. Walter S. Van Wagenen-Arnold Pinsley, 83-11-72.

Five teams tied for third with nets 73s as follows:

Mrs. Robert Rylance-Robert H. Daley, 83-10-73.

Dr. John Olivet-Mrs. Edward Minasian, 86-13-73.

Mrs. Floyd De Witt-William McLaughlin, 79-6-73.

Alex Sharpe-Mrs. J. Waters, 83-10-73.

Thomas H. Dendy-Mrs. Roland Riegel, 86-13-73.

Other scores were:

Louis Kaye-Mrs. George C. Rifenbary, 87-12-75; Elmer Rylance-Mrs. Robert H. Daley, 102-26-76; Mrs. John Olivet- Edward Minasian, 84-10-74; A. J. de Lisio-Mrs. George Schneider, 96-19-77; Mrs. Joseph Fitzsimmons-Sidney Velser, 90-15-75; Mrs. Alex Sharpe-J. Waters, 80-6-74; Mrs. Thomas H. Dendy-Roland Riegel, 84-9-75; S. Goldmuntz-Mrs. R. Kerngood, 103-25-78; G. Goldmuntz-Mr. Kerngood, 93-18-75; Kenneth Charlton-Mrs. John Overbagh, 84-10-74; Mrs. Kenneth Charlton-John Overbagh, 84-10-74; Clair Shaeffer-Mrs. Clarence Beehler, 91-15-76; Mrs. C. Sheaffer-Clarence Beehler, 94-18-76; Al Pettinate- Mrs. John Provenzano, 105-31-76; Mrs. A. Pettinato-John Provenano, 92-18-74; Anthony Pizarelli-Mrs. A. Bagnall, 109-32-77; Mrs. A. Pizzarelli-A. Bagnall, 111-37-74.

Hebert Says 280 Will Win Title In Golf Tourney

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Defending champion Jay Hebert, who seems to own a lock and key on the 7,165-yard Firestone Country Club course, predicts an even par 280 will be the winning score in the $50,000 American Golf Classic, which starts Thursday.

Hebert won the PGA title with a 281 on the Firestone course two years ago and posted a 278 in capturing the initial American Classic last August.

"The course is playing beautifully with the greens much better than in former years," declared Hebert after carding a two-over-par 72 in a tuneup round Tuesday.

The Louisiana native has failed to crash the winner's circle since last year's classic.

"I have to get reaquainted with this course," Hebert said. He is 21st on the pro list with $18,567 this season.

Tommy Jacobs fired a nifty 65 in a practice round, which included an eagle on the 500-yard par 5 No. 2 hole. Doug Sanders closed with three straight birdies and a 66 after getting a double bogey on No. 9.

Walt Burkemo, Mike Souchak and Jon Gustin also broke par with 69s, while Howie Johnson, Lionel Hebert, Dave Ragan and Paul Bondeson matched par with 70s.

Celeste Edge Raps 243 Solo

Celeste Edge unloaded a 243 solo behind a pair of 149s for 541 high slam in the Business Girls league.

Team results:

DeLuca Cleaners 0, WBAZ Radio 3; Houghtaling Cities Service 2, Wimpy's 1; Gene's Bar and Grill 0, Colonial Knitwear 3; Local 259 (1); J&G Drywall Construction 2.

Ed Hawkey Tops ENY With 71

Touring his home course in 1-under-par 71, Ed Hawkey captured the weekly Eastern New York Golf Association tournament on the rain swept Edison links in Schenectady Tuesday.

Hawkey carded five birdies and a bogie for a 4-under 32 on the front nine but cooled off to a 39 coming in. Seventeen year old John Hawthorn, Jr., of Ballston Spa and Anthony Maragno of Pine Brook shared the runnerup spot with par 72s.

Charles J. Turck of Wiltwyck went 2 over par with a 74 but his net 69 put him in the prize winning list. George Cosenza posted 79-6-73 and Maurice Davenport, 81-7-74.

Ray LeGore of Edison led the Class B field with 73 and the net winner was Nick Perrotta, Mechanicville, with 68, aided by a 12 handicap. Tom Greene, Mechanicville, led Class C with an 82 and Bill Boyer Catskill used a 16 stroke allowance to capture net honors with 68.

Two Wiltwyck golfers—O. D. Ingalls, 82-13-69, and Tom Stenson, 82-12-69, were in the Class B net prize list, John Provenzano shot 90-10-80.

Al Heisman of Wiltwyck took a net prize in Class C with 88-17-71, Reuben Leventhal fired 95-20-75 and C Lincoln Christensen had 100-24-76.

Next week the association will go back to its regular Wednesday school at Columbia CC in Claverack.

Williams Given 5-Day Suspension

MONTICELLO — Harold Williams, 32-year-old Freehold, N. J. driver, begins serving a five-day suspension today, Judges announced at Monticello Raceway. His suspension will be lifted on August 14.

Williams was ruled to have interfered with Scarlet Sam while driving Victory Lind at the first turn in Saturday's fourth race. Scarlet Sam, driven by John Walker, was forced to break because of the infraction and finished sixth.

Victory Lind wound up third, but was placed last for the interference. Clark Demon won the Class C-1 race in 2:08.

Binghamton Now In Eastern Cellar

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Binghamton Trips, the poor man's version of the New York Mets, have tripped badly and their fumbling and stumbling has tumbled them into the Eastern League cellar.

The Elmira Pioneers scored three unearned runs Tuesday night to defeat the Trips 3-1 and drop them into last place. Binghamton committed six errors on top of six the previous night in a 7-4 loss to Williamsport. Three of the errors were by third baseman Nick Stampone, who made four of the six errors Monday night.

Monticello DD Returns $46.10

MONTICELLO — Go Jimmy led all the way to win the second race after Rebecca Adios scored a stretch win in the first for a $46.10 daily double of numbers 4 and 1 Tuesday at Monticello Raceway.

Eddie Taylor got Go Jimmie home in front in a new lifetime record of 2:09.1. The four-year-old gelding paid mutuels of 8.60, 3.70 and 3.00. Melvin's Girl finished strongly to take second money and pay 3.00 and 2.50. Third was Scott's Signet for 5.60.

Lucine Fontaine boosted his win dash total to 22 by steering Rebecca Adios to a 2:11.1 win. The two-year-old filly by parading Adios just did hold on to defeat fast-closing Your Adios. Kelly Green was third.

Rebecca Adios returned 8.20, 3.90 and 3.50. Your Adios was 5.80 and 4.30 for second and Kelly Green 5.90 for show.

Worthy K. led all the way to win the third race in 2:10. Jim Grundy drove the winner for Peggy Stables Newburgh. Worthy K paid $6.30, 4.20 and 4.40. Babe Dares was second for 5.50 and 4.00. Third was Princess Sampson for 3.80.

Doctor McClung closed stoutly in the stretch to win the feature $1,900 Middletown pace in 2:05.1. Fox Abbe was a head back in second with Tarquinia third.

Norm Stephens drove the four-year-old son of Solicitor to victory from the outside eighth post. The win was the fourth in 16 races for the George Soultanian-owned four-year-old.

Doctor McClung paid winning mutuels of 18.40, 6.90 and 3.60. Fox Abee, the 8-5 favorite was second and returned 3.40 and 2.80. Tarquinia was 3.30 for show.

Swim Coach Is Dead After 56 Year Career

BURK FALLS, Ont. (AP)—Matt Mann II is dead at the age of 77 after a 56-year coaching career in which he built the University of Michigan into a swimming power and headed one Olympic team.

Mann collapsed, apparently of a heart attack, Monday night at Camp Chikopi, where he has been coaching young swimmers since he founded the camp in 1920.

The former University of Michigan and University of Oklahoma coach had finished directing some swimming races. He collapsed shortly after telling his family he was tired and would retire early.

Cannon Signs New Pact With Oilers

HOUSTON (AP)—Billy Cannon extended his contract with the American Football League Champion Houston Oilers through the 1965 season today by signing a new three-year contract for more than $100,000.

It was the second $100,000-plus contract for the former All-America halfback since he won the Heisman Trophy at Louisiana State in 1959.

The document tacks three more years on the 1960 contract that prompted a court fight between the Oilers and the Los Angeles Rams of the rival National Football League.

End Man

CHICAGO (NEA) — Dr. Bill McColl soon will be leaving for Korea with his wife, Barbara, and six young children.

Dr. McColl, the end who played eight years with the Chicago Bears, will serve two years as a medical missionary in Taegu.

"Each year at this time," said Dr. McColl, 32 and an orthopedic specialist who retired from football three years ago, "I still have the urge to play.

"Playing football financed my marriage and studies, but I would have played for the Bears for room and board."

Leafs Feature Red Hot Slugger

Mike Krsnich must think he has arrived in an angel-less, wingless heaven.

Since joining the Toronto Maple Leafs from the Louisville Colonels of the American Association, the 30-year-old outfielder has compiled a .339 batting average and personally has won two of his club's last three games.

Tuesday night he belted a homer in the eighth, which proved to be the winning run in Toronto's 6-5 victory over the Columbus Jets.

His homer pushed the Leafs into a 6-4 lead. Bill Kunkel, late of Portland of the Pacific Coast League, got credit for the victory.

The victory was Toronto's fifth in a row, but the Leafs still trail the Jacksonville Suns by nine games

Elsewhere, the Suns split a doubleheader with the Syracuse Chiefs, losing the first, 6-2, and winning the second, 7-3; the Rochester Red Wings clubbed the Atlanta Crackers, 7-2,i n the first game, but lost the nightcap, 6-5, and Buffalo turned back Richmond, 5-3, in the first game of a doubleheader only to drop the second game to the Virginians, 7-4.

Chalmers Slams 267

Littler Shows Gain on Palmer

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP)—Gene Littler has edged a little closer to Arnold Palmer in the professional golfing money-winning race, but a big gap still separates them.

Palmer is on top the Professional Golf association's list of top 10 money winners with total winnings of $71,198, a figure he failed to improve last week.

Littler, who won $1,600 for fourth place in the Insurance City Open Sunday, increased his total to $59,370, according to the list released Monday by PGA headquarters.

Bob Goalby, who won the Insurance City Open, jumped his winnings from $31,670 to $36,970, but still stood in sixth place on the list.

Bruce Crampton, who picked up $1,400 in the Hartford, Conn., tourney, moved from ninth to eighth spot with a total of $28,790. The only other winner on the top 10 was 10th place Doug Ford, who won $450 at Hartford to give him a total of $27,216.

Regional BR Tourney To Commence Tonight

HORNELL, N.Y. (AP)—Teams from seven states and the Province of Ontario open play tonight in the Middle Atlantic States Regional Tournament of Babe Ruth Baseball leagues.

Clubs from Portsmouth, Va., and Trenton, N.J., get play underway in the first game of the opening round doubleheader. Clarksburgh, W. Va., meets Brockville, Ont., in the second game.

The championship game is scheduled Saturday.

Don Drysdale's Win Is His 100th in Majors

LOS ANGELES (AP)—This is the biggest year so far in big Don Drysdale's seven-year major league pitching career.

By going the route and beating the New York Mets Tuesday night, 7-5, the Los Angeles Dodger right-hander scored his 21th victory against four losses. It was his 100th win since he first put on a Brooklyn Dodger uniform in 1956. He never has won more than 17 in a year.

Even the most persnickety luxury-lover couldn't ask for very much more than a Jet-smooth Chevrolet (like, for instance, that Impala Sport Coupe at the top). Yet all of it—Body-by-Fisher room and elegance, road-gentling Jet-smooth ride with Full Coil suspension, your choice of V8 or 6 engine, the works—comes for a Chevrolet price. (You know how low that is.)

JET-SMOOTH CHEVROLET

Here's about the best thing that's happened to make money go farther since budgets—the lively low-cost Chevy II. It's got all kinds of room (Body by Fisher, what else?), a 6 that thrives on regular gasoline, plus things like bolt-on front-end components for rock-bottom upkeep. Eleven-model selection includes the Nova 2-Door Sedan (second from top).

CHEVY II NOVA

The Corvair Monza is kind of like two cars for one low price—a roomy family car and a sporty driver's car. And with the engine at the rear for better traction and easy handling, it plays both roles to the hilt. The Monza comes in three flavors—Club Coupe (third from top), Sedan or Convertible. Care to join the club—and get all the fun of a once-a-year buy, to boot?

EMPLOYMENT

NOTICE TO JOB APPLICANTS
The Kingston Daily Freeman does not knowingly accept help wanted advertisements from employers covered by the Federal Wage-Hour Law if they offer less than legal minimum wages. Beginning September 3, 1961, employees engaged in interstate or foreign commerce or in the production of goods for such commerce must be paid not less than $1.15 an hour and at least time and one-half for hours worked after 40 in a workweek, unless specifically exempt. Employees of certain large retail, service, construction, and other enterprises must be paid not less than $1.00 an hour after September 3, 1961, but no overtime for such employment is required until September 3, 1963. If you are offered less by covered employers, or if you have questions concerning this law or other activities of the U. S. Department of Labor, call or write the Department's local office at Bronx: Abraham Klainoard, Investigation Supr., 881 Gerard Ave., Bronx, N. Y. WYandotte 2-1235.

BUY ME
I'm an impressive 70' brick ranch, affording beauty in Woodstock. I'm situated on a ½ acre site with trees and expensive landscaping. I contain 1700 square ft. of better workmanship, divided into 8 well proportioned rooms including a glass enclosed family room overlooking a secluded yard. I also have a brick walled living room fireplace and wood paneling. For something out of the ordinary in a luxury home I say "Buy Me." I am expensive but do not cost much. My owner wants $26,250, and take my word I'M WORTH IT.

Historic Themes Used to Decorate Uptown Building

Although thousands of customers of the State of New York National Bank, 301 Wall Street, have viewed the newly decorated bank, A. Raymond Atkins, president, invites everyone in the area to visit the bank and to see one of the most interesting interiors in the Hudson Valley.

Designed by Fred J. Johnston, president of the board of trustees of the Senate House Association and curator of the Van Alstyne-Marsh Museum, the theme of the recently redecorated bank is the historical background of Kingston, as well as that of the world renowned beauty of the Hudson River Valley in which, during the second half of the 19th century, the Hudson River School of Painting flourished.

A hand-painted mural effect is achieved on the north wall of the bank with the same wallpaper which sparked the restoration of the White House where it is hung in the Diplomatic Reception Room. The wallpaper was painted by F. Zipelius and Eugene Ehramann of Mulhouse, France in 1834 and later printed from 1675 hand blocks. These are the original blocks from which both the White House wallpaper and that in the State of New York National Bank were printed. The subject matter, meticulously executed, features the New York Bay, Niagara Falls and West Point.

Mr. Johnson further carried out the New York and Hudson River Valley themes in the bank by hanging four antique medium folio Currier & Ives prints. One is a view from Peekskill looking through the Hudson River narrows, another a view from Hudson looking across the river at the Town of Catskill, the Catskill Mountains in the background; another is a view from West Point looking to the Hudson River highlands to Newburgh, and one is a view of Niagara Falls. These prints are of the period from 1850 to 1860.

Draperies of hand woven material featuring an eagle design and the motto E Pluribus Unum are hung at all the windows. The designs were inspired by the now rare hand loomed bedspreads that were made in so many places in the Hudson Valley. The eagle motif was used as a border decoration in the 1830's.

In keeping with the new program of redecoration which so many uptown Kingston businesses are in process of carrying out, the beautiful and historic interior of the State of New York National Bank marks an important step. The bank at 301 Wall Street is open daily from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. and Friday evenings from 6:45 to 8 p. m.

Knights Slate Cabrini School Outing Thursday

The annual outing and picnic, sponsored by the Kingston Assembly, Knights of Columbus for over 40 years, will be held for the Mother Cabrini School for girls, West Park, Thursday.

Led by an escort of the New York State Police, 25 cars will form a motorcade, leaving the Sacred Heart School grounds at 9 a. m. They will be met at the city line by an escort of the Kingston police, through the city to Route 28 to the Ashokan, where a stopover will be made at the aerators. The motorcade will then return to Kingston's Forsyth Park, where a picnic lunch will be served by the Columbiettes of the Kingston Knights of Columbus, headed by President Mrs. Vincent McDonough and her committee, to over 120 girls and to the missionary nuns of the Sacred Heart Mother Cabrini staff.

Then a full afternoon of games for all will conclude with soda and ice cream. At 4 p. m. all will return to West Park.

For many decades, the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus has provided the school with these outings and support has always come from both member and civic groups of the City of Kingston and its suburban areas.

Year after year the automobile dealers have provided new autos so that all the children could have transportation in grand style. The Columbiettes have provided food and services.

Spiritual guidance is given by Faithful Frair Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph D. Ostermann, pastor of St. Peter's Church. The entire project is under the chairmanship of Faithful Captain Frank Castiglione and his committee men, appointed by the Faithful Navigator James F. Kelly.

Pilgrims in Tents To Remain Till President Speaks

By DON MCKEE

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—The first contingent of a promised "preacher pilgrimage" from other states has arrived in Albany to support integrationists in their battle for equal rights for Negroes.

"We do not intend to leave Albany until we have some word from the President," said one of the clergymen, Dr. Milton A. Reid of Petersburg, Va.

Reid was among 100 ministers who marched on the White House Monday in protest to segregation here and to seek audience with President Kennedy.

The Baptist minister arrived in Albany Tuesday with three other Negroes—the Rev. S. H. LaGarde of Edenton, N.C.; and Rev. Virgil Wood of Lynchburg, Va.; and the Rev. Curtis Harris of Hopewell, Va.

All four are connected with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference headed by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., in jail for demonstrating against segregation policies of this south Georgia City.

Swedish Doctor Sees Expectant Mother on Surgery

STOCKHOLM (AP)—Mrs. Sherri Finkbine finally saw a Swedish doctor Tuesday and is expected to seek official approval early next week for abortion of the baby she fears has been deformed by thalidomide.

Her husband, Robert, told newsmen his wife, a Phoenix, Ariz., television personality, will see the doctor again Friday. He said the application for the abortion probably will be submitted to the Royal Medical Board one day next week.

The Finkbines arrived Sunday to seek the abortion which was refused legal sanction by an Arizona court earlier. The 30-year-old brunette had taken the tranquilizer thalidomide during her early pregnancy. The drug has been blamed for the birth of several thousand European babies with deformed arms, legs and internal organs.

Firemen Rescue Mother and 5 Today in Hudson

HUDSON, N. Y. (AP) — A mother and her five children were plucked to safety by firemen today as fire swept a three-story apartment building in the downtown section.

Firemen used an extension ladder to rescue Mrs. George Yates and her children when flames blocked off the stairway.

Fourth other adults and 10 children escaped without assistance. No one was injured.

The cause of the fire was not determined.

Prominent Naturalist Dies, Indian Authority

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Ellsworth Jaeger, a prominent naturalist, died in a hospital here Tuesday. He was 64.

Jaeger, an authority on North American Indians, wrote four books on nature, had articles published in more than a dozen magazines, and at one time wrote a newspaper column on wildlife which appeared in 13 newspapers.

He had been education curator at the Buffalo Museum of Science since 1941, and in 1948 he surveyed adult education facilities in American museums for the United Nations Educational, Scientific & Cultural Organization.

State Democrats Plan On Public Hearings

NEW YORK (AP) — Democratic State Chairman William H. McKeon today called on the party's county chairmen throughout the state to assist in plans for public hearings to be held by a committee in a move to develop Democratic party positions.

The committee, headed by Alan K. Campbell, Syracuse University professor of political science, will report to the platform and resolutions committee of the Democratic State Convention.

McKeon sent letters to the county chairmen asking them to contact groups and individuals who might want to appear at the hearings.

To Remove Cataract

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Mayor Chester Kowal of Buffalo entered Sisters Hospital today for surgery to remove a cataract from his left eye.

Kowal, 57, is expected to be hospitalized about three weeks.

The answers to everyday insurance problems* by HERMAN J. EATON, C.L.U.

QUESTION: Is it true that there is no such thing as Earthquake Insurance?

ANSWER: No. Many insurance companies write Earthquake insurance—usually on a deductible basis — with the building owner paying for all damage up to a certain amount and the company paying for damage in excess of that amount.

Complaints Heard on Plants' Noxious Odors

ORGANIZES THALIDOMIDE VICTIMS — German attorney Karl Schulte-Hillen, father of a child whose deformity is blamed on the drug thalidomide, checks indexed card file in Hamburg, West Germany. File is supposed to contain names of 400 families with children similarly deformed. He has started an association for the families and hopes to expand its organization to other countries. Remedial Action Is Sought

No Certain Firm Shoulders Blame

An investigation by and a report from Fire Chief James M. Brett was requested at Tuesday night's Common Council meeting after complaints by Alderman Frank C. Adams (D), Fifth Ward, and other spokesmen for residents of the Ponckhockie section, that noxious odors and dust were being diffused in the area apparently from industrial plants.

Cement and aggregate plants north of the area were held responsible by some, but one alderman said that judging from reports he had received, "I don't think we can blame any one place" for such conditions.

Not Aimed at Closing

Alderman Adams emphasized that the complaints were not aimed at closing such plants as that of Hudson Cement Corp., North Street, but those affected are asking for remedial action. He asked that Mayor John J. Schwenk be asked through the city clerk to direct an investigation by the fire chief, and to seek a report, if possible, at the next council meeting.

William Cozza, of 43 Walnut Street, said his daughter had been treated for a respiratory ailment and reported vomiting in the family as a result of conditions in the neighborhood.

One resident of the area said the odor was similar to that of rotten eggs, another reported dust sweeping over the area.

Are Not Certain

Adams indicated that residents in the area were not certain that the cement plant was the source of the trouble, and Donald M. Hastings (D) Third Ward, felt there were other sources. Complaints have also been received, he noted, of fires at the city refuse disposal site off Ulster Street.

Hastings said he had been told of occasional breakdowns in filtering systems at such plants, and he felt that if publicity were given such breakdowns, the public might understand and be prepared.

7th Death Is Reported in July Mishap

Death today claimed the life of a seventh victim of a two-car head-on collision which occurred Sunday, July 29 on Route 299, which links Route 9W and the State Thruway at New Paltz.

Mrs. Alphonse Tuozzo, 65, of New Paltz, operator of one of the vehicles involved in the collision which proved fatal for her husband and five well-known Poughkeepsie women, died at St. Francis' Hospital, Poughkeepsie, at 2:55 a. m. today.

Only One Survivor

Her husband, Alphonse Tuozzo, 66, retired New York City police sergeant, died the day of the Town of Lloyd crash, which authorities said was the worst highway collision to occur in Ulster County.

Mrs. Tuozzo was the former Hazel Hawkins, native of Brooklyn, and daughter of the late Edward and Elizabeth Hawkins.

Her daughter, Miss Patricia Grace Tuozzo, 28, was the only survivor of the crash.

Also killed in the crash was Mrs. Lucy Daughton, 73, of 91 Garden Street, Poughkeepsie, wife of the late Joseph A. Daughton, Dutchess County clerk many years prior to 1934.

Other Victims

Other victims of the collision were: Miss Elizabeth O'Shea, 68, of the Poughkeepsie address, identified as the driver of the car containing the five women; Miss Mary O'Shea, 65, same address, and Mrs. Julia C. Schlimmer, 65, of 75 Garden Street, and Miss Katherine Schlosser, 74, of 73 Garden Street, all of Poughkeepsie.

The Misses O'Shea and Mrs. Daughton were sisters.

The five women had been visiting in Kingston where they had dinner the day of the accident, (Continued on Page 16, Col. 6)

Salaries Are Up for Discussion

DPW Workers Ask Equal Pay Study

A recess was taken by the Common Council Tuesday night subject to call of Alderman-at-Large Harold L. Kaye for action later this month on the Washington Avenue viaduct-Esopus Creek Bridge project and on uptown urban renewal, after the aldermen voted to try again to gain a meeting with the police board, and heard discussion on salary increases.

Alderman Frank C. Sass (D), Seventh Ward, council majority leader, emphasized that the fire board has agreed to meet with the aldermen, and the council was asked also to consider raises for public works employes. The bid was made by Joseph McCardle, president of the Civil Service Employes Association, who asked that the men in public works be given the same consideration as policemen and firemen.

$7,000 Approved

A $7,000 budget note for reconditioning a unit known as a Traxcavator, and used for landfill on the city's refuse disposal site, was approved, continuance of commissioners of deeds was authorized, city polling places were designated and an agreement with hospitals pertaining to laboratory charges was approved.

The resolution asking the police board to meet with the aldermen, offered by Donald M. Hastings (D) Third Ward, gained 10 votes with Edward J. Schrowang (R) First Ward abstaining and Minority Leader Joseph F. Carroll (R) 11th Ward, and Clark W. Myers (R) Second Ward, voting against it. Robert P. Slover (R) Fourth Ward, and John Machione (R) 12th Ward, joined the Democrats in voting for the resolution.

A special committee was named to discuss the post of plumbing inspector after a request from master plumbers for a meeting.

Would Improve Point

Alderman Francis R. Koenig (D) Ninth Ward, asked that an inquiry be made to determine what action is in progress for development of a park in the Kingston Point area. Former Mayor Edwin F. Radel, he said, had started action toward gaining a park there, and he asked that City Clerk Walter S. Foster determine what progress has been made or what action is to be taken to gain a park.

Argument flared several times to the point of disrupting procedure and Council President Kaye dealt several times with interruptions and disputes among aldermen as to which one was out of order.

Majority Leader Sass and Alderman Hastings and Frank A. Adams (D) Fifth Ward felt that the police board should extend the aldermen the same courtesy and consideration as the fire board, and Minority Leader Carroll noting that the police board had looked upon such a meeting as unnecessary, held that it was, and that a council committee would do as well. Machione also felt that action by a committee would be sufficient.

Not for Controversy

Sass cited recently published reports dealing with police and fire department salaries. He indicated that he wanted no prolonged controversy on the subject, but felt that all concerned would gain, if the various boards concerned and the aldermen (Continued on Page 10, Col. 2)

Dirksen Mentions October

Says Kennedy 'Must' Would Detain Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksn of Illinois said today Congress still will be here in October if President Kennedy pushes a "must" legislative program.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota, the deputy Democratic leader, has outlined a 10-point program discussed at a White House meeting Tuesday. He has said Congress can pass it and wind up its work by Sept. 15.

"Is he kidding?" Dirksen asked in an interview. "The Senate won't even get the trade expansion bill until after Labor Day. The Democratic leaders are holding up the tax revision bill until after that. If Congress does all the things Sen. Humphrey says the President wants done, we'll still be here in October."

Dirksen and other candidates for re-election in the Senate and House are anxious to end the session and get home to campaign. In that situation, the Republican leader said there is likely to be "quite a bit of wreckage from the Kennedy program left behind" when Congress adjourns.

Beside the trade and tax bills, Dirksen said he thinks Kennedy probably will get the communications satellite, drug control and U.N. bond measures Humphrey mentioned. He said youth employment and mass immunization bills have little chance.

To Be Further Attack

He indicated he doesn't believe Kennedy will get any of the tight controls he wants in any farm bill that may be passed. He said there will be a "further attack" in the House on Senate-passed authority for the President to initiate public works projects in a threatened recession.

State CC Calling For Picket Ban, Change Crew Law

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—The State Chamber of Commerce called on Republicans today to include in their campaign platform pledges to outlaw organizational picketin and to change the "full crew" railroad laws.

The Chamber said these and other measures were necessary to increase economic growth in the state.

John J. Roberts, executive vice president, outlined the Chamber's position in a speech prepared for a hearing of the Republican Pre-Convention Platform Committee.

The hearing was the first of six the 18-member committee has scheduled in various areas of the state prior to the GOP's state convention in Buffalo Sept. 18-19.

Committee to Advise

The committee will make recommendations to the official platform committee at the convention.

James A. FitzPatrick of Plattsburgh, chairman of the pre-convention group, said several policies and programs adopted by Gov. Rockefeller's administration originated in pre-convention platform hearings held in 1958.

Couple Killed, 2 Paltz Children Injured in Crash

LIVINGSTON MANOR, N. Y. (AP) — Willis Dittman, 72, and his wife, Marion, 73, of Walden, N.Y., were killed Tuesday in a four-car crash on Route 17.

Police said Dittman, civil defense director of the Town of Montgomery since 1952, was driving the family car.

Two of the Dittmans' grandchildren riding with them were injured. Paul Barton, 7, of New Paltz, N.Y., was reported in critical condition today at Roscoe Community Hospital at Roscoe. His sister, Linda, 9, was reported in good condition.

Star Goes to Rest Today in Plain Dress, No Jewels

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Marilyn Monroe, the waif who won movie stardom but couldn't find happiness in her own life, goes to her final resting place today in a plain green dress.

Although invitations to final rites for the 36-year-old blonde sex symbol were limited to about 15, police prepared for the worst—a mob scene that could involve thousands of fans and curiosity seekers.

Police and movie studio guards were assigned to keep order outside the Chapel of the Palms, in nearby Westwood. By midnight a crowd of 100 already had clustered around the entrance.

The shapely actress, who specialized in gay movie roles but found sorrow and disappointment in her own life, was found dead in her bed Sunday, victim of an overdose of barbiturates.

An investigation is under way to determine whether Marilyn's death was accidental or deliberate.

High Officer To Do Night Troop Duty

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Each State Police troop will have a commissioned officer in charge of night activities as a result of a series of promotions and transfers announced by the Division of State Police.

In the past, night operations of the troops were supervised by the highest-ranking trooper on duty. Usually, he was a sergeant.

State Police officials, who announced the changes Tuesday, said the lack of a commissioned officer on duty at night was considered an organizational weakness.

New Supervisors

The following troopers were appointed lieutenant-supervisors:

Troop A, Batavia, Lt. Clayton E. Bailey, now at Troop A. Salary $11,720.

Troop B, Malone, Lt. Frank A. Nolan, now at Troop B. Salary $12,035.

Troop C, Sidney, Lt. James A. Vann, now at Troop D. Salary $11,720.

Troop D, Oneida, Lt. Robert J. Cummings, now at Troop D. Salary $11,720.

Troop G, Loudonville, Sgt. John A. Nadig, now first sergeant at Troop C. Salary $11,300.

Troop K, Hawthorne, Lt. Robert Sweeney, now BCI lieutenant-supervisor at Troop K. Salary $12,035.

Other changes:

More Changes

Lt. Thomas H. Denlea, supervisor of the Bureau of Criminal Investigation in Manhattan, was promoted to inspector and transferred to Albany headquarters. James J. Leary, senior BCI investigator in Manhattan, took over Denlea's position.

George F. Lake Jr., senior BCI investigator in Manhattan, was promoted to lieutenant-supervisor of the BCI at Troop K.

Donald G. Brandon, senior investigator at Troop G, Loudonville, was promoted to lieutenant-supervisor of the Troop G BCI.

Howell Probably Helped Some

Rain Welcome Tuesday, But Much More Needed

While Poughkeepsie and the central sector of Dutchess County reported three to three-and-a-half inches of rain Tuesday, an official of the Ulster County Extension Service Agriculture Department reported rainfall in Ulster County ranged from one-third to one-and-a-half inches.

Ulster County Agriculture Agent William H. Palmer and Dutchess County Agent Oren Burbank, both said the rain was welcomed and it did some good for crops and lawns.

Agent Burbank said three inches of rain was reported in the central section of Dutchess County, while Poughkeepsie reported more than three inches. He noted that at the Dutchess County airport, New Hackensack, and other sections of the county reported "much less rain."

Help, Not Enough

"We are thankful for what we got," Agent Burbank said. "It was a help and a blessing, but not enough.

Asked if he thought the rainmaking operations conducted by Dr. Wallace E. Howell, Lexington, Mass., rainmaker and his associates were responsible for yesterday's rainfall, Agent Burbank told The Freeman, "It is difficult to say definitely, but where silver iodide was used it undoubtedly helped to increase the amount of rain."

Burbank added, "of course that is a guess, but a logical one." He said corn crops will make good use of yesterday's rain which undoubtedly helped the second cutting of alfalfa and new plantings.

Commenting on the possible effects the rainmaking operations had on Tuesday's rain, Burbank noted that the weather bureau had forecast rain during the day.

Noting that the last sizeable rainfall in Ulster county was the early part of April, Agent Palmer stated that at intervals certain sections of the county had reported rain. He said the present shortage of water began about the first week in April.

Wenzel Critical, Forte Boy Fair After Car Mishap

One of two boys injured here Tuesday in traffic mishaps was reported in critical condition and the other was reported as "fair" today at the Benedictine Hospital.

Donald Wenzel, 8, son of former Alderman and Mrs. Joseph Wenzel, of 122 Hasbrouck Avenue, who suffered internal, head and face injuries, was reported critical.

He was involved in a mishap at about 4:10 p. m. at Hasbrouck Avenue and Theresa Lane during yesterday's rain, Others were reported injured in an Abeel Street collision some 10 minutes later, and a boy was hurt earlier in the afternoon at Foxhall and Flatbush Avenues.

Romney Is Top Vote-Getter In Michigan's GOP Primary

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Former automaker George Romney was Micnigan's biggest vote-getter Tuesday as he ran unopposed for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

In other primary elections Tuesday, Sens. Frank Carlson and James B. Pearson won Republican nominations in Kansas and Sen. Edward V. Long usually a backer of the Kennedy administration, won Democratic nomination in Missouri.

Romney, former president of American Motors, had tallied 380,540 votes with 4,516 of the state's 5,199 precincts counted while Democratic Gov. John B. Swainson, also unopposed, had 266,066 votes.

As expected, Swainson ran ahead in the normally Democratic stronghold of Detroit and Wayne County, while Romney, mentioned as a possible GOP presidential candidate, held a big lead in the usually Republican outstate area.

Voter turnouts were light in all three states with most candidates for major offices have little or no opposition.

In Michigan, Alvin Bentley, a former representative, won the Republican nomination for congressman at-large without opposition. Democratic state chairman Neil Staebler, also unopposed, won his party's nomination. Bentley, like Romney, ran well ahead.

In the only major test of political figures, Sen. Pearson decisively defeated former Gov. Edward Arn of Kansas. Pearson, appointed to the Senate earlier this year after the death of Sen. Andrew Schoeppel, seeks election to the remaining four years of the term. Opposing him in November will be Democrat Paul Aylward.

Carlson easily won renomination over farmer Joe Corpstein. K. L. Smith was running well ahead of Joseph J. Poizner for the Democratic nomination to oppose Carlson this fall.

The only incumbent Kansas House member with a contest, Republican Rep. George McVey, was losing. Joe Skubitz, former administrative assistant to Sen. Schoeppel, held a narrow lead over McVey with only a handful of precincts not reported in the 5th District.

Treasurer Lists Town Tax Dates

Fred H. DuBois, county treasurer, advises taxpayers in the various towns of Ulster County that the town tax collectors' warrants for collection of 1962 taxes expire September 1, 1962. After that date, they will turn in their tax rolls to the Ulster County treasurer's office.

Any unpaid taxes for the current year should be paid to the collector before that date in order to avoid extra penalties. The penalty for taxes paid to the collector during August is 4 per cent. After the tax is returned to the county treasurer's office, a five per cent penalty is charged, plus an additional penalty of interest at the rate of 10 per cent per annum figured from Feb. 1, 1962, to date of payment.

Government Officers Give Encouragement, But—

JFK Impact on Business Groups Is That He's Not on Their Side

By RELMAN MORIN

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has tried to convince businessmen that he is not "anti-business."

He meets them in groups. He exchanges letters with David Rockefeller, president of Chase Manhattan Bank, New York, outlining his economic policy and philosophy. Or he invites the individual businessman to the White House, seats him on the long sofa in his office, and says, "I'd like to hear what you think I should do."

But the impact on the business community as a whole has not been notably deep. In many quarters, the belief persists that he is "anti-business."

Specific Reasons

In some cases, the motivation is visceral an instinctive feeling that Democratic presidents are unsympathetic to business. The more specific reasons that emerge in conversations with businessmen go like this—

1. "I don't have any confidence in him. He says one thing but does another."

2. "He never had to meet a payroll, so he doesn't know the value of the dollar."

3. "Kennedy may be all right, but I'm scared stiff by some of the wild-eyed theorists around him."

4. "I don't hold any brief for the way Roger Blough (chairman of the board of U.S. Steel) handled the price increase. But Kennedy's reaction was bound to frighten business."

5. "He played mighty rough with management in the steel case, but I don't believe he will play rough with labor."

6. "He says a budget deficit is just a 'myth.'" (a reference to the President's speech at Yale, last June 11.)

Other Side Speaks

And these are the answers of government officers—

1. Business had confidence in presidents Herbert Hoover and Dwight D. Eisenhower, but four recessions developed during their administrations. Business confidence is based, in fact, on the ability of the economy to invest, produce and consume.

2. Kennedy expresses concern over the outflow of gold and deficits in the balance of payments. He says the dollar will not be devaluated. And he recently gave business a tax break—long in the works — which was estimated at $1.5 billion, on depreciation of plant equipment. A Cabinet officer points out, "that break could have been given at any time in the past 10 years."

Point to Policy System

3. Policy advisors advise, but policy is made in the deliberations of many men who would not be described as "wild-eyed."

4. In the steel case, Kennedy considered the competitive position of American steel and the impact of steel prices on the prices of other commodities. He calculated that the increase would take $3 billion from the economy. He also felt a "question of good faith" was involved, since the United Steel Workers had accepted a contract that the administration considered non-inflationary.

5. A high-placed officer says, "I know of a lot of pressure on the unions." He points out that, in the steel case, the government began "exerting the public interest" by discussing the contract with the unions.

6. At Yale, Kennedy spoke of several "myths." He said one was that "federal deficits create inflation and budget surpluses prevent it." He noted that the post-World War II surpluses "did not prevent inflation and persistent deficits for the last several years have not upset our basic price stability."

The President also called for a "serious dialogue" in all sectors of the American society on these questions. It has not developed and he is disappointed today.

Tivoli Man Pleads Innocent to Charge

A 62-year-old Tivoli man pleaded innocent Tuesday before Village Police Justice William Pollard, Rhinebeck, to a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated, and the case was adjourned.

Troopers Richard Cobey and Robert Geschlecht, Rhinebeck, reported John Navins, of 21 North Road, Tivoli, posted a $50 bond pending a hearing. No date was set for further arraignment.

2 Possibilities Left as Unions Fight Job Cuts

CHICAGO (AP) — Two possible courses of action remained today for the five unions representing the 200,000 operating employes in their fight to prevent the nation's railroads from eliminating thousands of jobs.

They could appeal a federal judge's decision which ruled out court intervention in the dispute, or they could call a strike, sending the dispute to the White House.

The railroads have served notice that they will place into effect Aug. 16 drastic new work rules which would eliminate the jobs of 40,000 diesel firemen and grant no immediate pay increases for on-train workers.

The unions represent the engineers, trainmen, enginemen, conductors, brakemen and switchmen.

U.S. Dist. Judge Joseph Sam Perry informally dismissed Tuesday an injunction suit filed by the unions in an effort to prevent the job cutback.

Lester P. Schoene, attorney for the unions, said no decision was reached immediately on whether to appeal.

Threatened to Strike

Spokesmen for the unions had no immediate comment on their future plans. During negotiations the unions threatened to strike if the carriers put the job cutbacks into effect without union consent.

If a strike is called, President Kennedy could appoint, under the Railway Labor Act, an emergency board to review the dispute. Such action would postpone a strike for at least 60 days.

Judge Perry's dismissal of the unions' injunction petition was a tactical victory for the carriers, which sought to force the issue to a White House settlement.

The rails have sought to put into effect the recommendations of a presidential commission, which recommended an overhaul of the railroads' pay and hours system and recommends the railroads be given more power to introduce technological changes.

Commission Will Decide Sanity of Accused Killer

LOCK HAVEN, Pa. (AP) — A sanity commission has been named to determine whether Dennis M. Vogel, 21, is mentally competent to stand trial on charges he murdered two fellow employes of the W. T. Grant Store in Lock Haven.

Judge A. H. Lipez named the commission Tuesday. Vogel, of Mill Hall, meanwhile faced a formal hearing Thursday before Alderman Eugene E. Wolf.

He is accused of fatally shooting D. W. Atwood, 55-year-old manager of the Grant Store, and Mrs. Shirley Rechel, 27, assistant manager, then robbing the store safe of $1,000. Vogel was a clerk at the store.

Lipez said the three-member Sanity Commission will determine whether Vogel can distinguish right from wrong.

Marilyn Was Warm and Witty As She Talked at Interview

MARILYN MONROE

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)— Memories of Marilyn.

When I saw Marilyn Monroe for the last time, she had the figure of a starlet, but the unmistakable aura of a star.

It was two months ago on the set of "Something's Got to Give," and she gave one of her last interviews.

Actually it was more like a conversation with an old friend, for she was warm and witty. She was still glowing from her tumultuous reception at President Kennedy's birthday celebration in Madison Square Garden.

She looked great. Gone was the pot tummy that she had displayed in recent movies. She had dropped 15 pounds and I asked her how she did it.

"It helps to have a bad gall bladder," said Marilyn, who had hers removed a year ago. "The rest is low cholesterol: Avoid animal fats. Who needs them? Eskimos, maybe. Not us."

Enjoys Being Alive

She talked gaily of her forthcoming 36th birthday and said: "I like celebrating birthdays. I enjoy knowing that I'm alive."

She was doing a scene with two child actors who were playing her children in the film. Her concern for them was strangely touching. The boy was shivering after a swimming scene, and she wouldn't continue until an electric heater was installed to warm him.

Between scenes her conversation was punctuated with high laughter. Despite her exhilaration, there was an undertone of the trouble that lay ahead.

I mentioned that the studio was unhappy with her absence because she went to the President's birthday party, especially since she had been out of the picture many days with illness.

"I told the studio six weeks ago that I was going," she snapped. "I consider it an honor to appear before the President of the United States."

It was shortly afterward that relations with the studio erupted with her firing and the hurling of threats and lawsuits. Marilyn dropped into seclusion.

Everyone has his own memories of Marilyn Monroe. My own go back to her early days on the same lot, when she was a young and eager starlet. She seemed little different from the throng of starlets in the talent factories of that era, except perhaps that she gave a better interview.

And when you saw her on the screen for the first time—slithering on a couch as Louis Calhern's mistress in "Asphalt Jungle"—you knew that she had that quality that separates stars from starlets.

There were other places, other times, but there won't be any more. The Marilyn Monroe story is over.

It will long be debated whether she was an actress. No one will ever doubt that she was a star.

Too Much Purity

HARRISBURG (AP) — Inscribed above the fountain of justice at the Dauphin County Courthouse are the words:

"God gave the fountain of justice, men must preserve its purity."

Even so, county employes were somewhat alarmed recently when they found mountains of soap suds billowing from the water.

DON'T COUNT THEM OUT

"How you gonna keep 'em down on the farm?" once was a popular song theme when great hordes of the rural population went to the cities where working and living conditions were better and wages were higher.

These masses of people strained cities' facilities until they burst their confines. The trend to suburbia was on, a great surge which continues to send its eddies farther and farther away from the central city.

Municipal authorities awakened too late, in most instances, to the fact they were left holding an area of deteriorating homes, traffic congestion, heavily commercialized and industrialized sections largely inhabited by lower income groups forced by economics to stay put.

Recently, a new look at this problem was undertaken by two University of Michigan economists, who polled urban residents on their preferences for city or suburban living.

Results show that the force of the magnet of suburbia has not diminished; the pollsters conclude that before large cities can be rehabilitated, urban planners first must create an entirely new image of the central city as an attractive place to live.

Currently, it was found, 2 out of 5 (38 per cent) of residents of large cities want to live farther out in the country, while only 6 per cent would like to live closer to the city's center. Half prefer to stay where they are.

The reasons given by those seeking escape to the suburbs certainly should be grist for the mills of urban planners. Those polled named such conditions as building congestion, heavy traffic, deteriorating schools and noise.

The economists' report sheds light on the effort of industry and business to follow the flow of residents. It appears to result in enlarging the circle. "Urbanization of areas surrounding cities (shopping centers, outlying factories, fewer open places)," they say, "reinforces the drive to get farther into the country, away from urban environment."

The efforts to keep the downtown areas the drawing card they are now, as this trend continues, is a knotty problem. Those far-seeing communities which are now launched on programs designed to rehabilitate their cores and to make them interesting and comfortable places to live appear to be on the right track.

MAN WITH AN IDEA

Dr. Maynard A. Peck, Professor of Economics and Business at Sterling College, is a man with an idea. It involves a cooperative effort on the part of businessmen and teachers to foster a greater understanding of the American economic system.

Here's the way it would work: Dr. Peck would supplement the regular academic course of his students by calling in business leaders to lecture on the practical applications of the theories these students have been learning in the classroom.

In his opinion, "college students want to know more about the practice, as well as the theory, of economics as it functions on the American business scene." Theory is all very well and necessary, but it is vitally important that it be illustrated with examples and principles of action, to show what our system has done and is doing. Of top importance, Dr. Peck thinks the result would be to arm young people with facts to combat the fallacies of alien "isms".

A YEAR OF THE WALL

Aug. 13 will mark the first anniversary of one of the Reds' worst international blunders, the erection of the Berlin Wall. The anniversary is one that should be marked.

Shortly after midnight on the morning of Aug. 13, 1961, the Communist Warsaw Pact governments issued a declaration in East Berlin calling on the East German government to impose effective controls to halt the flight of refugees across the line to the west. Before dawn the government complied, closing the border and setting in motion the machinery for erection of a concrete block wall.

There followed a barrage of notes between the Eastern and Western powers, Moscow hurling its usual charges of spying. Before the month ended President Kennedy issued a solemn warning to the Russian government that it would be held responsible for whatever untoward events resulted from construction of the wall.

The uneasy truce has continued, but by now the Reds must realize the scope of their blunder. After the war they wanted a ruined Berlin as a sort of monument to remind the world of the evils of Nazism. Their part of the city really did become a ruin. But West Berlin, in sharp contrast, became an even greater city.

So East Berlin has become a monument, all right, but not a monument to the horrors of Nazism. What it emphasizes, rather, is not only the poverty inherent in communism but its dependence on imprisonment of its people to keep them at home

'These Days'

OUR MONEY

Unquestionably the most serious problem that faces the United States today is our money—yours and mine. The law says that the dollar must be backed by 25 per cent gold. If the European countries continue to demand gold for dollars, we shall have to take all gold protection away from the dollar or we shall be forced to refuse to give the Europeans gold for dollars. In either case, the value of the dollar will depreciate and we shall suffer a severe economic crisis.

There is no use arguing that gold is of no importance. The fact is that the world accepts gold as the yard-stick for measuring the value of currency. When some other yard-stick will become equally acceptable, then the other yard-stick will be significant.

When some of the Wall Street bankers suggest that we go off gold, they are asking for trouble. It is quite possible that Europe will drive us off the gold standard. The Europeans can do that if they insist on taking gold instead of dollars. It will not be the Communist who will bury us, but our former allies whom we assisted so beneficially after World War I and World War II.

The Europeans can do this by sending back the dollars we gave them or what they earned and demanding gold therefore. Their demands are growing so pressing that the supply is running short. Today, we pay $35 an ounce for gold; we shall probably have to pay $50 an ounce, in which case the dollar will be devalued. But devaluation is more sound than the elimination or even the reduction of our gold reserve.

When the United States or American bankers make new loans to foreign countries, no matter which countries, the indenture should contain a clause that they can only get gold for dollars at the price of gold at the moment that the loan is made. Interest and principle should be repaid at $35 an ounce. In a word, the Europeans must not be able to hold us up by demanding expensive gold for cheap dollars.

Our economic troubles started at the end of World War II when wisdom indicated that a ceiling should be put on prices, wages, dividends, rents, interest, everything until an adjustment could be made between the costly waste of war and the reconstruction of peace. Instead, two elements of the population, agriculture and labor, were selected for protection and special privileges. The soldiers, professional groups, middle class personnel, business enterprises, etc, were not equally protected.

Instead of meeting the economic problems head-on back in 1945 to 1948, as Bernard Baruch suggested, we issued short term obligations which are now a plague upon us. The problem was handled politically, not economically.

It is difficult to get a fair estimate, but we probably lost over $100,000,000,000 (billion) in our world-saving effort. We did not have the money to lose. We do not have it now. During the 1960 campaign John F. Kennedy made an issue of the economy. He found it stalemated and he demanded that it be got moving. Kennedy's diagnosis that the American economy was sick and stalemated was correct, but his problem was not growth as much as that we were over-produced and that we would have to have a good old-fashioned "fire-sale."

It is difficult to find a solution to the fiscal problem, except to confess to our mistakes and to recognize that our domestic situations cannot be solved until the Berlin question is solved so that the cost of impending war can be reduced. We cannot afford to continue to pay for the preparation for war and at the same time maintain the value of our currency and do all the things we would like to do.

This involves a very serious dilemma for President Kennedy. If any solution is found over Berlin by compromise, the President will be accused of being soft on Communism. In fact, it will be suggested that he favors a "no win" policy. If, on the other hand, he does not find a solution to the Berlin question, we shall go broke preparing for war.

Facts You Should Know On Appendicitis Condition

By HAROLD T. HYMAN, M.D.
Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Important facts you should know about appendicitis — compiled by surgeons at Massachusetts General Hospital:

Acute appendicitis develops in more than 200,000 Americans each year. It is accountable for over 2,000 deaths yearly.

When the inflammation is seen in its earliest phases, the death rate is less than one-tenth of 1 per cent. When it is seen a little later, after the inflamed appendix has burst, the death rate rises to 3.6 per cent. And, if the operation is still further delayed, for whatever reason, and an abscess forms around the inflamed and burst appendix the death rate exceeds 13 per cent.

Despite great advances in surgical treatment, including use of miracle drugs, the death rate in the last group of appendiceal abcess has not been significantly reduced. And, what is especially important to prospective patients, the record shows that persons with appendicitis are seen no earlier in their disease today than they were 23 years ago.

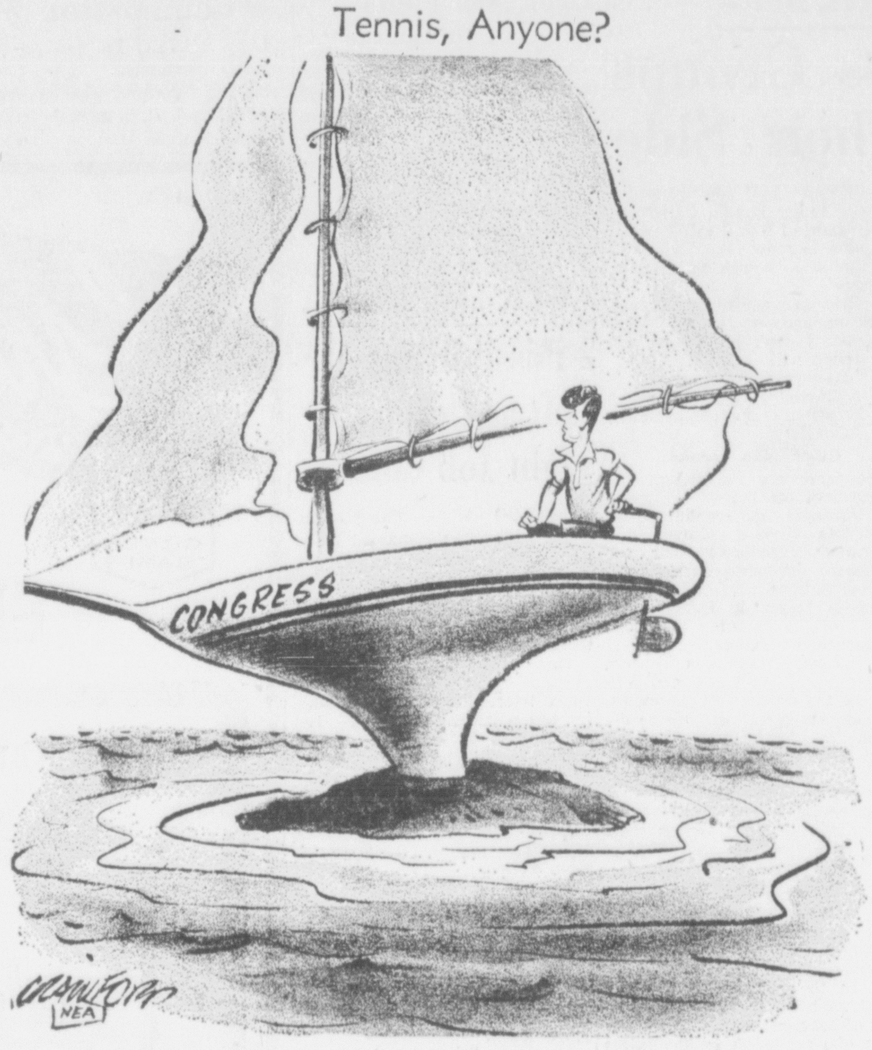
In their report, the surgeons tend to excuse referring physicians for this delay.

If their conclusion is correct, and if it is applicable to the country as a whole, then the cause for the continued mortality must rest with patients, especially the elderly, and with the parents of young patients who delay seeking medical consultation at a time when the inflamed appendix can be removed without risk.

For that reason, it may be wise to consider the early signs of acute appendicitis:

Pain in the right lower region of the abdomen that may, as a matter of experience, first begin in the pit of the stomach before it settles down below; fever, however slight, perhaps only a few tenths of a degree above normal; tenderness when the painful region is ever so gently poked.

If and when distress persists and is accompanied by fever and nausea or actual vomiting, the time for amateur observation has come to an end and the problem had best be turned over to the nearest physician.



Washington News

By PETER EDSON
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — In all the talk about businessmen's lack of confidence in the Kennedy administration, one of the principal criticisms has been that the President is getting the wrong advice from the wrong kind of people.

At first there was confidence in Treasury Secretary Donglas Dillon, a Republican right out of Wall Street. Lately there has been some uneasiness that he is being too flexible in supporting Kennedy programs.

WHEN DILLON TOOK OVER at Treasury he found that he had no economic staff. Former Secretary George M. Humphrey had abolished it. He didn't believe in economists. "They can't tell you where you're going," he used to say. "All they can do is tell you where you've been." And, "If anybody knew all the answers, he'd soon have all the money."

Anyway, Dillon took his problem of having no economists at Treasury to President Kennedy.

He suggested that Seymour Harris of Harvard, his old professor and adviser, be called in. This was done. Harris assembled a group of academic economic consultants—now numbering 37.

AMONG THE BETTER KNOWN NAMES on the list are Paul A. Samuelson of MIT, Roy Blough (no relation to Roger) of Columbia, James F. Dussenberry of Harvard, Dean G. L. Bach of Carnegie Tech, Daniel B. Suits of Michigan, Isidor Lubin of Rutgers, Walter S. Salant and Joseph A. Pechman of Brookings Institution. There are no private business economists.

Usually they work in small panels on specific problems. The full group has been called in only twice—in November 1961 before this year's budget was approved and last June 27. There was no publicity either time.

Last November the economists were all optimistic. The business outlook was rosy. The consensus was that the gross national product would top $570 billion this year. All indicators pointed to a big boom and high growth rate.

When about 30 members of the group met at Treasury June 27, they heard seven papers on the domestic economy and one on the international outlook. All were gloomy. Twenty of the 30 business indicators were down.

NO SPECIFIC RECOMMENDATIONS were made on what ought to be done about it. No votes were taken. Policy making was left to the politicians and administrators. But the consensus of the meeting was that there should be a tax cut. Cuts of from $6 billion to $10 billion were mentioned. The implication was that the cut should be made quickly.

One Treasury skeptic at the meeting is reported to have whispered to the man in the next chair, "If these economists were so wrong last November, why should we think they are so right now?"

The question was put to the panel out loud. The answer that came back was, in summary:

"Well, we didn't anticipate the stock market slump."

THIS HIGHLY REVEALING report recalls a column which the late, great Fred Othman wrote toward the end of the 1957 recession. He had sat all day in the old Supreme Court chamber in the Capitol, listening to one expert after another tell the Congressional Economic Committee that the business outlook was terrible and that Congress ought to do something about it, without specifying just what.

Fred came back to the office and wrote a piece which began, "The recession is all over." His logic was that any time you get economists to agree on something unanimously, they're all wrong. As it soon developed, Fred was right.

Anyone interested in checking out this Othman theory of economics might file this piece for six months or a year and see how things turn out.

If it develops that the administration advisers were all wrong, then business indeed would be justified in telling the President to hire some new advisers.

The Drive on U. S. Reds: What's Behind Obstacles?

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON—Is there a faction in the Democratic party today which consideres the fight against communism in the United States as just a lot of nonsense?

If there is a renewed tendency in that direction, it is quite possible that the Democratic party itself will be facing again the charge of being "soft on communism"' which led in part to its defeat in the 1952 Presidential and Congressional elections.

It seems strange that the 13-state conference of Western Democrats at Seattle should have given its time to listen to a speech by W. H. Ferry, vice-president of the Fund for the Republic, denouncing as ineffective "spy-swatting" the efforts of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in fighting communism.

Mr. Ferry apparently differs with Attorney General Robert Kennedy in appraising the significance of the activities of the Communists in this country. For the Attorney General has repeatedly said in public speeches that Communist subversives cannot be ignored.

Mr. Ferry said in one part of his speech:

"No one cares to have spies and saboteurs percolating through the republic, and if the FBI is not up to finding and prosecuting them, let us set up an agency that can."

Benefit of Law

Mr. Ferry talks as if all the FBI has to do to get rid of persons suspected of Communist activities is to arrest them, and that they will then of course, be convicted and put in jail without much difficulty. But the truth of the matter is that Communist agents are not only subtle and skillful in their methods, but they know American laws very well and they have the benefit of resourceful American lawyers who manage to keep them out of jail.

Also, the Supreme Court of the United States has been of no little assistance on many occasions which its rulings that Communism is just a kind of belief and that freedom of speech should protest those accured of furthering the Communist cause in public. It's a bit difficult to prosecute—and even for Congressional and State Legislative committees to investigate—when the arm of the law is thus weakened.

This means that the cooperation of the American people is most essential, and one of the most effective ways to combat communism is to educate the people concerning the insidious methods used to influence them through the press, the radio, the church, the school systems, the educational faculties and the labor unions. It is conceded that the number of Communists is small but that many innocent people have been duped and misled by the real Communist agents.

The problem nevertheless remains. It takes only one Klaus Fuchs to steal atomic secrets. The British government gave clearance to Fuchs when he came to the United States to work on the atomic bomb project, and this was accepted by the American government. Eventually, however, it was found that Fuchs conspired with others and gave information to the Communists that accelerated the time when the Soviet Union was capable of developing atomic weapons.

For the past two weeks newspapers have been publishing the story of Robert Soblen, who escaped from this country even though he was under $100,000 bail. He was a convicted spy sentenced to life imprisonment. But the FBI is powerless when a man is granted bail who never should have been given even temporary freedom. The FBI doesn"t control the courts.

Mr. Ferry has been quite a controversial figure and has for years taken an active part in belittling the Communist menace in this country. Not so long ago, he tried to combat the efforts of the New Hampshire legislative committee which investigated alleged Communist infiltration of educatioinal institutions.

Attack on Hoover

Mr. Ferry, in his address before the 13-state Democratic party conference, seemed to level his attack particularly at J. Edgar Hoover. This is not a new tactic. For many years now, many persons have been trying to damage the prestige of the head of the FBI, but have not succeeded. Mr. Ferry said:

"Then Mr. Hoover warns against Soviet espionage in the U. S. This is an old line of the FBI chief, and its success year after year is a tribute to the trance into which sermons throw Americans, not excepting Congressmen. Mr. Hoover is, after all, our official spy-swatter. In these persistent reports about espionage and sabotage, is he delicately telling us that he isn't up to the job, that Red spies are running loose despite his best efforts? If, in fact, we are infested with these rascals, as Mr. Hoover intimates, it might occur to many peoples that the country needs a more efficient spy-swatter."

Not content with his blows at the FBI and its efforts to ferret out Communists subversives, Mr. Ferry aimed a few swipes at American business and industry. He took issue with those who have suggested that President Kennedy now is trying to "woo" American business. Mr. Ferry said:

"Industry should not be wooed, but watched and tolerated and reined in when it gets out of line . . . They (the corporations) are not there to be loved but to be used."

Mr. Ferry, as vice president of the Fund for the Republic has a lot to say nowadays about how the money accumulated by the late Henry Ford should be spent. Mr. Ford was probably the best example of how one man can build up an individual enterprise that this country has ever seen. He might never have made the success he did if American business had been regulated to the extent that it is today. It's strange how often the funds bequeathed by men who are pilloried as "big business" are used by so-called "liberals" to create antagonisms against business as an institution.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

TUCSON, Aug. 7—James Allison, the editor of the Midland, Tex., Reporter-Telegram, and president of the Chamber of Commerce, offers a wistful interpretation of the collapse of the market for family dwellings in the financial and technical capital of the West Texas petroleum empire.

My own superficial observation had been that the economy was out of joint because the Big Fellows of international oil were restricting West Texas production to eight days a month as a favor to their overseas possessions. Mr. Allison ignores this factor to insist that loan policies of the Federal Housing Administration are the cause of the slump which only two weeks ago had thrown about 700 Midland dwellings onto the market and moved the FHA director of 73 Texas counties to shut off "acceptances" of new subdivisions.

Meanwhile, back at the ranch at San Angelo, in the sheep and goat country, the Standard-Times tumbled to a similar situation. The Standard-Times ran a loud piece by Dave Anderson headed "Repossessed Homes Glut West Texas Market — Little Down, Long Terms One Cause for Troubles." There was a five-column photograph of Jefferson Heights, a local phenomenon which materialized in the last few years, now known by the familiar and depressing name of a "repo area". The cut-lines said:

"This is Jefferson Heights, San Angelo's last big speculative building development where more than 100 houses now stand empty. They were repossessed by FHA and Veterans Administration when buyers walked away without completing payments. One street alone has 30 repos. On July 3, the FHA had for sale in this area 108 repossessed houses, slightly more than half of the total of 191 the FHA had for sale on that date. Other areas with high repo concentrations are College Hills, Western Hills and Glenmore."

Anderson's story said the government had 47,000 such homes on its hands across the nation, and further as follows: "The large surplus of empty homes hurts real estate business and in some places depresses values. The FHA and VA have slapped freezes on many communities, including San Angelo. Builders can't let loan commitments from the FHA or VA unless they have a buyer before they build the house. Some local sources say home construction is off 50 per cent.

"Mrs. Shell Barth, local real estate board president, blames the high foreclosure rate on the fact that FHA and VA home owners often have hardly anything invested in their homes, often after living in them several years. The minimum down payment is three per cent, but local sources admit that builders have sometimes found ways of eliminating even this requirement. Loans have been increased from 20 to 35 years" and few of the houses seem to have the stamina for more than 15 years of wear and tear with successive broods of children.

There are many such in Tucson which three years ago were enchanting, especially by contrast in my own eyes with the cheese-paring squalor of Khrushchev's luxurious little cells in the new 12-story hives in Modern Moscow. They had two bathrooms, three bedrooms and, many of them, teevy room with a hot-dog and coke bar giving onto the kitchen. But many of them looked like hell in a few months and the lowdown, shiftless quality of the pesters was in part responsible. Having nothing at stake and no pride in their credit, floaters of the type called Oakies and Arkies in "Grapes of Wrath" proved that they were no better in pretty homes than they had been in their box-wood California shacktowns in the Great Depression. The prices of the repos have been in the range between $12,500 and $14,500. In California today signs along the freeways offer homes with no down payment.

Notwithstanding Mr. Allison's contention that the Government's idiotic loan policies are the only local economic sore spot, the fact persists that oil and gas are now down-at-the-heel industries which, with less restriction, might be blow-hards as of yore. Moreover, the loud-mouth economy which formerly shot craps with sheaves of $100 bills last year adopted a penny-ante sales tax to make up for revenues foregone by self-denial of taxes on oil and gas waiting to be sold.

Odessa, 20 miles from Midland, is a major and growing industrial center of the petrochemical trade. But when Paul Kayser, the president of El Paso Natural Gas, recently hove up at a big speaking party of corporation executives he dealt in gaudy generalities and shunned the fact that his own stock has fallen from 32 to 19-plus in a few years. There was no lack of markets or reserves, but the Federal Power Commission had clamped down limits on prices at the wells. He even had to lay off exploration experts because there is little incentive to find new reserves.

Paltz Families Hold Reunion on Coast August 4th

Local historian, Kenneth Hasbrouck, who is on tour of the west, has written to say that Aug. 4, members of descendants of New Paltz families held a reunion at the Claremont Hotel, Berkely, Calif., in keeping with Stone House Day on the old street in New Paltz.

This reunion is in answer to a promise made a few years ago to the west coast members of the Hasbrouck Family Association and Huguenot Historical Society. The people here had requested that a meeting be held as it was impossible to come East.

The newspapers in the Bay area such as the San Francisco Chronicle, Oakland Tribune and local papers gave the reunion and the story of New Paltz good coverage. From the response to the newspaper articles, it would appear that the New Paltz group could very well organize branches in other parts of the country.

August 15 there will be a reunion of Freers at Warren, Ohio. This group will also take their place as a branch of the New Paltz organization. Mrs. Griswold Hulburt, editor of the Warren Chronicle, is to head the group in Ohio, aided by James Faunce.

Mr. Hasbrouck goes on to say "throughout our journey West, it was most interesting to find that the families that originally came from New Paltz are still vitally interested in what we have been doing to preserve the old houses on Huguenot Street. They want to know more about the town and its people. Many of them want to visit the community."

Playground Plans Include Dog Show

Aug. 9 is the scheduled date for the fifth anual Ken-L-Ration Kids Dog Show as a part of the New Paltz Recreation Program. This event will be held on the Central School playground at 1:30 p. m.

All materials for the show are provided as a public service by the Ken-L-Ration Company. First, second and third place in each classification will receive a loving cup, T-shirt, dog leash and can of dog food. Best of show will be awarded a wrist watch.

Entries wil be made for the classifications of best costumed dog; dog with the longest tail; dog with shortest tail; largest dog; smallest dog; best trick dog; best cared-for dog.

The first place winner in each of these classifications is eligible for show, and also eligible to enter the county finals at Forsyth Park, Kingston, Aug. 15 at 2 p. m., during the Ulster County Fair. Best of show owner at the county finals will receive a bicycle.

Other events drawing the recreation program to a close will include another teen dance and a trip to the Polo Grounds.

The first teen dance, which was held recently was such a success that a second one has been scheduled for Thursday from 7-11 p. m. on the Central school parking lot. Music will again be provided by the Tornadoes.

For the trip to the Polo Grounds to take place on Wednesday, Aug. 15, those wishing to go must sign up this week between the hours of 9-12 a. m. at the central school playground. Anyone between the ages of 9-16 may go. Adults interested in accompanying the group on this trip should contact Marlene Winnie.

Fair and Supper Set on Saturday

Saturday the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service will hold its annual fair and supper at the Methodist Church, Main Street.

At 3 p. m. the fair will open on the church grounds and the supper will start 5 p. m. and continue until all are served. Tickets are available at several stores in town and through Mrs. Alvin Beatty, Mrs. Kenneth Baumgartner, members of the WSCS and at the door.

Those wishing to donate articles may leave items at the church in labeled boxes or contact Mrs. Baumgartner if items are to be picked up.

The Men's Club of the New Paltz Methodist Church will hold its annual auction on the church grounds Saturday, Sept. 15. Items are still being requested. If items are to be picked up arrangements can be made by contacting Myron Ronk, while the Rev. Willett Porter and his family are on vacation.

It has been announced that Joseph Vaccaro of the Springtown Road has purchased the DeZort Market at 80 Vineyard Avenue, Highland. He will operate it along the same lines established by William DeZort, 17 years ago.

Mr. Vaccaro has had 22 years experience in the meat business as meat manager, most of them spent with one of the leading chains, working in Saugerties, Poughkeepsie, Highland and New Paltz. He served in Highland from 1949 to 1956.

Area Activities

The annual picnic of the New Paltz Democratic Club will take place Sept. 9 at the New Paltz Rod and Gun Club grounds. The menu will be a charcoal broiled beef dinner. Activities for all will follow the meal.

Donna and Gail Langwick have as their guest for a two week vacation, their cousin, Diedra Jensen of Farmingdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil DePuy were Saturday night dinner guests of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dolcemascolo of Clintondale, to celebrate both their daughter and son-in-law's birthdays.

Ivan Ferguson recently scored a hole-in-one on the fifth hole "Pitch Down" while golfing at the Lake Mohonk golf course.

The next regular meeting of the New Paltz Rod and Gun Club will be held at the Club House Wednesday, Aug. 8. President Robert DuBois is hoping for a large turnout to discuss the field day which is to be held on Sept. 15 and the barbecue to be held Oct. 7.

Girl Scouts from Troop 58 danced as a group Saturday, Aug. 4 at Stone House Day. They performed two folk dances in Dutch costume under the leadership of Mrs. Bernard Bartz who was assisted by Mrs. Morgan Coutant and Irene Bartz. Those taking part were Jane Clarkson, Barbara Bartz, Margaret Corey, Mary Beth Coutant, Cynthia George, Carol Huber, Joan McCord, Suzanne Maurer, Mary Ann Pratt, Evelyn Schneider, Marion Tozzi, Lorna Rode, Ann Tenagelia and June Phillips.

The New Paltz Methodist Men's Club has planned a trip to New York for Aug. 25 for the New York Mets-Los Angeles Dodgers baseball game. For reservations, Wilbur Fredenburgh, ticket chairman, may be contacted.

Dental Clinic to Be Held at West Hurley

Dr. E. Franklin Hall, commissioner of Health of Ulster County, announces a series of dental clinics for pre-school children, ages four and five, which will be conducted at the West Hurley Firehouse on Monday, August 13.

Children participating in these clinics will have their teeth inspected, cleaned and will have an opportunity to participate in the program of decay prevention.

The children will be able to see dental equipment and have a chance to learn and understand the importance of dental health. In this way, they will become interested and look forward to future visits to the dentist.

Appointments for those interested may be made by calling the Ulster County Health Dept.

Highland State Police To Have New Station

State police at Highland will move into new and larger quarters in a six-room ranch type barracks about three-quarters of a mile north on Route 9W from the present station on September 1.

The structure is being built by Walter Seaman of Esopus who will lease the building to the state.

The new station will be on the east side of Route 9W and will have a larger parking area.

In Basic Training

Alo Saluste, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Saluste of 130 Cedar Street, Kingston was recently assigned to Company R of the 4th Training Regiment for eight weeks basic training at Fort Dix, N. J. He graduated from Kingston High School and the University of Rochester.

Poultry Exhibits To Be Feature at Fair Aug. 15-16

Poultry exhibits will be one of the many features to be seen at the Ulster County Fair Aug. 15 and 16. It is expected that some 50-75 poultry exhibits will be entered at the fair. All exhibits will be in place on Wednesday morning at Forsyth Park.

The poultry exhibits beside chickens will include some geese, ducks, turkeys, bantams, pigeons and perhaps some guinea pigs. There will also be some exhibits of eggs.

The 4-H members who exhibit poultry own and raise their own birds. They also keep poultry records as part of their 4-H poultry project.

The birds will all be judged using the Danish system. In this system all entries in each class are judged against a standard of excellence for that class. This method stresses the educational values of county fair exhibiting rather than the competitive aspect. Judging the poultry classes will be Leonard Gunsch of Newburgh.

Members of 4-H will also have an opportunity to "judge" poultry at the fair. A poultry judging contest will be held at noon Wednesday for all 4-H members enrolled in the poultry projects. The contest consists of judging two classes of poultry, one class of cull or keep and a class each in grading exterior quality and interior quality of eggs.

The members receive instruction in judging at their local club meetings and also at special training schools held in the summer. From the contest high scoring individuals, who meet state exposition requirements, will be selected to represent Ulster County at the New York State Exposition in Syracuse, Aug. 28-Sept. 3.

Do You Remember by Sophie Miller

Robert E. Haines of 48 Roosevelt Avenue, Kingston, who had sent me some excellent material on the Clinton family just sent me some more items. One bit of information is interesting at this time, for he writes, that it was on July 30, that Clinton was inaugurated as governor of New York State, here in Kingston, which makes it 185 years ago this summer.

Mr. Haines was interested in the item on Hewitt Boice and bluestone mentioned the other day in the column. Hewitt Boice "was first cousin" to his maternal great-grandfather, Horace Boice. He writes, that he has a wonderful daguerreotype of Hewitt Boice and Horace Boice, given to him by Horace Boice's daughter, Mrs. Harry Hulsair of Sawkill.

Mr. Haines refers to A. T. Clearwater's History of Ulster County coverage of Hewitt Boice. H. Boice was a grandson of Peter Boice and Samuel Davis, life long Olive town residents. Hewitt Boice was born in Boiceville, Ulster County in 1846, and early in life became interested in bluestone. In connection with his father and brother, Peter, he also carried on a tannery, lumber and bluestone business in Samsonville, Ulster County, under the name of William V. N. Boice and Sons, which continued until 1875, in which year he started in the bluestone business at Brodheads Bridge. Two years later he bought property on East Strand, in Rondout, where his bluestone business became the largest of its kind in the country, running into some half a million dollars worth annually.

Now perhaps folks from various parts of town will believe that some of the real big money was made downtown in Rondout, and I guess some of the largest and finest bluestone came through Hewitt Boice's place. Mr. Boice also owned five barges and a 350-ton schooner. He also owned a stone yard and mills at Higginsville and quarries at different points along the Ulster and Delaware Railroad. In 1901 he sold his large business enterprise to the Hudson River Blue Stone Co. at, it is said, a very large figure.

Mr. Haines then refers to Nelson Greene in his five volume set History of the Valley of the Hudson, River of Destiny, Vol. III, p. 188-191, S. J. Clarke, Pub. Co. Chicago, 1931). In this book, Hewitt Boice was known as the "Blue Stone King." It was said, "Boice was regular in his habits and quick and decisive in action, and was able to perform duties as varied in character as they were successful in results." This book also tells about Boice coming to Rondout in 1877, buying a frontage of 300 feet on East Strand and the beginning of his bluestone business, which under his guidance achieved large proportions.

This book tells about Mr. Boice selling his plant to the late Samuel D. Coykendall of Kingston but retaining other important business interests. For many years Boice was president of the Kingston Iron and Ore Co., also controlled the Lake Superior Copper and Zinc Co. He had interests in the L. B. Van Wagenen Co. Elmhurst Southern Realty Co. He was director of the U. S. Gypsum Co. of Chicago, Ill., for some 10 years and a member of the Board of the First National Bank of Rondout for 20 years. I just wonder what advice he could give the people of Kingston and Rondout for today's trials and tribulation.

The regular meeting of the Plattekill Town Board will be held Wednesday, Aug. 8, at 8 p. m. at the Town Hall, Ardonia.

WSCS Activities

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Modena Methodist Church met Thursday at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Eldred Smith, Ardonia.

The meeting was previously planned to be held at Mrs. Joseph Simmons' home in Ireland Corners, but was changed owing to a death in Mrs. Simmons' family.

Attending Thursday's meeting were Mrs. Charles Cooper of Washingtonville, Mrs. Earl B. DeWitt Sr., of New Hurley, Mrs. Anna Tonnesen of New Paltz, Mrs. LeRoy Gruman of Clintondale, Mrs. Ira Hyatt of Ardonia, Mrs. Augustus Coleman of Savilton, Mrs. John Smith, Mrs. Joseph E. Hasbrouck, Mrs. Fred Bernard, Mrs. William Decker, Miss Emma Behm, Mrs. Lester I. Arnold, and Mrs. William H. Boyle, of Modena.

A report was given by the committee conducting the annual Methodist Church fair, held at the Hasbrouck Memorial Hall during July of the sum of $114.55, from the sale of articles and food.

The next meeting Thursday, Sept. 6, at 2 p. m. will be held at the home of Mrs. Simmons in Ireland Corners.

Firemen Meet

The Modena Fire Department met Thursday, 8 p. m. at the firehouse.

Reports were given by chairmen of various committees, and of activities of the past month

The annual fair, held recently on the firehouse property was reported as successfull and appreciation, was extended for cooperation of all.

Kenneth Dimsey was appointed chairman of the publicity committee. A total of 18 local firemen participated in the parade of the Ulster County Volunteer Firemen, held at Port Ewen recently, in connection with the 27th annual convention and banquet.

Fourteen local firemen assisted in the child search at Napanoch.

A Mutual Aid set up is being planned, with extensixe drills in order to aid New Paltz, in case of necessity.

Expert North Safe on Error

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Here is a hand where a couple of experts really managed to go wrong. The scene was the Asbury Park sectional and they were playing together for the first time so there were some extenuating circumstances.

Expert West chose to pass South's opening heart bid and wait developments. After North responded one no-trump, South passed and West decided action was indicated so he bid two spades. North tried three clubs and when that was passed around to West he chose to double. It was one of those duplicate doubles designed to produce a plus score of 200 points, but it did not work out that way.

East opened the queen of spades. Dummy's king lost to West's ace and now West underled the ace of diamonds to put his partner in for a heart lead. East missed that cue and led a second spade, whereupon North made the rest of the tricks. Of course, it made little difference. Three clubs doubled, making either four or five was a top score for North and South.

Incidentally, if East does bid diamonds he can make five by means of a spade-heart squeeze and end play against South. The play is not too simple but you can work it out if you remember to ruff a club and run out trumps.

Second Death Occurs From Thruway Crash

SCHENECTADY, N.Y. (AP)—A head-on collision between an automobile and a pickup truck on the State Thurway near here has taken a second life.

Lloyd Dick, 49, of Mansfield, La., died at a Schenectady hospital Tuesday night of injuries suffered in the crash earlier in the day.

Mrs. Caroline Avignone of Bayside, Queens, was dead at the scene of the accident.

State Police said her car crossed the dividing strip from the Eastbound to the westbound lane of the highway and into the path of the truck.

Two men riding with Dick in the truck were reported in serious condition at Ellis Hospital here.

First railroad tracks in Missouri were laid in 1851.

Glancing Over TV Bill of Fare

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Psychiatry is the next candidate for television's glamor treatment of medicine.

One of NBC's important fall entries is "The 11th Hour," about the cases of a widowed forensic psychiatrist and a handsome clinical psychologist.

"The 11th Hour" started as one program in the "Kildare" series, but the program was never aired. Now it has been re-shot to kick off the new series this fall. Like its parent show, meticulous attention is given to authenticity and small, important detail.

There is a consulting psychiatrist on the set for advice on scenes and to guide stars Wendell Corey and Jack Ging in portraying professional men.

NBC, of course, just hopes it has a popular new show on its schedule.

"But one of our goals," says Dr. Harold W. Arlen, the Los Angeles psychiatrist who is the show's chief consultant, "is to present psychiatry as a medical science rather than something mysterious and bizarre, and to show psychiatrists and psychologists as human beings rather than gods or magicians."

Dr. Arlen and the committee drew up a list of books on psychiatry for the script writers to read for background. Dr. Arlen coached the stars on proper behavior: Never touch the patient other than shaking hands, learn areas of restraint—when to be gentle or harsh, when to lead in questioning and when to follow, and, most important, how to look objective and compassionate at the same time.

"A delicate balance," says the doctor.

Catskill Village Board President Dies in Sleep

President of the Village Board, long-time trustee, businessman, Lions Club president and a well-known and devoted native of Catskill was found this morning dead in the bed where he slept Tuesday night.

Raymond Rothrock, 52, could not be awakened from his sleep this morning. It was then that his wife discovered that he had died some time during the night.

Mrs. Rothrock said that her husband had complained of indigestion prior to going to bed Tuesday night and that he appeared to be asleep when she last noticed.

Henry Millspaugh, Greene County coroner, said that Mr. Rothrock had apparently died of a heart attack.

He was the owner of Ray's Appliance.

Funeral arrangements were still incomplete today as The Freeman went to press. Surviving, besides his wife, are a son and daughter.

Driver Is Found Innocent Tuesday Of Drunk Charge

A city court jury returned a verdict of innocent Tuesday afternoon after trial of George J. Strbich, 40, of Plainfield Street, on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

The arrest, police said, dated back to June 8, 1961. The jury was out about a half hour before returning the verdict. The trial began Tuesday morning before Judge Joseph D. Saccoman. Attorney Frank Martocci appeared for Strbich, and Ward W. Ingalsbe Jr., for the district attorney's office.

Robert Harrell, 29, of 53 Van Buren Street, charged with disorderly conduct, paid a fine of $25. The charge was lodged by Officer Richard Scherer, who claimed that Harrell was abusive and disorderly as Scherer investigated a recent accident at Hasbrouck Avenue and East Chester Street.

Robert William VanHouton, of Newburgh, charged with speeding, was fined $15, and Judy Surico, of Poughkeepsie, booked on a stop-sign charge, paid $10.

Troopers Check Vols Carnivals For Gambling

State troopers have checked firemen's carnivals and bazaars in Dutchess, Orange and Putnam Counties and reported no evidence of the use of gambling devices, according to State Police Captain George L. Infante, Troop K comamnder.

Recently troopers from Troop C in Ulster County and Troop G in Columbia County closed down some booth's at firemen's events because they had games of chance. At Clintondale, four volunteer firemen were recently arrested on charges of keeping a place for gambling, but the charges later were dismissed after the men pleaded innocent.

Po'keepsie Council Approves Bond Issue

Initial steps towards financing the purchase of an aerial snorkel type hook and ladder and a pumper for O. H. Booth Hose Co., Poughkeepsie, have been taken by that city's Common Council.

The Council authorized the finance committee to obtain a bond issue from Sykes, Galloway and Dykeman, New York City attorneys.

City Manager Kenneth Pearce noted the existing 25-year-old pumper would be retained as a reserve fire truck. The estimated cost of the two pieces of apparatus is about $85,000, according to Fire Chief Irving Merrick.

Portugal Has Surplus

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — Finance Minister Pinto Barbosa reports the Portuguese government ended 1961 with its 33rd consecutive budget surplus. He said this year's surplus is $40,810.

Council Recesses

met to discuss salaries and other department problems. Police and fire departments also have uniform allowances to be discussed.

Hastings, in requesting the second letter to the police board emphasized that its members should be asked to extend to the council the same courtesy given it by the fire board.

Some time was spent to determine if Minority Leader Carroll was proceeding with questions pertaining to the subject of the resolution. He was allowed to proceed but attempts continued to declare him out of order.

Commended Later

Machione, at one point during random comment, asked "Who is out of order?" and Council President Kaye replied, "You are." Machione, who felt that the council should act through a committee, later commended Kaye for the manner in which he has conducted council sessions.

Sass indicated that he failed to understand why there was so much objection to the proposal that the aldermen meet with the police board when none followed the suggestion that one be held with the fire board.

Carroll said the city's entire "financial picture," must be considered in dealing with salaries. Hastings noted that Carroll in his letter published July 27 had proposed a long-range study dealing with the fire and police department salary problems. He felt aldermen should be included in the study proposal because they will be called upon for final action.

Carrolll had written that he had proposed three years ago small increases on an annual basis and in effect charged the Democrats with not following through. Sass in a letter of reply, noted that Mayor Edwin F. Radel had made provision for annual raises which were achieved in his administration.

Slover Wants Action

Alderman Robert P. Slover (R) Fourth Ward, in voting for the Hastings resolution, said the problem 'would eventually have to be ironed out" and he saw no reason why the aldermen should not be involved from the start. Machione thanked Kaye for indicating that he would also name a committee to deal with salary problems.

Carroll noted that the police board has indicated it has no desire to meet with the entire council, and he noted that the proposal will be one to be dealt with ultimately by the council's finance committee. Hastings emphasized that sums in the 1963 budget cannot be arrived at immediately ,and he held that "now is the time to look ahead."

Adams felt that the council is going to be in a position either to "rubber stamp" any proposal made by the police board, or it is "going to have to find out" how they arrived at whatever solution they decide upon.

Asks Same Consideration

McCardle, in his bid for pay boosts for public works employes, noted that while salaries for members of police and fire department personnel has reached $5,000 a year, it still ranges from $3,250 to $4,200 for public works men. It was learned from another source that the department's foremen get $18 a day, a truck driver $15.56 and a laborer $13.42 a day.

McCardle said he wished the aldermen "were battling for us as they have been for the police and fire departments." He asked for the same consideration in the discussion of salaries. In a recently published letter, emphasized that public works employes are called out for storm and other emergencies, and held that without such services a city cannot function. The last pay raise, he said, was in January, 1960 and was for $100 a person for laborers and drivers.

Letter From Mayor

Mayor John J. Schwenk, in a letter to the council, asked for the recess so that legislation pertinent to the viaduct project and uptown urban renewal may be considered before the end of the month.

The mayor said he had been informed by the state public works department that "they have speeded up their timetable for letting of bids for the Washington Avenue viaduct elimination project, and are prepared to move ahead upon passage of four enabling resolutions" to be acted upon by the council.

They deal with approval of design, plans, specifications, cost estimates, and reconstruction or improvement of the arterial route system; with maintenance of sidewalks and sewers, with legislation against encroachment on the right-a-way, and a measure dealing with the city's share of land acquisition costs "over a period of 10 years without interest, or in one lump sum."

Still Awaiting Information

The mayor said the city still awats information from the state public works department dealing with "the relationship of this project, and the uptown urban renewal project," and said he would "appreciate it, if this matter could be held under consideration by your Honorable Body until later this month." He said he had requested Kaye to recess at call of the chair to act on the HHFA contract for uptown urban renewal, and he hoped that the "viaduct elimination project could be resolved at the same time."

Council President Kaye, after the reading of a letter from John H. Matthews, plumbing board president, asking for a meeting, named Majority Leader Carroll and Alderman Hastings as a committee from the council to meet with members of the plumbing board, the Kingston Licensed Master Plumbers and the Heating Contractors Association.

The purpose of the meeting, the letter said, is to discuss the office of plumbing inspector.

The list of city polling places as submitted to the council were the same as those in 1961, district by district, except for the first district of the Second Ward where the polling place is to be re-established in School No. 6. It will be moved from a Tremper Avenue garage to a new section of the school.

Legislation dealing with the agreement between the city and local hospitals for the collection of laboratory charges, extends the agreement to Jan. 1, 1963. The hospitals act as agents for collection of the fees.

Commissioners of deeds named in August of 1960 were authorized to continue. Their function is similar to that of a notary public. Police department members and several departmental clerks have been renamed to serve as commissioners.

Two Zoning Petitions

Two petitions for zoning changes were referred to the laws and rules committee. The one was from Thomas J. and James J. DeCicco, for 11 High Street, a bar and restaurant, which is to be enlarged. It was noted that records indicate that the building has been designated as being in a residential district, and the change was requested. The other filed through Attorney Howard C. St. John was for 14 Henry Street, the former New York Telephone Company building, which had also been used to house the YWCA for several years. It is now owned by the Junior Order of United American Mechanics. The purpose for which it is to be used was not reported.

A claim for $3,000 for injuries suffered in a sidewalk fall on Wall Street last May 22, was referred to Corporation Counsel Harry Gold. It was filed by Rusk, Rusk and Feeney for Gehevieve and Henry Fallerman, RD 31, Box 77, Tillson, to collect $2,500 for the former for chest, ankle, wrist and other injuries, and $500 for the latter for loss of services and payment of bills.

Claim Settled

Settlement of another claim was approved. It had been filed by Arthur Buck and Clara H. Buck (now deceased) and a lawsuit of $55,000 was pending in court. The corporation counsel informed the aldermen that Richter and Werbalowsky, counsel for the claimants, had indicated that the claim could be settled for $300. The claim was for injuries suffered in a fall on Crane Street.

A letter from Mayor Schwenk noting the appointment of Albert M. Appa, of 33 Third Avenue, as head janitor at the Municipal Auditorium, was read and filed. The appointment is for a probationary period of 90 days.

Rochester Official Dies

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—City employment director Louis J. Natale, 36, died unexpectedly today. Relatives said he had suffered a heart attack.

Natale was one of three city officials indicted last week by Monroe County grand jury on charges in connection with alleged payroll fraud in department of public works. He had pleaded innocent and was at liberty in $2,500 bail.

County Woman Arrested for Sale of Dope

State police have arrested a 10th person in connection with an investigation of an alleged narcotics ring operating in Ulster and Sullivan County resort areas.

Troopers said Josephine Johnson, no age given, of 109 Canal Street, Elienvihlle was arrested Tuesday night by Investigator Charles Teelon on a charge of sale of narcotics.

Seven men and two women were arrested on various charges pertaining to the sale and possession of narcotics and policy slips early Tuesday. The raids were carried out by state police under the direction of Lt. Edgar Croswell in cooperation with local police departments and the Sullivan County Sheriff's Office.

Joseph F. Smith Dies at 92; Was Oldest Plumber

Joseph F. Smith, 92, one of Kingston's oldest and most highly respected residents, died in this city Tuesday evening following a long illness.

Born in Kingston he was a son of the late Joseph F. and Cecelia Mellert Smith. Mr. Smith had lived in Kingston all of his life. Until his retirement about 30 years ago he was engaged in the plumbing business. He was the oldest living master plumber in the city.

Mr. Smith was a lifelong devout member of St. Peter's Church where he was the oldest living male member. He was also the oldest member of St. Peter's Holy Name Society.

Until several years ago he had been active in local firemanic circles and was a member of the Weiner Hose Company.

He was married to the former Caroline Motrie. They celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary June 2 of this year.

In addition to his wife he is survived by a daughter, Miss Cecelia M. Smith at home and a son, Louis J. Smith of Kingston.

Funeral will be held from the Jenson and Deegan Funeral Home, 15 Downs Street, Friday 9 a. m. thence to St. Peter's Church where at 9:30 a. m. a high Mass of requiem will be offered for the repose of his soul. Burial will be in St. Peter's Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home tonight 7 to 9 and Thursday 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.

Rusk Talks With Russian About New Ban Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk called in Soviet Ambassador Anatoly F. Bobrynin today to put new pressure behind U.S. efforts to reach agreement on a pact to outlaw atomic testing.

Rusk and Dobrynin huddled for an hour and a quarter in Rusk's State Department office while the U.S. foreign affairs chief explained the new U.S. test ban proposals, aides said.

Rusk's meeting with the Soviet envoy, his first since returning from Geneva last month, was described as another effort to get across to the Russians what the United States considers an important proposal.

Parallel efforts are being made by the U.S. disarmament ambassador at Geneva, Arthur Dean, but the Soviet delegates there have informally turned thumbs down.

Wenzel Critical,

mishap, said that a car driven by Donald Gunzelmann, 19, of 18 Elmendorf Street, struck the boy "who appeared to run across the street into the path of the car." The boy carried an umbrella, the report said.

Gunzelmann was treated at Kingston Hospital for shock.

Edward Forte, 6, of 14 Deyo Street, police said, suffered injuries of the right thigh and head in the mishap at Foxhall and Flatbush avenues, and was taken to the Benedictine Hospital for treatment and X-rays. Alderman William G. Davis, 52, of 1 Fitch Street, 13th Ward, was listed as driver to the car. Police said the car had stopped for a light and the boy ran between parked cars into a fender.

Truck Spins Around

Virgil Finger, 42, of 20 Elm Street, Saugerties, driver of a Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp. truck, suffered a head injury, and Michael McGowan, 64, of 220 East Union Street, was reported slightly injured in an accident at 4:20 p. m. on Abeel Street near Wilbur Avenue. McGowan was in the truck.

Officer George Deyo, who investigated, said Finger reported trying to stop for a small caution sign, and when he applied the brakes, the truck spun around into a car owned and driven by James V. Johnson, 54, of 12 South Clinton Avenue.

Conservatives Say Javits Makes Up Birch Story Link

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — The state chairman of the Conservative Party charges Republican Sen. Jacob K. Javits with "conjuring up a John Birch Society bogey-man" as a basis for attacks on the recently formed party.

J. Daniel Mahoney, the chairman, said in a speech here Tuesday night that his party "refuses to conduct a witch hunt to expel John Birch Society members from its ranks."

Because of this, Mahoney said, "Sen. Javits has seen fit to ascribe to the party a set of views...to which no spokesman for the Conservative Party has ever given utterance."

Mahoney charged that Javits was deliberately using the ultra-conservative John Birch Society "to avoid an honest and intelligent discussion of the issues...."

David H. Jacquith the party's candidate for governor who also spoke, said the John Birch Society "is not the real issue, and it will be obvious that the Conservative Party is wholly independent."

Mahoney and Jacquith addressed a meeting of the party's Central New York county chairman.

Mt. Marion

MT. MARION—The Rev. and Mrs. Henry Reinewald are on vacation for the month of August. The Rev. Robert Grupe of Stone Ridge will supply the pulpit for August.

Mrs. Leroy Relyea of Ridgefield Park, N. J., is visiting at the home of Mrs. Fred Osterhoudt and Miss Sara Osterhoudt.

Capt. and Mrs. Maurice Hunter and children, Jean and Christine have returned home from his tour of duty in Hawaii. After a month's furlough Capt. Hunter will report to Marine Base at Quantico, Va.

The Ladies' Aid Circle will sponsor a harvest supper at the church hall Aug. 25.

Addie Pleuss of New York City is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Snyder.

Roland Tonnesen left Friday evening for Milano, Italy, where he will meet his wife and sister-in-law. They will stay in Ascona, Switzerland, for several weeks where Mrs. Tonnesen's mother is ill in a hospital.

Mrs. A. J. George of New Haven, Conn., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Myer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Knodt have returned from a six-week vacation in Europe.

A3/c Victor Haslam of Dow Air Force Base, Bangor, Me., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Haslam.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Antalek spent the weekend at Schnectady.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren T. Myer and son Peter of Syracuse were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Myer Sr.

Over 5,000 Books Sent To Filipino Children

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP)—More than 5,000 books are enroute to school children in the Philippines in response to an appeal from a Peace Corps worker.

The books were carried from Syracuse aboard an Air Force plane Tuesday on the first hop of their 7,000-mile trip to the Western Pacific.

Miss Nancy Susan Dunetz, 22, of Brooklyn, a Syracuse University graduate, told of the need for school texts in a letter last year to the university newspaper.

The books were collected from Syracuse students and faculty and two publishing houses.

Students on Visit

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. (AP) — Eighty-five Swedish students vacationing in the United States have completed a three-week visit to the Twin Cities and Southern Minnesota.

The students left Minneapolis Monday in two buses and will visit Chicago, Detroit, Niagara Falls, and Albany, N.Y., before they fly for home from New York City next week.

Two More Named On Committee for RacingCentennial

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Gov. Rockefeller appointed two additional members today to the Governor's Committee for the Saratoga Thoroughbred Racing Centennial.

That raised the committee's membership to 21. Previously, the governor's office said the committee would be made up of 19 members.

The members appointed today are Spencer B. Eddy of Saratoga Springs, a member of the State Harness Racing Commission, and Harry F. Guggenheim of Port Washington, publisher with his wife of Newsday.

Committee members are not paid.

Rockefeller also announced the reappointment of Harold M. Stanley of Skaneateles, recently retired secretary of the State Grange, to the Industrial Exhibit Authority, which develops a state or interstate exhibit at the State Fair. Authority members are not paid.

Gardiner

ReformedChurchNotes

GARDINER — Next Sunday congregational worship and outing of the Gardiner Reformed Church will be held at Tillson Lake. After the worship service at 11 a. m. the picnic lunch will be served. Each family will bring a covered dish.

Daily vacation school opened Monday and will continue through Aug. 17. Classes are held 9 a. m. to 11:30 a. m. Monday through Friday. The theme is My Bible and I.

The Couples Club will meet at the Van Aken home Saturday evening. A Hawaiian theme will be followed. Those attending will bring a covered dish.

Building committee met at the church hall Tuesday evening.

Community Notes

Kenneth Freer spent two days recently at the University of Buffalo where orientation for members of the freshman class entering in September was held. He was recently awarded a New York State Regents scholarship.

T/Sgt. Myron E. Wells and Mrs. Wells and children of Suitland, Md., are spending the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Wells.

Miss Ourda Vick of Baton Rouge, La., and brother Carl Vick of Water Valley, Miss., spent last week with their brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Stamatedes.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Panza and family of Mt. Vernon spent a few days last week at the Lucy home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jayne accompanied their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Jayne of Highland to Florida, N. Y., where they called on relatives. Enroute they visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burnett of Montgomery.

Joel Moran of New York is spending his vacation with his great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Upright.

Mrs. Jack Boland and son of Poughkeepsie spent Monday with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Frank Boland.

Murder Indictment Dismissed in Troy

TROY, N.Y. (AP)—A second-degree murder indictment against a 31-year-old woman in connection with the drowning of a newborn girl in 1956 has been dismissed.

Dist. Atty. John T. Casey, in asking for the dismissal Tuesday, said Mrs. Ruth Snyder Goodermote of East Poestenkill could not be held responsible for acts committed when insane.

County Judge DeForest C. Pitt granted Casey's request.

Mrs. Goodermote and John Danaher, 59, of Troy, both had been accused of the slaying Oct. 25, 1956. They were committed to Matteawan State Hospital for the Criminal Insane in 1957.

Mrs. Goodermote was released from the hospital recently. Danaher died there in 1958.

100 Are Laid Off By Firm in Area Listed as Solid

ROME, N.Y. (AP)—About 100 of the 235 employes of the Cook Electric Co., an electronics firm that does business with the federal government, have been laid off, the company reports.

A spokesman for the company has declined to give the reason for the layoffs, announced Tuesday. The company supplies electronic components to Griffiss Air Force Base in Rome.

The U.S. Labor Department reported Monday that the Utica-Rome area had been removed from the list of the nation's major labor markets that have substantial unemployment.

Hurley Fire Company Annual Fund Drive

The annual fund drive of Hurley Volunteer Fire Company No. 1 will come to a close Saturday, August 11, according to Chairman Charles Goble.

Fund Drive Committee members will begin collecting the coin cards, which were distributed in Hurley Fire District No. 1 homes 16 weeks ago. Collections will commence Saturday, August 11, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m., for the convenience of donors, and will continue for an approximate two-week period.

Early contributions to the fund drive indicate a successful campaign. Since there is still time before the drive officially closes, members are confident that everyone will make a sincere effort to fill his card. Proceeds of the fund drive are the sole means of financing the fire company's civic activities programs, among which are the free Saturday night movies shown at the Hurley Fire Hall, baby-sitters courses, Babe Ruth League shared-sponsorship, and sponsorship of a Hurley Little League team, to name just a few.

Headed by Vice President Charles Goble, the Fund Drive Committee also includes area captains Edwin Geloewski, Raymond Croswell, Richard Ruth Jr., James McCutcheon, David Van Etten, Walter G. Pilz, Paul McGuire, Robert Snyder and John Landers. In the event that anyone is inadvertently missed in the Drive collection, donors may call any one of these committee members to pick up coin cards.

Red Devils Take Second Title In Two Months

The Kingston Red Devils of Joyce-Schirick Post 1386, Veterans of Foreign Wars, won their second state championship in two months last Saturday.

The Red Devils took first prize money at the Kiwanis Convention in Stamford against corps from all over the state of New York.

They also won the VFW championship at Binghamton in June.

Po'keepsie Driver Hurt in R9W Mishap

A 28-year-old Poughkeepsie motorist was injured shortly after 11:15 a. m. Tuesday, when his car skidded on wet pavement on Route 9W one mile south of Route 44-55, Highland, and struck a guard rail. State Police Investigator Joseph Franke said Albert G. Boyle, of 20 Forbus Street, Poughkeepsie, was driving south when the vehicle skidded and slid on a soft shoulder before hitting the guard rail. Boyle complained of an injury of the right leg and said he would see his own physician.

Records having been lost, it is unknown who were the first riders (April 3, 1850) of the Pony Express.

Still Investigating Park Office Theft

Poughkeepsie police today continued investigation of a report that a cash register, a telephone and an undetermined amount of cash had been stolen from the Pulaski Park Swimming pool office sometime early Tuesday.

City Detective Jack Benton said the damaged cash register was later found emptied of its contents in a nearby wooded area off North Avenue. He reported the telephone contained $20 to $25 in change.

Members of the youth choir of the Reformed Church will meet tonight 6:30 at the church hall. All members are asked to be present.

Tonight 7:30 Novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help will be offered followed by benediction and confession. Daily Mass is at 8 a. m. at Presentation Church.

The Rev. Donald D. Lokhorst was ordained and installed as pastor of the Reformed Church Sunday evening. The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Lokhorst are now residing at the parsonage on Salem Street.

Charles Hungerford who has been a patient at the Benedictine Hospital is now convalescing at his home on Salem Street.

Sunday worship service for the remainder of August will be held at 10 a. m. at the Reformed Church. Members will note change of time.

Mrs. Arthur Windram of Millbrook Drive have returned home after spending several weeks with her sisters, Mrs. Joseph Sherman Sr. of Hicksville, L. I. and Mrs. John Booth of Brooklyn.

Two Escape Injury As Autos Collide

Occupants of two cars escaped injury at 3:55 p. m. Tuesday, when the vehicles collided on Route 44-55, two miles west of Highland.

State Police Investigator Joseph Franke reported the cars driven by John J. Narose, 21, of Highland, and Edward R. Seeger, 27, of Somerville, N. J. Narose was traveling east on Route 44-55 and Seeger was going in the opposite direction when his car skidded on wet pavement during a shower and sideswiped the Narose vehicle.

4,000 Red Troops Land in Cuba

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A Cuban news specialist claims that more than 4,000 Soviet troops have landed in Cuba recently.

In a Spanish broadcast from a Miami station Tuesday, Dr. Salvador Leu attributed his information to travelers from Cuba in a position to know. The program, "Voice of the People," broadcast by WMIE for Miami's refugee population, said the reported troops were sent in response to Fidel Castro's fear of rebellion.

An associate, Ramiro Boza, declined to name the source of the broadcast information, but said, "we know it is true when this source tells."

There was no immediate comment from the State Department in Washington.

Iceland was first settled in the Ninth Century by hermits from Ireland.

Time Is Extended For Soblen Flight

LONDON (AP)—The British government today extended until Friday midnight the deadline for El Al Airlines to take fugitive spy Robert A. Soblen to the United States.

This put off a showdown in the three-nation wrangle over Soblen which had been due to come to a head at midnight tonight, the original deadline. El Al, the Israeli airline, has a flight going to New York on Friday afternoon.

There was no indication, however, that the airline will comply with the British Home Office order. It is under instructions from the Israeli government to take Soblen only to Israel.

Russia's First Aid

ALGIERS (AP) — The Soviet cargo vessel Ugleuralsk docked in Algiers today with Russia's first economic aid for independent Algeria. Port authorities said the ship brought 6,500 tons of grain.

Financial and Commercial

By RICHARD H. HOENIG
AP Business News Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Prices fell early this afternoon as the stock market headed for its third straight decline.

The trading pace continued only moderate, giving emphasis to some Wall Street talk of summer doldrums.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks was off 1.0 at noon at 216 with industrials down 1.9, rails off .2 and utilities off .3.

As in the last two sessions most of the losses were relatively small. The trend was lower from the start but as the session continued a few more small plus signs appeared.

Drugs, steels and rails led the way downward. Most other major industry groups also fell.

An exception were some of the building material issues. Johns-Manville and U.S. Gypsum were both ahead major fractions. Construction activity continues at a high level.

Many of the rails showed fractional losses as the possibility of a strike next week mounted.

A handful of firms in the international communications field posted declines of ⅛ to almost a point. Late Tuesday the chairman of RCA proposed creation of an independent, privately owned U.S. monopoly in the field.

RCA was off about ½, A T & T almost a point, ITT about ½

At noon the Dow Jones industrial average was off 2.97 at 585.38.

Another Soviet Nuclear Blast Reported by AEC

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union set off another atmospheric nuclear test Tuesday, the Atomic Energy Commission reported today.

"The detonation occurred at the Soviet test site in central Siberia and was in the low-kiloton range," the brief announcement said.

That means the blast represented the explosive force of only a few thousand tons of TNT.

The bigger Soviet tests are held in the arctic, far north of the central Siberian area.

Senators Against Satellite Bill Seek Outside Aid

By ERNEST B. VACCARO

WASHINGTON (AP)— Senators fighting the administration's communications satellite bill sought outside help today after getting little or no support from government officials.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee's hearings on the measure—a truce period agreed on to end a five-day filibuster—must be concluded Friday.

And Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., a leader of the Democratic faction opposing the bill, asked that outside witnesses be heard before the measure is returned then to the floor for more debate.

His Observation

He observed that all the administration witnesses have lined up behind President Kennedy's proposals for a private, government-regulated corporation to own the satellite system.

Half its stock would be sold to the public, half to communications firms.

Two Washington lawyers—Benjamin V. Cohen, a former State Department counselor and one-time delegate to the United Nations, and Joseph L. Rauh Jr.—were scheduled to testify today.

The committee kept Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara on the stand for two hours and 50 minutes Tuesday, with Morse and Sen. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., asking most of the questions.

McNamara, like other administration witnesses, urged speedy enactment of the space communications measure.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING...

Widow Buying Duplex Told to Buy Outright

Q) "I am a widow of 68 with assets but no home to call my own. I am thinking of buying a duplex which would give me a place to live and some income besides. Should I redeem Government E bonds and buy outright or should I make a down payment only and hope that the rent will cover my monthly charges?" E. B.

A) At your age I advise you to buy outright. I say this with the provision that you can do so and still have enough liquid savings to tide you over any emergency.

When this sort of question is asked me by young people, I usually advise them to take on a mortgage—if their financial position is sound. A reasonable amount of well-secured indebtedness is good for young people, since it will probably be paid off years hence with much cheaper dollars. I sincerely hope you find the home you want and that you will be happy in it.

Q) "We have $27,000 in savings bonds and three savings accounts. Over a long period we have accumulated 500 shares of Northern States Power. Would you advise holding that or maybe adding to it? How about Texaco or Corn Products for new investment?" E. B.

A) I like Northern States Power. It is a strong and conservative public utility with a record of steadily increasing earnings and dividends in recent years. The shares yield over 4 per cent and are a relatively stable and secure investment. I suggest you keep your present holding—representing about $15,000 at recent levels—but I would branch out a little from now on. Both of the other stocks you mentioned—Texaco and Corn Products—are on my most favored list. With new funds, I advise you to buy some of each and you will be well started on a solid investment portfolio.

Burglary Reported At Stony Hollow

Kingston State Police are today investigating a burglary reported at Polkanetts drive-in restaurant on Route 28, Stony Hollow.

Senior Investigator Edward Shannon reported the burglary was discovered at about 6 a. m. by Janice Effner, an employe, who notified authorities.

Entrance was gained by smashing a rear window. Vending machines were emptied of contents. The amount taken was not immediately determined.

Complaints Heard

also under state control, and he suggested a letter to the State Bureau of Mines to determine what could be done.

Desire Control

Adams emphasized that "We are not concerned with shutting down any plant," but were more interested in a system of control.

Cozza said his back door faced the cement plant area, and he felt that if the health department does not take action the fire department should.

Adams read from a 1949 local ordinance dealing with air pollution which provides for action by the fire department. It was aimed mainly at control of smoke from industrial plant smoke stacks.

Odor Travels Far

Florence E. Cordts, of 132 Lindsley Avenue, vice president of the Cordts Realty Corp. said that "even up on West Chestnut Street they have been getting this awful odor." She said she talked with the cement plant manager on five occasions and without apparent result. She said those who appeared at last night's meeting represented a large group of residents in the Ponckhockie area. "We think it is time to do something." The odor, she said, had been noted in various parts of the city.

Winifred M. Sullivan, of 45 Walnut Street, also complained of conditions in the area and asked that something be done for relief.

Adams, in gaining privilege of the floor for those who spoke, said a group of some 50 in the Ponckhockie area had the same complaint, but rather than have all attend the council session, they decided in favor of the few spokesmen who appeared.

Adams again made a bid for the hiring of a stenographer or stenotypist to take record of council procedure. Full records, he felt, can better indicate the thought behind various action and legislation at the meetings.

State CC Calling

the 1958 sessions was for a more comprehensive program of state aid for schools. This was more than achieved, FitzPatrick said, by the school-aid program passed by the Legislature this year.

Modernization Important

Roberts told the committee it was obvious that industry needed to modernize plant and equipment in order to compete with foreign and out-of-state firms. Such modernization will take more effort in this state than in most, he said, because New York is one of the older of the industrialized regions and therefore many of its plants are outmoded.

Roberts also called for changes in the unemployment insurance law so that unemployment insurance benefits will not be paid those on strike. Strikers receive the benefits after seven weeks and employers contend that this amounts to financing a strike against themselves.

Virginia Schwenk

of Kingston, Jamaica, that his daughter was being sent there as an emissary in a letter which extended "congratulations of your sister city, Kingston, New York United States of America, upon the occasion of Jamaica's new status as the most recent independent nation in the Western Hemisphere."

The letter also disclosed that Virginia will arrive in Kingston Jamaica Sunday on the United Fruit Line, S.S. Hibueras and will be accompanied by a friend, Joan Whalen.

gave these details of the final rites:

The movie queen, bejeweled and befurred in her many public appearances, will wear a demure, light green dress and no jewelry. The non-denominational services, expected to last about 35 minutes, will be conducted by the Rev. A. J. Soldan, Lutheran pastor of the Villa e Church in Westwood.

The body will lie in an open, solid bronze casket lined with champagne-colored velvet. After the services, the casket will be sealed and carried a few yards away to a crypt, where Marilyn will be entombed.

The Quiet She Sought

The three principals in charge of final arrangements Tuesday night explained that the rites were made private "so that she can go to her final resting place in the quiet she has always sought."

The statement was issued by ex-ballplayer Joe DiMaggio, second of Marilyn's three husbands; Bernice Miracle, her half-sister, and Inez Melson, her former business manager. They said:

"We could not in conscience ask one personality to attend without perhaps offending many, many others. And for this reason alone we have kept the number of persons to a minimum.

"Please, all of you, remember the gay, sweet Marilyn and say a prayer of farewell within the confines of your home or church."

Rain Welcomed

but generally the rainfall has been relatively little. Yesterday's rain ranged from one-third of an inch in the western part of the county to about one-and-a-half inches in the eastern section of Ulster.

Good for Corn, Grass

"It was quite a variation in precipitation," Agent Palmer stated. He noted that yesterday's rain was beneficial to shallow-rooted crops, such as lawns and corn, but apparently did little good to trees and deep rooted crops.

"What lasting effect Tuesday's rain will have, will depend on when the area will have more showers," Agent Palmer said. "If we don't have more rain soon, the rain of yesterday will evaporate."

.25 of Inch in City

The city engineer's' office at City Hall reported precipitation measured .25 of an inch.

Walter G. Schreiber, Red Hook fruit grower, said he hopes the rain could be credited to the rainmaking operations financed by Dutchess farmers. One of the 15 or 20 generators placed at strategic points to send silver iodine into rain-making clouds, is operated on the Schreiber farm.

It was reported that the northern, eastern and southern sections of Dutchess County, reported the rainfall was light and not sufficient to help the crops, especially the deep-rooted crops and trees.

Dr. Howell and associates remained on the job in Dutchess County today, prepared to operate the generators if rain-making clouds appear.

Rains Swells River 3 Feet Over Normal

MALONE, N. Y. (AP) — Five inches of rain fell between 2:45 a.m. and 11 p.m. Tuesday, three miles south of this northern New York village, a Weather Bureau observer said today.

There were no reports of flooding or damage, although the Salmon River was three feet above normal.

Says Kennedy

about the fate of a committee-approved mass transportation bill. The Democratic policy committee did not act on it Tuesday when it cleared the drug and farm bills for later Senate consideration.

Democratic leader Mike Mansfield of Montana said he hopes to take up the farm bill next week if the Senate can act by then on the communications satellite measure, which will return from the Foreign Relations Committee Friday noon. He said Saturday Senate meetings will be the order of the day for the rest of the session.

Mansfield said the drug bill will follow the farm bill. He would not go beyond that in scheduling any measures.

Program Listed For 'Civil War Skirmish' Fete

A Civil War skirmish will be staged at Knaust Field, Saugerties, on the weekend of Aug. 25 and 26. The event sponsored by the 9th New York Volunteer Cavalry of Schenectady and the 120th New York Volunteer Infantry (Washington Guard) Probationary of Saugerties will get underway 9 a. m. Saturday with seven scheduled events of the shoot beginning 11 a. m. Sunday, Aug. 26.

Throughout the day, Saturday, Aug. 25, at least 14 teams are expected to check in at the assigned camping area, complete with authentic Union Army Civil War uniforms, field regalia, and display of antique rifles and artillery guns. a meeting of team captains has been scheduled at the staff tent at 6 p. m., Saturday.

The public is welcome to attend the Civil War encampment sing and campfire at the field Saturday beginning at 8:30 p. m. Quartermaster Manderville Diaz, of the 120th will lead the sing with his guitar, assisted by musician members of the other regiments.

Sunday morning, Aug. 26, the competing regiments will form with colors at the staff tent for review, promptly at 10:30 a. m., prior to formation on the skirmish line at 11 a. m.

There will be a 30-minute break for rations consisting of hardtack and sowbelly, at 1:30 p. m., after which competing regiments will again form on the skirmish line at 2 p. m.

Afternoon Ceremonies

A high point in the afternoon's activities will be the artillery demonstration at approximately 3 p. m. Ceremonies and competitions will conclude at 4:30 p. m. with a short review and the presentation of awards and streamers to the regiments.

For the regiments competing, the skill of their members will be put to the test by the following program of events: clay pigeons (24 on backboard); suspended clay pigeons (16); MOskeets suspended (8); four-inch clay flower pots (8); four inch water filled balloons (16); stake cutting shoot; dynamite shoot, which is an extra event with rifles, not to be counted in scoring of teams.

Since all the events will be under the direction of members of the North South Skirmish Association, all targets will conform with the association's regulations. The events will be presented total time elapse style witch six and eight minute time limits.

Regiments Take Part

In addition to the two sponsoring regiments, among those scheduled to appear are 1st New York Light Artillery, Cohoes; 3rd New York Volunteer Cavalry; 115th New York Volunteer Infantry, St. Johnsville; 1st Connecticut Volunteers, South Windsor, Conn. All are in the northeastern regional division of the North-South Skirmish Association.

Refreshments will be available at the field on the day of the shoot, and the public may attend. There will be no admission charge.

ThruwayDriverCaught In 100-Mile Chase

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—State Police said today they had arrested a 20-year-old Corning driver on the State Thruway west of here following a 100-mile chase reached speeds up to 120 miles an hour.

The man was identified as Joseph Berto, an employe of the Corning Fiber Box Co.

State police said Berto was caught about a mile west of the Henrietta interchange when his late model automobile had a flat tire.

They said the car traveled route 14 from Watkins Glen at speeds up to 120 miles an hour and crashed through the interchange at Geneva onto the Thruway with four police cars following.

Second Quarter Profit Margins

BABSON PARK, Mass.—Second quarter reports on 16 key stock groups show that although sales were up for all groups, profit margins in only 9 of the industries were ahead of last year. The study, produced by Spear & Staff, investment advisory firm, shows a significant slackening from healthier first quarter comparisons only three months ago.

Overall, second quarter sales were up 9.3 per cent, earnings ahead by 13.6 per cent over the same period last year. The first quarter of this year, however, showed bigger gains over '61—15.4 per cent and 47.3 per cent, respectively.

Groups showing strongest gains in second quarter profit margins included automobiles, paper, radio-TV, and science and electronics. Dips in profit margins over the previous year were noted by construction, steel and iron, and tobacco.

As to the future, Roger E. Spear, president, said: "Economic uncertainties force us to continue cautious in general, although we are moderately bullish regarding certain groups. Prospects for Discount Merchandising and some segments of the electronics industry are favorable, for example, but we would avoid most of the construction, ethical drugs, steel, tobacco and food stocks for now."

A comparison Spear analysis, based on earnings of 22 of the 30 D-J industrials, puts earnings at $9.04 for the second quarter, or $36 on an annual basis. At a price-earnings multiple of 16, this would peg the Dow at around 576, or moderately below the current level. If earnings dip, Spear notes, so will the Dow. However, downswing periods in business are typically followed by recoveries, Spear observes, and if such a cyclical business upsurge occurs after a tax cut, there would be a double-barrelled impact to restore investor confidence and move the Dow substantially above present levels.

12,437 Tour Museum

CORNING, N.Y. (AP)—A record total of 12,437 visitors toured the Corning Glass Museum Tuesday.

The previous one-day high in attendance, 11,838, was set last year, also on the first Tuesday in August. The museum was opened in 1951 and passed the five million mark in visitors last October.

Nine Young Artists Featured In Exhibit at Tannery House

The Woodstock Artists Association announces an exhibition of paintings and drawings by nine young artists who are living and working at the Jane Burr Winslow House in Woodstock this summer.

This is the fourth summer that the Woodstock Artists Association has sponsored a program enabling young artists to live and work at the 'Burr House'. The exhibition, which is the first of its kind, will be held at the Tannery Brook House, just opposite the Espresso Cafe. The use of this building has been generously donated by J. Constant van Rijn. The exhibition will open Friday, August 10, and will continue through Sunday, August 18. It will be open to the public from 1:30 to 6 p. m., daily except Monday, and it will also be open during the evening on weekends.

The opening party will be from 5 to 8 p. m., Friday, August 10. The public is cordially invited to attend. There will be a 25 cents admission charge for those who are not members of the Artists Association.

The nine artists who will be participating in this exhibition are: Jay Elliott, Astra Kleinhof, Vaughn Kurtz, Raymond Siemonowski, Irwin Tendler, Richard Rappaport, John Warren Oakes, Linda Villency and Marsha Zagar.

Miss Elliott is from Sacramento, California; has studied at the University of Nevada and at Sacramento State College. She is interested in writing and illustrating children's and religious books. She is studying with Richard Munsell at the Art Students' League this summer.

Astra Kleinhof is a painter who studied at the Academy of Fine Arts in Philadelphia. She will enter her fourth year of studies at the Art Institute of Chicago and the University of Chicago this fall.

Vaughn Kurtz is in his senior year of painting at the Art Institute of Chicago. He has also studied at the University of Chicago and at Shimer College.

$3,000 Award Winner

Raymond Siemonowski has just graduated from the Chicago Art Institute, and was the recipient of a $3,000 traveling fellowship from that school to study in Europe.

Irwin Tendler has studied at the University of Miami, and he is now working for his master's degree in painting, at the Chicago Institute.

Kleinhof, Kurtz, Siemonowski and Tendler all studied with Edward Millman, a Woodstock painter and former chairman of the Woodstock Artists Association in Chicago during the past year. They are continuing their studies with him this summer at the Art Students League, and are working independently as well.

Richard Rappaport is a 1962 graduate of fine arts from Syracuse University. While at Syracuse, he studied with Edward Chavez, a Woodstock artist and teacher. He will start work towards his master's degree at Yale University this coming fall. At present, he is painting and drawing independently.

John Warren Oakes will enter his senior year in painting at Western Kentucky State College this coming fall. He is studying with Arnold Blanch at the Art Students League this summer.

Linda Villency is a graduate of the Fieldstone School in Riverdale, New York where she was a student of Philip Held, a Woodstock painter. She will enter the University of Michigan this coming fall as a freshman.

Marsha Zagar has been studying with Morris Kantor at the Art Students League in New York City, and will return to her studies at that school in the fall.

Both Miss Villency and Miss Zagar have been working under Arnold Blanch at the Art Students League Summer School in Woodstock.

This exhibition is being sponsored by the Woodstock Artists Association, and, although this is the first exhibition of its kind, the Association hopes to make this an annual and integral part of its program at the Burr House.

Needs Financial Aid

The program at the Burr House needs the support and interest of Woodstock, its townspeople, artists and non-artists alike. This is a vital and important plan to encourage and aid young artists to come to Woodstock. Woodstock is a unique community because of its background of intellectual honesty and because of the imagination, curiosity and integrity expressed by the creative people who have lived here and who are active here now. When young people with fresh ideas and vitality stop coming to Woodstock and cease to settle here any longer, we run the risk of stagnating and becoming an ingrown and mediocre community.

The Jane Burr Winslow House and its program are in need of financial and moral support if they are to continue and if the property and the program are to be maintained and improved. Contributions for this purpose are urgently needed. Contributions should be made payable to the Woodstock Artists Association-Burr House. All contributions are tax deductible. For information, call Ainslie Burke or Robert Jacobson.

Schimmerling Plans Another Trip to Europe

Again, as in the past, to see what others do, how they do it and why they do sometimes better (or not) than we do, I shall fly in a few days to the Old World as the eternal student I have been during these last ....ty years. I shall have with me three important things: open eyes, open ears and an open mind. The open mouth will come only after my return when I shall tell you what I found out.

Because of the encouraging arrangements made by the Office of Cultural Relations in the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs, I decided to go to Oslo first, instead of the Middle East as originally intended.

The Norwegian program will start with an introduction to the Ministry of Education, followed by visits to school classes on various levels. It will include a tour through the Pedagogical Institute and the University of Oslo. The Norwegian Opera, the National Theater, the broadcasting system and visits to various institutions of the Ministry of Social Affairs will be accompanied by interviews with leading personalities in these fields, among them newspaper editors, curators of the National Gallery, the State Hospital, and others. A visit to Bergan, the birthplace of Edward Grieg, will follow.

Similar arrangements were made for Copenhagen by the Press Department of the Danish Ministry for Foreign Affairs. Stockholm might be added to the Scandinavian program, if time permits. After Sept. 10, I am scheduled to visit some schools in the German state Schleswig-Holstein and after Sept. 15 in the state Nordrhein-Westfalen. The "Pedagogical College" and the "Permanent Conference of the German Ministers of Education" in Bonn will be two special features suggested by the Secretary of Education, Werner Schutz, in Dusseldorf.

Speaking about Bonn, let us first pay tribute to the spirit of Beethoven. A getting-acquainted tour through the organization "Inter Nationes" in Bonn will be arranged by its cooperative director, Dr. Moenig. A few days in Munich will be spent for some schools, opera and a few interviews. From there it is not far to Salzburg. Nearby in Mattsee lives Frau Schonberg who has still some manuscripts of her famous brother-in-law, Arnold. To see her and the widow of Hans Pfitzner (Salsburg) as well as the musicologist Alois Melichar will be a matter of three days.

On the way to Yaduz, the capital of the tiny principality of Lichtenstein (the eldorado for stamp collectors), I have a chance to see a publisher and some old friends in Tyrol and Vorarberg. After that, some officials in various Swiss financial institutions might tell me what they think of our present American economy, the stock market, etc. One of them let me know already that he had a lot of new American customers who were interested in making investments in Switzerland, Frankfurt, Heidelberg, Trier (the oldest German-Roman city) . . . if time permits.

Finally, in Saarbrucken I shall bid farewell to Germany but not without having inspected some of the schools in this area on the French border. In October, I shall be in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg. I understand I have to expect some surprises there. What is it? I imagine the European School. And then back to the blessed USA, but not without having visited the nearby American Cemetery where thousands of our boys are buried, one of them, General George Patton.

For the next weeks don't expect any story from me. I shall be busy to see, to hear, to observe, to watch. God bless you all. Au revoir. H. A. SCHIMMERLING.

GOP Club Awaits Name of Speaker

The Woodstock Republican Club is awaiting word on the name of a prominent speaker for the club's annual rally on Sept. 8, rally chairman, J. Monroe Longendyke, has announced.

Longendyke said that several prominent Republicans on the state level are under consideration and a definite choice will be announced in a few days.

Meanwhile, the ticket sale is moving along briskly and advance reservations indicate one of the largest attendances ever for a GOP rally in Woodstock.

Raw Hide Ranch Equitation at WRC Horse Show

The Raw Hide Ranch of Lake Hill, owned by Jack and Peewee Franks, is scheduled to put on a colorful parade and equitation exhibition at the Woodstock Riding Club's annual Field Day Sunday, Aug. 12, at the Ohayo Mountain Ring in Woodstock. The show will start at 10 a. m. and last all day.

The Raw Hide Ranch contingent will be dressed in the green and white Western attire characteristic of the ranch and with their flags and banners will make a colorful addition to the show. They expect to bring 36 horses with them and participate in many events besides their special parade and equitation exhibition which will be put on immediately after the lunch hour break.

Other features of the show are $50 stake clasess in pole bending and barrel event. All classes carry money prizes and entry fees are low. The show has been especially scheduled with spectator appeal in mind. The distinguished AHSA recognized Mr. Leon Losey wil judge the events.

Exhibit at Gladstone Draws Large Crowds

The current exhibit at Gladstone Galleries in Woodstock, featuring the work of William H. Harris, Hilton Leech and Loran Wilford, who has been attracting a steady stream of visitors whose comments have been uniform laudatory about the work of these three painters.

At the opening reception last Saturday, the striking canvases of William Harris, hung in the studio gallery, were particularly acclaimed, both for their intriguing statement and their brilliant execution.

The paintings of Hilton Leech, after their showing at Gladstone Galleries, are scheduled to go on a Rockefeller touring exhibit to the west.

Loran Wilford, who is nationally known as a top-ranking water colorist, has been honored, together with Hilton Leech, by invitation, to exhibit this year with the British Water Color Society in London.

The present exhibits at Gladstone will remain on view until August 17.

Show by Brock Opens Aug.: 11 at Lewis Gallery

The Lewis Gallery, opposite the Playhouse in Woodstock, has announced that Brock's one-man show this year will run from Aug. 11 to Aug. 19. A preview for special guests will be held on Friday between 5 and 7 p. m.

It's a show that promises much excitement for area art lovers. It will consist largely of work done by Brock, after an absence since boyhood, returned recently to his native Cornwall for a stay of several months.

The country is as wild as any in England, with pounding seas, stark headlands, coves once the haunt of Buccaneers, mist-shrouded moors, and villages dominated by ancient Norman towers. And Brock has caught the rugged beauty and the high drama of it all with his knowing, indigenous brush.

Christian Science Sermon Theme: Spirit

The practical value of striving for perfection will be stressed at Christian Science church services Sunday.

"Spirit" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read. It will include this admonition of Christ Jesus (Matthew 5): "Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect."

Among the correlative citations to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy is the following:

"The divine demand, 'Be ye therefore perfect,' is scientific, and the human footsteps leading to perfection are indispensable. Individuals are consistent who, watching and praying, can 'run, and not be weary; . . . walk, and not faint,' who gain good rapidly and hold their position, or attain slowly and yield not to discouragement. God requires perfection, but not until the battle between Spirit and flesh is fought and the victory won" (p. 253).

3 Industries Oppose Foreign Trade Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Spokesmen for the American glove, glass and pottery industries have let the Senate Finance Committee know of their strong opposition to President Kennedy's proposed foreign-trade expansion bill.

James H. Casey, executive secretary of the National Association of Glove Manufacturers, Gloversville, N.Y., told the committee at a hearing Tuesday that American glove tariffs have been cut steadily for more than 20 years.

As a result, he said, Italy, France and Germany now control better than 75 per cent of the U.S. glove market.

Today's Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Business as usual rather than jitters or retreat has marked the summer in most of the United States.

Seasonal quietness has been in evidence in many industries but only as expected. The stock market break of May and June has failed to panic either the consumer or the businessman.

That is the most common reading of the current statistics. And a few signs of a fall pickup already are being sighted, along with pleasant predictions by many businessmen that the fourth quarter should be a good one.

Spending As Usual

Consumers are spending about as usual for this time of year. Some say they are inclined to be cautious. But businessmen are starting to bet on a good retail sale pickup in the fall. Business loans at commercial banks have taken their first upward jump, apparently as manufacturers and merchants prepare to produce and stock up for the fall and winter trade.

Employment has risen. Some of this has been in manufacturing industries, reflecting the increase in industrial output. Much of the new employment has been in the service industries, as consumers demand and pay for more services of all kinds.

The stock market has managed its summer rally, keeping up a long tradition despite the gloom that shrouded Wall Street in May and June.

Some Customers Back

Steel production is rising. Part of this is the seasonal recovery from the lowpoint of the July vacation slowdown. But part apparently reflects a return to the market of a few of the customers who have been living off their built-up inventories since the threats of a strike or price rise were dissipated in March and April.

Despite the downturn in steel output from April into July, the total production for the year to date is ahead of that for the like period of 1961. Many steelmen are now expressing modest hopes for a fair pickup of orders from Labor Day on.

All the talk about economic uncertainty hasn't hampered the auto industry. It has enjoyed one of its best years in sales and production. It now enters its usual lull for changeover to new models—and its traditional uncertainty as to how the public will accept them, always a gamble.

Construction Going Good

Construction continues at a high level. Building of new homes spurted in the spring and levelled off in the summer. But commercial structures and apartment houses continue to rise at an unslackened pace.

Personal income totals are at a peak. Savings have increased despite high retail sales and a continuing modest rise in consumer instalment debt.

So, as the third quarter nears its halfway point, this summer looks like most summers. Then why the continuing gloom in many circles?

Mostly it is because the economy has advanced moderately rather than at an accelerated pace as hoped at the start of the year. Partly it is because of the psychological effect of the downward revision of stock market values.

And, to no small degree at the moment, the uncertainty is due to the involvement of all economic planning—whether tax cutting, increased government spending, more incentive for private enterprise—in politics. In many news items today it's hard to tell where economics ends and politics begins.

Fresh Fashions

Don't watch for a single "look" in fashion this fall. Fashion is evolving season by season, just as it should. The new fashions will have a fresh, different look.

Woodstock Fire Company 3 Acts For Efficiency

Action destined to increase the efficiency of the department was taken Tuesday evening at the regular meeting of the Woodstock Fire Company 3, serving the Shady, Lake Hill and Willow area.

The creation of a telephone emergency communication system manned by the Women's Auxiliary, the placing of fire numbers on all of the buildings in the area, and the setting of definite times each month for fire drills, were reported progressing by President Richard Peters and Captain Albert Ostrander.

The communication system, known in some quarters as a mobilization plan, would involve members of the Women's Auxiliary who would each have a number of firemen to alert by telephone in cases of fires or other emergencies. This system would augment the regular siren-alarm system which apparently cannot be heard at some times by members of the fire company.

The placing of fire numbers on every property served by the fire company has been the subject of planinng and work for some time, according to Captain Albert Ostrander. Each number would appear on the road-side of each property and would be supplied by the fire company. These numbers would be keyed-in with a master list which is already posted and in use in the fire company's quarters. Ostrander explained that in one Delaware County community, this number system has been in use for some time and is also used by people of that area to direct others who might be looking for some particular property.

Fire drills by company members, which have been held during the past year, will now be observed each second Sunday afternoon of the month, beginning at 2 p. m., and the last Wednesday of each month beginning at 7 p. m., stated President Peters. All active members of the company are asked to participate in these drills so that they may become familiar with the equipment and thus know what to do when an emergency arises.

A committee, headed by Captain Albert Ostrander, was appointed by the president to investigate the possibilities of obtaining a tank truck to augment the water supply at a fire. The company's quarters was originally built to house two pieces of equipment, so the possible acquisition of a tank truck would utilize the other stall in the firehouse.

Claim American Flour Was Contaminated

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Contaminated American flour has been blamed officially for a wave of partial paralysis in West Bengal and Assam, but investigation has failed to disclose how the gift flour became contaminated.

Deputy Food Minister A. M. Thomas told Parliament Tuesday 630 persons have been reported stricken after eating the flour.

The U.S. Embassy said the flour was processed under the same rigid standards used for flour consumed in the United States.

FOOD FOR AMERICANS

Eat This Dessert in Wafer Cups

WAFER CUPS filled with ice-cold chocolate, rice and peanut butter make a tempting and delicious summer dessert.

GAYNOR MADDOX
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Here's a cool impressive-looking dessert to delight youngsters and oldsters alike. It is delicious and should be eaten in the hand just like an ice cream cone. Be sure it is thoroughly chilled before serving.

Choco-Nut Rice Cones
(Makes 8 servings)

1 3¼ ounce package prepared chocolate pudding
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
¼ cup sugar
1½ cups milk
½ cup peanut butter
1½ cups cooked rice
1 cup chopped nuts
½ pint heavy cream, whipped
8 wafer ice cream cups

Combine chocolate pudding mix, gelatin and sugar in a saucepan. Stir in milk. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until pudding thickens. Blend in peanut butter and beat until smooth. Add rice and cool until mixture begins to set. Fold in the nuts and about 2/3 of the whipped cream (reserving about ½ cup for garnish). Spoon mixture into wafer ice cream cups. Return to refrigerator and chill. Garnish each cup with whipped cream and aditional nuts or whole nut meat.

SHOKAN NEWS

SHOKAN—Old Hurley residents calling in the village center Thursday included the Mmes: C. A. Henze, Frank Race and Severyn Hasbrouck. They were accompanied by Mrs. D. P. Lanier of Sanford, Fla.

James Gallagher, Kingston, is the electric company's meter reader in this area pending the return of Ernest Gardner to his duties. Gardiner has a broken arm and is doing office work in Kingston for a few weeks.

Mrs. Carlton Hoyt and Mrs. Wilson Hoyt of Mt. Pleasant were callers at the local museum Friday.

The Rev. Richard Guice, formerly of Ashokan, is again occupying the pulpit of the Roxbury Methodist Church following a camping trip with Mrs. Guice along the St. Lawrence River. The couple during the first week of July served on the staff of the assembly week at Epworth Camp, High Falls.

Frank Neri, deputy sheriff and World War II veteran, is settled in his remodeled home along the Tonche Mountain road near Temple's Pond. He has made many improvements at the former Harold Buley house and grounds.

Mrs. Frank Mouer and daughter Jo-Ann of Millbrae, Calif. have been visiting Mrs. Mouer's aunt Edna Longyear of Glenford, Barbara MacKay, Charlottesville, Va., another niece, also has been visiting Miss Longyear.

Kingston area women calling here Thursday included the Mmes. Joseph Lampshere, Sherman Short, James Sisco and Faxton Cone. They had been calling on Mrs. Lamphere's aunt, Susie Winchell of Route 28 near Boiceville. Mrs. Short resided as a girl at Mt. Tremper.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Wallach, Woodstock, were in town Sunday. Mrs. Wallach is a writer.

Freeman news from Town Olive in early August, 1916: "The Misses Mabel Raichle, Nellie Elmendorf, Ethel Bishop and Lottie Johnson are spending a week at Asbury Park, N. J. . . . The new auto stage of John Winne through Shokan is a great convenience. Quite a loss to the U. & D. Railroad which put the only two depots in Olive where folks didn't want them. . . . Aug. 2—The reported completion this week of the roadway over the main Ashokan Dam means we shall have the unique experience of touring Olive without a detour. Five years of going way around by Boiceville is enough for one town to put up with."

Peter Weider of Town Hurley reportedly has bought a tract of land adjoining the James Matthews and George Pratt holdings in the Tonche Mountain neighborhood.

Coming over the mountain to Shokan from Claryville Thursday were Mrs. Charles Jackson and Mrs. Frank Hermo of Patchogue, L.I.

William Hitchcock, East Jewett young man who is in the navy, left his base at Pensacola Thursday at 10 a. m. on a motorcycle and arrived at his mountain top home for the weekend at 7:30 Friday evening.

Having a birthday Aug. 9 is Jennie Kerr who was brought up in Watson Hollow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Kerr. Miss Kerr whose father was Olive's best known bear hunter, is currently spending some time at Woodstock.

2 County Fairs And Parade Are On Rocky's Slate

MIDDLETOWN, N.Y. (AP) — Two county fairs and a parade in Norwich were on Gov. Rockefeller's schedule today, the second day of a three-day tour of several Upstate areas.

The emphasis was on rural politicking. The Republican governor's tour began Tuesday in Schroon Lake and takes him Thursday to the Oswego County fair at Sandy Creek and a chicken barbecue at Fort Ontario.

He also is scheduled to address the Fulton Chamber of Commerce and the Oswego County Republican Committee in Oswego Thursday.

In a speech prepared for delivery at the Orange County Fair here today, Rockefeller said his administration had plans to spend $52.8 million on highway construction in the next four years.

The governor, who seeks reelection in November, said the state had spent $31.9 million on highways in the county since he took office in 1959.

Later today, Rockefeller was to ride in a parade down Main Street in Norwich to the Chenango County fairgrounds where he was to speak.

State Police Moving

State police at Highland are preparing to move to a new Route 9W location about Sept. 1. The present barracks is on the west side of Route 9W just north of the Route 299 intersection. The new building is on the east side of Route 9W a half mile further north. The new sub-station is being built by Walter Seaman, Highland.

Good seasoning trick: add celery salt, along with the usual lemon juice and Worcestershire sauce, to ice-cold tomato juice. Serve as a first course with crisp crackers and a cheese spread.

ONE PLAYER SHORT

Q: I play samba with five other women every other week. We play partners — three and three. On occasion something will turn up at the last minute making it impossible for one of the women to come. When this happens, we naturally have to play two and two and one has to sit out. I would like to know if it is up to the hostess at whose house the group is playing, to sit out the entire evening or may she expect her guests to take turns in sitting out?

A: The hostess of the evening should be the first to sit out, but you should then cut to see who sits out of each ensuing game.

Broken Engagement

Q: About a year ago I became engaged to a serviceman. It was rather a hurry-up affair and now I realize that it would never work out and have broken off the engagement. The question is this: Just how do I go about returning shower and engagement presents? Should I just return the gifts received from his family and friends, or from mine as well? What is the proper procedure?

A: You should return all presents that are not marked with your initials and those which you have not yet used.

Introduction in A Restaurant

Q: The other evening my wife and I were dining in a restaurant when my employer and his wife came into this same restaurant and were seated at a table next to ours. I greeted them both and exchanged a few words with them and that was that. I did not, however, introduce my wife to them and she is very much put out over it and says that I was very discourteous to her. I didn't think an introduction was necessary in this instance. Will you please tell me if I was wrong not to have introduced my wife?

A: Your "exchanged a few words" indicates that they were sitting close enough to you to have some conversation in addition to saying "good evening" and in this case you should have introduced your wife very informally from your place by turning or leaning back so that they could see her and saying, "Mr. and Mrs. Jones" and then turning your head toward her, "This is my wife."

Josephine Marie Tecce Exchanges Vows With Charles Sammons Jr., at St. Joseph's

Miss Josephine Marie Tecce, daughter of Mrs. Rose Tecce of 17 Stickles Avenue, this city, and the late Anthony Tecce, wed Charles Joseph Sammons Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joseph Sammons Sr., of Plattekill, before a nuptial Mass at St. Joseph's Church, Kingston, on Saturday, July 28.

Officiating was the bridegroom's uncle, the Rev. Joseph Sammons, assistant pastor of St. Dominic Church, Wilkes Barre, Pa. Mrs. Frank W. Rafferty was the organist and Charles Jarvis of New Rochelle was the soloist.

White gladioli and baby's breath decorated the church. The pews were marked with white satin ribbons.

The bride's brother, Anthony Tecce Jr., gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of pure silk organza with a molded bodice, three-quarter length sleeves and a circlet neckline. The bouffant skirt swept back into a chapel length circular train. The bodice and skirt were appliqued with Alencon lace and accented with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She also wore a coronet of seed pearls to which was shirred a fingertip veil of imported illusion silk. Her flowers consisted of white roses in a cascade bouquet.

Miss Mary Jane McSpirit of Sawkill Road served as maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length gown of taffeta blue styled with a scooped neckline, cap sleeves and bouffant skirt. A leaf cap with pearls, and crystals held a short circular veil. She carried a cascade of blue and white Shasta daisies.

Roberta Jarvis of Stamford, Conn., cousin of the bride, and Elena Cardella of Massachusetts, served as bridesmaids. Junior bridesmaids were Joann Tecce, sister of the bride, and Linda Krom. Their gowns were similar in style to that worn by the maid of honor except in light blue. They also wore queen's crowns of crystals to which were attached short circular veils. Their nosegays consisted of deep blue and white marguerites.

Jane Ann Long of Sawkill Road, Kingston, was the flower girl. She wore a full length gown styled identically to that worn by the maid of honor. She also wore a leaf cap and carried a white princess basket with light blue and white marguerites.

John Sammons, the bridegroom's brother, was best man. Ushering were David Sammons of Plattekill, Thomas Sammons of Highland, brothers of the bridegroom, Francis Kalisky and Nathaniel Daws of Highland. Floyd Michael Krom Jr., was the child ringbearer.

A reception was given at the Capri Restaurant in Port Ewen for approximately 200 guests.

The bride was graduated from Academy of St. Ursula and attended the Moran-Spencerian School of Business. She is a secretary for Nytralite in Kingston. Her husband is a field engineer for Modjeski and Masters of Harrisburg, Pa.

For her wedding trip to Niagra Falls, the bride wore a blue Jersey suit with white accessories and a white orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. Sammons will reside in Highland when they return.

AAUN Chapter Will Have Meeting This Month; Set Plans

On Wednesday, Aug. 1, the pro-tem officers of the newly formed Ulster County Chapter of the American Association for United Nations were informed by the President Pro-tem, Dwight Harris that our application for a chapter has been accepted by the Southern New York State Division of AAUN. There are other members-at-large of AAUN in Kingston and other parts of Ulster County to whom we extend a cordial invitation to join our group.

The following tentative program has been adopted:

August 15—8 p. m. meeting of the Board of Directors;

August 22—8 p. m. a joint meeting with members-at-large who wish to join us. A discussion of future plans and program.

September 19—8 p. m. a meeting to elect permanent officers, discuss outstanding current UN issues, and plan for celebration of United Nations Week.

Sugar beets are grown at Sandringham, the estate of the Royal Family in England.

Daughter Injured, Father Asks $20,000

A Highland man has filed a $20,000 damage claim against the City of Poughkeepsie, for injuries reportedly suffered by his daughter in the vicinity of the city-operated swimming pool at Pulaski Park.

Richard S. Nostrand, New Paltz Road, Highland, filed the claim on behalf of himself and daughter, Lynn Ruth. Nostrand claims his daughter received cuts as the result of stepping on broken glass. He claims the city was negligent.

The claim was referred by the Common Council to City Corporation Counsel Allen Weisman. Michael Nardone, Highland, is attorney for the claimant.

Hellman Play at Woodstock

I suppose there is a moral or two hiding somewhere in Lillian Hellman's play TOYS IN THE ATTIC, which opened last night at the Woodstock Playhouse, but frankly they were lost on me. I fully recognize the fact that this play is an award winning drama (New York Drama Crtics Circle Prize for the best American play of the 1959-60 season) and its stars on Broadway were showered with honors.

The plot revolves around two spinster sisters who devote their lives (and life savings) to their younger, charming ne'er-do-well brother, Julian. To show his appreciation for their years of hard work, Julian weds (for money) a childlike girl. The girl's mother is glad to get her out of the house in order that she may continue her own love affair with her chauffeur. Julian uses the money he gets from the marriage pact for an eye operation for one of his sisters.

Events reach dizzy heights when Julian, always a failure in business, stumbles upon a "get rich quick" scheme. The realization of many dreams is at hand but the house of cards is destroyed by one flick of his child-bride's hand.

The plot is further complicated by unnatural yearnings, lust, greed, and the old story of the little fellow trying to be a big-big guy.

There is a lot to be said for Lillian Hellman's cross-section of life as presented in her play. She takes well aimed stabs at the moral and social decay in evidence around us.

As for last night's presentation of TOYS IN THE ATTIC, I have seen better productions. By the time the weekend audiences get to Woodstock, I'm sure some of the performances will have been ironed out. George Gitto has always been a favorite of mine, but his southern drawl seemed to screech a little last night. Appearing as the two sisters were Jane Lloyd-Jones and Gaye Glaeser. Roberta Bennett's performance as the child-bride certainly needs more polishing.

Also appearing in the cast were Barry Hober as Gus; Alison Howard as the mother; Mark Mirsky, the chauffeur; David Gale and Michael Van Dow as the moving men.

Taste of Honey Is Next

A TASTE OF HONEY, Shelagh Delaney's sensational success in London and New York, will be presented next Tuesday, Aug. 14, through Sunday, Aug. 19, at the Woodstock Playhouse, Woodstock. This play won for the 18-year-old Miss Delaney two national awards, the sale of film rights, productions at Stratford, London and Paris and a round of applause by critics all over the world. This production is expected to be a smash hit at the Woodstock Playhouse.

A TASTE OF HONEY concerns a tender emotional sequence in the life of an adolescent girl. Her relationship with her fun loving saloon frequented mother and her mother's newly acquired husband is completely detached. She yearns for companionship and love. When she meets a young sailor her life takes on a fresh meaning. His departure on board ship leaves her empty and alone. After this occurrence the whirlpool of drama enfolds when a gentle sensitive art student develops a protective love for her. Her awakening to reality and life climaxes this exciting and moving drama.

Kennedys Arrive For Villa Vacation

ROME (AP)—Jacqueline Kennedy and Caroline arrived in Italy today for a private holiday in an ancient clifftop villa on the Amalfi coast.

The American president's wife and daughter landed in Rome aboard a Pan American jetliner after a nonstop overnight flight from New York. They traveled aboard a regular commercial flight in a special bedroom converted from a four-seat section.

Mrs. Kennedy and her 4-year-old daughter will spend their holiday in an 11th century green and white two-story villa at Ravello, 20 miles southeast of Naples. It has been rented by Mrs. Kennedy's sister, Princess Lee Radziwill and her husband, Prince Stanislas.

W'dstock Woman Hurt As Car Skids on R9

A Woodstock woman was injured at 5 p. m. Tuesday when her 1961 car skidded on wet pavement during a heavy downpour of rain and struck a tree off Route 9 in the village of Rhinebeck.

Trooper William Anagnos, Rhinebeck, reported Gail Brownlee, 35, of Woodstock, was driving north on Route 9 when the car skidded out of control. As the car hit the tree she was ejected.

She was taken to Northern Dutchess Hospital, Rhinebeck, by the Rhinebeck Rescue Squad, and treated for lacerations of the forehead, cheek, eyelid, head and multiple bruises and contusions.

Veterans Exhibit At State Exposition

The New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs will again participate in this year's New York State Exposition. The Division will present a highly informative exhibit on the State and Federal benefits to which veterans, members of the Armed Forces and their families are entitled. Area residents planning to attend the exposition at Syracuse were invited today by Charles Culver State Veteran Counselor, New York State Division of Veterans Affairs, and John Tyler, Director, Ulster County Veterans Service Agency, to visit this display in the State Exhibits Building from August 28th through Sept. 3, 1962.

Culver and Tyler added that the Division presentation is a pictorial exhibit designed to bring to the attention and understanding of the general public the services rendered by the New York State Division of Veterans' Affairs. Visitors at the exhibit will have the opportunity of seeing, through the use of Tel-A-Story Slide Projectors, just how the Division functions in serving the veteran population of the Empire State. New York State Veteran Counselors will be on duty at the exhibit to answer any questions that visitors and members of their families may have concerning their rights and entitlements to veteran benefits.

Force of 70,000 Poised for Biggest Test Since WW 2

By HOWARD D. CRISWELL

FLORENCE, S.C. (AP)—More than 70,000 Army and Air Force troops were poised in North and South Carolina today to begin the nation's biggest peacetime maneuvers since World War II.

The exercises, cloaked in secrecy to make them more realistic, were to begin with an air drop of units of the 82nd Airborne Division near here.

The 82nd Airborne, famed for its World War II exploits in Europe, will form part of the aggressor forces in Operation Swift Strike II.

The joint exercise will test the abilities of the new Strike Command, a unified Army-Air Force group capable of going anywhere to combat brush-fire wars.

The troops will go about their grim business of make-believe war on 5,500 square miles of Carolina and in a section of North Carolina extending westward to Lumberton and Fayetteville.

The 82nd is part of an aggressor army of the mythical nation of Gatasu, which is attempting to seize control of part of a neighboring nation called Renola.

After the aggressor attack, U.S. Strike Command forces will come to the aid of Renola, spearheaded by the 101st Airborne Division, which likely will stage a division-size jump Thursday or Friday.

High Falls Woman Assaulted and Robbed

Two men are being sought by state police for questioning in connection with an assault and robbery of a High Falls woman some time after 2 a. m. today.

Senior Investigator Edward Shannon, Kingston State Police, said Mrs. Mary Lou McKenna, High Falls, reported to authorities she was on her way home between 3:30 and 4 a. m. when an unidentified car forced her vehicle off the Clove Valley Road at Mohonk Road, south of High Falls.

Mrs. McKenna told troopers two men jumped from the car, struck her on the back of the head and stole $40 from her pocketbook. The men sped away in their car.

Mrs. McKenna said she left Walker Valley at about 2 a. m.

Jamaica Offers Base Site, Asks No Commitments

KINGSTON, Jamaica (AP)—If the United States ever needs a military base in newly independent Jamaica, it can establish one without commitments, Prime Minister Sir Alexander Bustamante said Tuesday night.

Bustamante told a news conference the United States has not asked for such a base nor should his statement be construed as an invitation to Washington to set one up on this Caribbean island 90 miles south of Cuba.

Bustamante said the United States and Jamaica "are friendly nations and the United States can come in when and if it pleases."

The United States maintained bases in Jamaica during World War II under the destroyers-for-bases deal made by the United States and Great Britain. The bases were returned after the war.

Since then, the bulwarks of U.S. defense of the Caribbean approaches to the Panama Canal have been Puerto Rico and the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

Britain handled Jamacia's foreign affairs before the island became independent Monday.

Bustamante declined to say whether he discussed an increase in U.S. aid to Jamaica with Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, who led the U.S. delegation to the Jamaican independence celebrations.

New Sewer District Discussed by Board

Formation of a sewer district has been discussed by members of the Red Hook Village Board, who plan to obtain further information about the proposed project at a September meeting.

Francis A. Rabbett, village clerk, said the board plans to meet with representatives of the State Office of Local Government and State Health Department regarding the establishment of a sewer district with state aid.

Israel Airline Firmly Defies Order on Soblen

LONDON (AP)— Israel's state-owned airline stood firm early today in defiance of a British order to fly Dr. Robert A. Soblen to the United States by midnight tonight.

Israeli Ambassador Arthur Lourie expressed hope Tuesday night that the three-nation dispute over the fugitive American spy would "shortly be satisfactorily resolved." But an embassy spokesman indicated that no solution has been found for the international deadlock.

"If Britain wants to get rid of Dr. Soblen, it will have to change its attitude," the embassy spokesman asserted.

Home Secretary Henry Brooke has ordered the airline, El Al, to fly Soblen out of Britain to New York by midnight. The Israeli government told the airline to transfer him back to Israel only, "and under no circumstances to New York."

Cooper Decision Could Be Made by End of August

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Judiciary Committee could complete action this month on President Kennedy's controversial appointment of Irving Ben Cooper of New York City as a federal district judge for Southern New York.

Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., acting chairman of the subcommittee which completed hearings on Cooper's appointment Tuesday, outlined a tentative schedule which looks to full committee action the last week in August.

After Cooper answered the subcommittee's questions for almost three hours, McClellan gave the New York City Bar Association until Saturday to file a brief on Tuesday's testimony.

Cooper stood throughout his appearance Tuesday — as he did during his direct testimony on July 24 — and denied some of the testimony presented against him at earlier hearings by the New York City Association.

The association claims Cooper lacks the judicial temperament to sit as a federal district judge.

Ceasing Operations

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — The only drydock facility at Buffalo harbor will cease operations beginning next month, the American Ship Building Co., has announced.

Stanley A. Midnight, executive vice president of the company, said Tuesday lack of ship-repair work and "high labor costs" prompted the move.

Girl Will Undergo Open Heart Surgery

A 4-year-old Dutchess County girl will undergo open heart surgery at the Albany Medical Center some time in September.

Mrs. William Arnold, Millerton, said she hopes word of the impending operation slated for her daughter, Lee Marie, will "help to give parents of children with the same condition the strength that has been given to me."

Mrs. Arnold said her daughter was born prematurely and physicians determined she has an enlarged heart, with a hole between an auricle and ventricle.

Angels Rally to Beat Bosox; Broglio Hurls 4-Hit Shutout

Three-Run Ninth Nets 3-1 Victory; Yanks on Top, 14-1

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The regular Wednesday meeting of the second guessers society will now come to order.

The subject of today's session is manager Mike Higgins of the Boston Red Sox.

The Los Angeles Angels were playing the Red Sox Tuesday, and no-hit pitcher Earl Wilson was sailing along without allowing an Angel past second base. The Sox were leading, 1-0. Wilson got the first man in the ninth.

Now, second guessers, do you go to the bullpen?

Higgins, who had only one guess, did. Arnold Earley came in, wild pitched the runners along, walked Leon Wagner to load the bases, and yielded a two-run single to Bob Rodgers. Dick Radatz took over and gave up the final run on a sacrifice fly.

Los Angeles 3, Boston 1. Well, better luck next time, Mike.

Elsewhere in the American League, the New York Yankees shoved Minnesota five games behind with a 14-1 pasting. Ray Herbert pitched the Chicago White Sox to a 4-0 win over the Baltimore Orioles. The Cleveland Indians trimmed the Detroit Tigers 4-2, and the Kansas City Athletics trounced the Washington Senators 10-3 in the only night game on the card.

Kubeck Homers

The Yankee-Twins game was played between two violent rain storms that came too early and too late for the Minnesota team. Tony Kubek, in his first time at bat since he returned from nine months of Army duty, smashed a three-run homer that capped a five-run Yankee first inning.

Camilo Pascual (15-7) was the victim, as the Yankees snapped a three-game losing streak. Ralph Terry (16-9) got the victory.

Herbert, the winner in the second All-Star game, was overpowering against the Orioles. He had a perfect game until he walked Dick Hall in the sixth, and a no-hitter until Russ Snyder opened the seventh with a single. Herbert allowed three hits in all.

The White Sox got all their runs on five singles in the fourth, with Al Smith and Camilo Carreon each collecting a two-run hit.

Catcher Doc Edwards, subbing for the slumping John Romano, contributed a homer, a double and two singles to the Indian cause, as Jim Grant posted his first victory since June 15, with relief help from Pedro Ramos. Chuck Essegian also had a homer for Cleveland. Steve Boros clouted his 10th homer for the Tigers and his fourth in two games.

There was no reason to go to the bullpen in Kansas City, where Bill Fischer pitched his third straight complete game. It was also the third straight complete job for the once downtrodden Athletics staff, and the fifth straight win for Kansas City.

The A's now have won 10 in a row over the Senators, and are 12-3 for the year.

Dark to Stand Pat WithGiantLineup

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Lanky Bob Bolin shuffles into the San Francisco Giants lineup to do the pitching tonight but otherwise Manager Alvin Dark vows to stand pat with that alignment that's won four straight games.

As the New York Mets come to Candlestick Park for a series of two before the weekend gigantic between the second place Giants and the NL leading Los Angeles Dodgers, the man who has done a good bit of lineup juggling declared:

"I'm not going to change anything until we lose."

As the Giants rallied behind Harvey Kuenn's wind - assisted home run for a 4-2 victory over Philadelphia Tuesday, the lineup, except for the pitcher, read the same as the day before and the day before that.

Juan Marichal did the hurling Tuesday, a right-hander after victories by lefties Billy O'Dell and Billy Pierce.

"I didn't have a good curve all day and my fast ball didn't zip," Marichal complained. Yet he still notched his 14th triumph as the Giants beat tough Art Mahaffey who missed his 16th victory.

Cards Defeat Pittsburgh, 5-0; Drysdale Has 21

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

On a night when two masters of the pitching fraternity—Don Drysdale and Joey Jay—continued their sizzling efforts, there was a half hour stretch when Ernie Broglio was the hottest pitcher in the majors.

Broglio posted his second consecutive four-hitter for his fifth straight victory as St. Louis blanked Pittsburgh 5-0 Tuesday night and he continued to pitch while a fire blazed behind him in the right field stands at Forbes Field.

The blaze, which started among some tarpaulins and empty rubbish hampers, broke out while Broglio was coasting along with a two-hitter in the seventh inning. With the flames clearly visible, Broglio got two more out and gave up a hit before play was halted.

Broglio sat down while firemen did their work, then returned after a 27-minute wait and finished up a sparkling job to continue his comeback efforts. The 1960 21-game winner, who fell to 9-12 last year, now is 9-4.

11th Straight Win

Drysdale, the 26-year-old right-hander trying to become the first 30-game winner since Dizzy Dean in 1934, recorded victory No. 21 and his 11th in a row as the National League leading Los Angeles Dodgers whipped the New York Mets 7-5.

Jay, who along with Milwaukee's Warren Spahn were the only 20-game winners in the league last year, won No. 17 by limiting Houston's punchless Colts to four hits while homers by Gordie Coleman and Frank Robinson powered third-place Cincinnati to a 3-0 victory.

It was a pitchers' day all around. In the other games, Juan Marichal bested Art Mahaffey as the second-place San Francisco Giants remained 4½ games behind the Dodgers by defeating Philadelphia 4-2, and Lew Burdette hurled Milwaukee to a 4-1 triumph over the Chicago Cubs.

Ike's Club Goes To Golf Museum

NEW YORK (AP)—A club that holds a double distinction for one of the world's most famed amateur golfers has been presented to the U. S. Golf Association Museum.

The club is a No. 5 wood and the man who made it a part of the museum's exhibit is Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

In a letter to John D. Ames of Chicago, a former USGA president, Eisenhower described the club as "not only a replacement for the only one that I ever saw disinegrate as the result of a clean stroke, but also a reminder to me of the occasion on which I came closest to a hole-in-one."

In the letter, Eisenhower said he was playing in a foursome at the Augusta National in Georgia and teed off with a No. 5 wood.

"At the precise instant that the club struck the ball something happened, startling me so much that I practically jumped off the ground . . . I stood there stupidly staring at my club shaft, which I gradually came to realize had lost its head . . ."

"It was some time before anyone thought of the ball. No one knew, but after looking all over the foreground we discovered it lying only inches from the flag."

Sprite Rodney Wins in Michigan

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sprite Rodney beat five other Hambletonian hopefuls Tuesday night in Michigan's richest trotting event to brighten prospects for an Eaton Ridge Farm entry to capture the $150,000 Hambletonian.

Sprite Rodney won the $26,525 Matron Stakes at Wolverine Raceway in Detroit by two lengths in the first dash and a full length in the second to win $13,262 and push her lifetime earnings above $119,000.

Owned by Mel and Tom Eaton of Norwich, N.Y., the three-year-old filly, driven by Frank Ervin, took the lead in both dashes and was never headed.

Impish, another Eaton entry, was the early Hambletonian favorite until injured July 20. Despite the injury, experts still rate her a strong third choice for the big race scheduled Aug. 29.

Harness racing results last night:

Vernon — Major Discovery ($3,000) won a $2,000 conditioned pace for her sixth win in 10 starts. Dainty Dean, at 105-1 odds, finished second and paid $43.30, and Better Buy, 129-1, placed third to pay $17.80.

Saratoga—Lusty Lawrence ($3.90) captured the $2,020 Corinth Pace and Federalist ($2.90) won the $3,000 Fonda Pace.

Batavia — Guy's Buddy ($20) won the $1,600 Class B2-B1 trot in 2:06 2-5.

Winner to Compete

MONTREAL (AP)—Richelieu Raceways announced Tuesday that the winner of its Canadian Trotting Championship Sunday will compete in the $50,000 International Trot Aug. 18 at Roosevelt Raceway, Westbury, N. Y.

Paul Hornung Spurns Big Bid Of $250,000 to Jump to AFL

By MURRAY OLDERMAN
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

GREEN BAY, Wis.—(NEA)—Paul Hornung, the Golden Boy of Green Bay, has been offered $250,000 by an American Football League team to play out his option this year and jump to the rival circuit.

The proposal to the spectacular star of the National Football League champions took the form of a $150,000 playing contract spread over three years, plus $100,000 for personal services.

And what was Hornung's reaction?

"When they start throwing that kind of money around," he said, declining to name the team, "you've just got to think about it."

But Green Bay doesn't have to worry about losing the 26-year-old halfback to the AFL.

"It would be like going from the New York Yankees to the Louisville Colonels," he shrugged off the quarter-million dollar deal, the greatest offer ever made a professional football player.

Despite the fancy figures, he feels strongly about the salary scales in professional football.

"We don't get paid enough," he declared, "considering the energy we expend and the career risk of the violent sport we're in.

"Green Bay is a nonprofit organization, and all that money they're making is going into a bottomless pit.

"Sure, the pay is better than it used to be. Heck, any kid who's drafted in the first three rounds has got to come up with a five-figure contract.

"But I wish I were coming out of college now, with those two leagues competing. Man, I'd be set."

Originally, this was to have been the great halfback's last year in professional football. He is on the last leg of a three-year in 1960, he said it would be his contract and when he signed it farewell to football.

"Maybe," he admited, "if I hadn't gone into the Army and had a chance to set up my duplicating machine business, I wouldn't even be playing now.

Paul Hornung

"But things change. They look a lot better when you're successful, like we've been in Green Bay the last couple of years. I can see myself playing until I'm 30 now.

"Green Bay has treated me good. And it's fun playing here because we're such a close club."

A slight pull in the hamstring muscle has impaired his early workouts and limited his ball carrying in the Packers' win over the College All-Stars.

"Paul looked better than I thought he would," confessed Coach Vince Lombardi.

"Come back and see me a month from now," said Hornung airily.

The Packers' hopes for repeating hinge squarely on the blond husky from Notre Dame who made a remarkable transition from All-American quarterback to heavy duty halfback in the pros (and the most prolific scorer in pro history).

"I had no idea I'd be working so hard," he grinned. "I wanted to play quarterback. I found out I couldn't—after two games."

Injury is an ever present risk. He has a trick nerve in his shoulder which knocked him out of the championship game in Philadelphia in 1960. His heavy legs are susceptible to muscle pulls.

"But you don't think about getting hurt when you're going good," said Paul. "A sprained ankle doesn't mean anything. In the pros, if you can walk, you play. They get their money's worth."

So, of course, do the fans.

Burdette Denies He's Washed Up

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Fidgety Lew Burdette, the right-handed ace of the Milwaukee Braves' pitching staff for nine years, fired back today at critics who hint he may be all washed up at the age of 35.

"This has been a real bad year, but I've got a lot of pitching left," Burdette said after scattering eight hits Tuesday night in a 4-1 victory over the Chicao Cubs.

"When a pitcher has a couple of bad games when he's around 35, it seems everyone says he's getting old," Burdette said. "Heck, they started calling me old years ago."

Burdette, who will be 36 in November, struck out eight, equalling his 1962 game high, and did not walk a batter in posting his 9th victory in 16 decisions. He lost a bid for a shutout on George Altman's 18th homer in the seventh inning.

The home run pitch was Burdette's 22nd of the season. But, he noted, he has thrown many more in years he won 19, 20 or 21 games. A control artist, he can run into trouble when his pitches are even a couple of inches from the corner he attempts to hit.

"Control isn't just getting the ball over the plate," he explained. "It's putting the pitch where you want. Altman hit a fast ball that got up a little high around the waist on the outside corner. He hit it just right, going towards left field."

Fullmer, Tiger Bout Postponed to Oct. 16

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Champion Gene Fullmer of Utah and Dick Tiger of Nigeria will meet in a 15-round National Boxing Association middleweight championship bout on Oct. 16 instead of Sept. 12.

The site remains the same, San Francisco's Candlestick Park.

It was the second announced postponement of the fight. The bout originally was scheduled for Aug. 27.

What a Problem

Kubek May Have Trouble Getting SS Job From Tresh

By ED CORRIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Tony Kubek, who celebrated his return from a nine-month Army hitch with a three-run homer the first time he stepped the plate, will not automatically reclaim his shortstop job with the New York Yankees.

"Tom Tresh has done valuable work for us all year," said Yankee Manager Ralph Houk today. "I would like to use Kubek and Tom in every game. I have not decided how to do that, so it will be on a day-to-day basis."

As if to underline Houk's words, rookie Tresh himself blasted two home runs and a single in the Yankees' 14-1 rumble over Minnesota Tuesday. The victory lengthened the Yanks' lead to five games over the second-place Twins.

Kubek, usually a taciturn bloke, couldn't have been happier at the turn of events.

"I used to think of what would happen when I got back to playing with the Yanks again during those months in service," he said. "I wasn't exactly worried. But common sense told me a fellow who hadn't had any spring training could be rusty.

"Then Ralph told me to play left field. I saw we were facing Camilo Pascual. That didn't encourage me any. He has perhaps the best curve in the American League."

But Kubek caught a low curve on a 0-1 pitch and deposited it into the lower right field stands in the first inning. In his other three times at bat, he also got good wood on the ball on long out field flies.

Kingston Legion To Play Today At New Rochelle

Yesterday's State Legion semi-final game between Kingston Post 150 and Staten Island was postponed because of rain and the clubs were scheduled to play this afternoon at 2 at City Park, New Rochelle.

The winner will journey to Cooperstown over the weekend to play in the state finals.

Staten Island beat Kingston in the semi-finals last season and the team went on to win the state title.

Templeton Dies, Was Track Coach

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) — Robert L. (Dink) Templeton, 65, one of Stanford University's most famed coaches and a world renowned track and field authority, died Tuesday of an acute heart attack.

He was admitted to Palo Alto-Stanford Hospital Saturday suffering pneumonia. An autopsy showed exact cause of death to be coronary thrombosis.

Templeton's death followed by only four days that of his greatest coaching rival, Dean Cromwell of the University of Southern California.

Templeton entered Stanford in 1914 but his education was interrupted by service as a pilot in World War 1. He graduated in 1921, having starred in football, rugby and track.

At Woodstock CC

Mrs. Kaye-Rifenbary Invitational Winners

Mrs. Louise Kaye and Dr. George C. Rifenbary combined for an even par best-ball 70 to win first place in the Woodstock Country Club's Husband and Wife Invitational tournament.

Under the rules of the tournament, the wife of the host team was paired with the husband of the guest team and vice versa.

Dr. Rifenbary played one of his best games of the season and Mrs. Kaye made solid contributions, as they carded nines of 36-40 for 76 gross to go with 6 strokes deduction under the Calloway system. The net was two strokes better than five runnerup teams to lead a field of 32 tandems. Play was conducted under the Pinehurst system which proved extremely popular with the field.

The five teams tied for second place with net 72s were:

Floyd DeWitt—Mrs. William McLaughlin, 82-10-72.

Mrs. A. J. de Lisio-George Schneider, 75-3-72.

Joseph Fitzsimmons-Mrs. Sidney Velser, 90-15-75.

Walter S. Van Wagenen-Mrs. Arnold Pinsley, 81-9-72.

Mrs. Walter S. Van Wagenen-Arnold Pinsley, 83-11-72.

Five teams tied for third with nets 73s as follows:

Mrs. Robert Rylance-Robert H. Daley, 83-10-73.

Dr. John Olivet-Mrs. Edward Minasian, 86-13-73.

Mrs. Floyd De Witt-William McLaughlin, 79-6-73.

Alex Sharpe-Mrs. J. Waters, 83-10-73.

Thomas H. Dendy-Mrs. Roland Riegel, 86-13-73.

Other scores were:

Louis Kaye-Mrs. George C. Rifenbary, 87-12-75; Elmer Rylance-Mrs. Robert H. Daley, 102-26-76; Mrs. John Olivet- Edward Minasian, 84-10-74; A. J. de Lisio-Mrs. George Schneider, 96-19-77; Mrs. Joseph Fitzsimmons-Sidney Velser, 90-15-75; Mrs. Alex Sharpe-J. Waters, 80-6-74; Mrs. Thomas H. Dendy-Roland Riegel, 84-9-75; S. Goldmuntz-Mrs. R. Kerngood, 103-25-78; G. Goldmuntz-Mr. Kerngood, 93-18-75; Kenneth Charlton-Mrs. John Overbagh, 84-10-74; Mrs. Kenneth Charlton-John Overbagh, 84-10-74; Clair Shaeffer-Mrs. Clarence Beehler, 91-15-76; Mrs. C. Sheaffer-Clarence Beehler, 94-18-76; Al Pettinate- Mrs. John Provenzano, 105-31-76; Mrs. A. Pettinato-John Provenano, 92-18-74; Anthony Pizarelli-Mrs. A. Bagnall, 109-32-77; Mrs. A. Pizzarelli-A. Bagnall, 111-37-74.

BUBBLE PLAY — Betty Brandenburgh, 12, creates bubble trouble as she stands at the plate. The slugger for the East Indianola Grade School baseball team of Topeka, Kan., finds gum handy for distracting pitchers.

Ed Hawkey Tops ENY With 71

Touring his home course in 1-under-par 71, Ed Hawkey captured the weekly Eastern New York Golf Association tournament on the rain swept Edison links in Schenectady Tuesday.

Hawkey carded five birdies and a bogie for a 4-under 32 on the front nine but cooled off to a 39 coming in. Seventeen year old John Hawthorn, Jr., of Ballston Spa and Anthony Maragno of Pine Brook shared the runnerup spot with par 72s.

Charles J. Turck of Wiltwyck went 2 over par with a 74 but his net 69 put him in the prize winning list. George Cosenza posted 79-6-73 and Maurice Davenport, 81-7-74.

Ray LeGore of Edison led the Class B field with 73 and the net winner was Nick Perrotta, Mechanicville, with 68, aided by a 12 handicap. Tom Greene, Mechanicville, led Class C with an 82 and Bill Bover Catskill used a 16 stroke allowance to capture net honors with 68.

Two Wiltwyck golfers—O. D. Ingalls, 82-13-69, and Tom Stenson, 82-12-69, were in the Class B net prize list, John Provenzano shot 90-10-80.

Al Heisman of Wiltwyck took a net prize in Class C with 88-17-71. Reuben Leventhal fired 95-20-75 and C Lincoln Christensen had 100-24-76.

Next week the association will go back to its regular Wednesday school at Columbia CC in Claverack.

Hebert Says 280 Will Win Title In Golf Tourney

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Defending champion Jay Hebert, who seems to own a lock and key on the 7,165-yard Firestone Country Club course, predicts an even par 280 will be the winning score in the $50,000 American Golf Classic, which starts Thursday.

Hebert won the PGA title with a 281 on the Firestone course two years ago and posted a 278 in capturing the initial American Classic last August.

"The course is playing beautifully with the greens much better than in former years," declared Hebert after carding a two-over-par 72 in a tuneup round Tuesday.

The Louisiana native has failed to crash the winner's circle since last year's classic.

"I have to get reaquainted with this course," Hebert said. He is 21st on the pro list with $18,567 this season.

Tommy Jacobs fired a nifty 65 in a practice round, which included an eagle on the 500-yard par 5 No. 2 hole. Doug Sanders closed with three straight birdies and a 66 after getting a double bogey on No. 9.

Walt Burkemo, Mike Souchak and Jon Gustin also broke par with 69s, while Howie Johnson, Lionel Hebert, Dave Ragan and Paul Bondeson matched par with 70s.

Williams Given 5-Day Suspension

MONTICELLO — Harold Williams, 32-year-old Freehold, N. J. driver, begins serving a five-day suspension today, judges announced at Monticello Raceway. His suspension will be lifted on August 14.

Williams was ruled to have interfered with Scarlet Sam while driving Victory Lind at the first turn in Saturday's fourth race. Scarlet Sam, driven by John Walker, was forced to break because of the infraction and finished sixth.

Victory Lind wound up third, but was placed last for the interference. Clark Demon won the Class C-1 race in 2:08.

Binghamton Now In Eastern Cellar

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Binghamton Trips, the poor man's version of the New York Mets, have tripped badly and their fumbling and stumbling has tumbled them into the Eastern League cellar.

The Elmira Pioneers scored three unearned runs Tuesday night to defeat the Trips 3-1 and drop them into last place. Binghamton committed six errors on top of six the previous night in a 7-4 loss to Williamsport. Three of the errors were by third baseman Nick Stampone, who made four of the six errors Monday night.

Monticello DD Returns $46.10

MONTICELLO — Go Jimmy led all the way to win the second race after Rebecca Adios scored a stretch win in the first for a $46.10 daily double of numbers 4 and 1 Tuesday at Monticello Raceway.

Eddie Taylor got Go Jimmie home in front in a new lifetime record of 2:09.1. The four-year-old gelding paid mutuels of 8.60, 3.70 and 3.00. Melvin's Girl finished strongly to take second money and pay 3.00 and 2.50. Third was Scott's Signet for 5.60.

Lucine Fontaine boosted his win dash total to 22 by steering Rebecca Adios to a 2:11.1 win. The two-year-old filly by parading Adios just did hold on to defeat fast-closing Your Adios. Kelly Green was third.

Rebecca Adios returned 8.20, 3.90 and 3.50. Your Adios was 5.80 and 4.30 for second and Kelly Green 5.90 for show.

Worthy K. led all the way to win the third race in 2:10. Jim Grundy drove the winner for Peggy Stables Newburgh. Worthy K. paid $6.30, 4.20 and 4.40. Babe Dares was second for 5.50 and 4.00. Third was Princess Sampson for 3.80.

Doctor McClung closed stoutly in the stretch to win the feature $1,900 Middletown pace in 2:05.1. Fox Abbe was a head back in second with Tarquinia third.

Norm Stephens drove the four-year-old son of Solicitor to victory from the outside eighth post. The win was the fourth in 16 races for the George Soultanian-owned four-year-old.

Doctor McClung paid winning mutuels of 18.40, 6.90 and 3.60. Fox Abee, the 8-5 favorite was second and returned 3.40 and 2.80. Tarquinia was 3.30 for show.

Mayor John N. Botens and Mrs. Botens presented a blanket cooler to Stephens in trackside ceremonies following the race.

Swim Coach Is Dead After 56 Year Career

BURK FALLS, Ont. (AP)—Matt Mann II is dead at the age of 77 after a 56-year coaching career in which he built the University of Michigan into a swimming power and headed one Olympic team.

Mann collapsed, apparently of a heart attack, Monday night at Camp Chikopi, where he has been coaching young swimmers since he founded the camp in 1920.

The former University of Michigan and University of Oklahoma coach had finished directing some swimming races. He collapsed shortly after telling his family he was tired and would retire early.

Cannon Signs New Pact With Oilers

HOUSTON (AP)—Billy Cannon extended his contract with the American Football League Champion Houston Oilers through the 1965 season today by signing a new three-year contract for more than $100,000.

It was the second $100,000-plus contract for the former All-America halfback since he won the Heisman Trophy at Louisiana State in 1959.

The document tacks three more years on the 1960 contract that prompted a court fight between the Oilers and the Los Angeles Rams of the rival National Football League.

End Man

CHICAGO (NEA) — Dr. Bill McColl soon will be leaving for Korea with his wife, Barbara, and six young children.

Dr. McColl, the end who played eight years with the Chicago Bears, will serve two years as a medical missionary in Taegu.

"Each year at this time," said Dr. McColl, 32 and an orthopedic specialist who retired from football three years ago, "I still have the urge to play.

"Playing football financed my marriage and studies, but I would have played for the Bears for room and board."

Leafs Feature Red Hot Slugger

Mike Krsnich must think he has arrived in an angel-less, wingless heaven.

Since joining the Toronto Maple Leafs from the Louisville Colonels of the American Association, the 30-year-old outfielder has compiled a .339 batting average and personally has won two of his club's last three games.

Tuesday night he belted a homer in the eighth, which proved to be the winning run in Toronto's 6-5 victory over the Columbus Jets.

His homer pushed the Leafs into a 6-4 lead. Bill Kunkel, late of Portland of the Pacific Coast League, got credit for the victory.

The victory was Toronto's fifth in a row, but the Leafs still trail the Jacksonville Suns by nine games.

Elsewhere, the Suns split a doubleheader with the Syracuse Chiefs, losing the first, 6-2, and winning the second, 7-3; the Rochester Red Wings clubbed the Atlanta Crackers, 7-2,i n the first game, but lost the nightcap, 6-5, and Buffalo turned back Richmond, 5-3, in the first game of a doubleheader only to drop the second game to the Virginians, 7-4.

Littler Shows Gain on Palmer

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP)—Gene Littler has edged a little closer to Arnold Palmer in the professional golfing money-winning race, but a big gap still separates them.

Palmer is on top the Professional Golf association's list of top 10 money winners with total winnings of $71,198, a figure he failed to improve last week.

Littler, who won $1,600 for fourth place in the Insurance City Open Sunday, increased his total to $59,370, according to the list released Monday by PGA headquarters.

Bob Goalby, who won the Insurance City Open, jumped his winnings from $31,670 to $36,970, but still stood in sixth place on the list.

Bruce Crampton, who picked up $1,400 in the Hartford, Conn., tourney, moved from ninth to eighth spot with a total of $28,790. The only other winner on the top 10 was 10th place Doug Ford, who won $450 at Hartford to give him a total of $27,216.

Regional BR Tourney To Commence Tonight

HORNELL, N.Y. (AP)—Teams from seven states and the Province of Ontario open play tonight in the Middle Atlantic States Regional Tournament of Babe Ruth Baseball leagues.

Clubs from Portsmouth, Va., and Trenton, N.J., get play underway in the first game of the opening round doubleheader. Clarksburgh, W. Va., meets Brockville, Ont., in the second game.

The championship game is scheduled Saturday.

Don Drysdale's Win Is His 100th in Majors

LOS ANGELES (AP)—This is the biggest year so far in big Don Drysdale's seven-year major league pitching career.

By going the route and beating the New York Mets Tuesday night, 7-5, the Los Angeles Dodger right-hander scored his 21th victory against four losses. It was his 100th win since he first put on a Brooklyn Dodger uniform in 1956. He never has won more than 17 in a year.

WHOPPERSNAPPER — This cute whippersnapper has just taken a whopper from a lake in Wisconsin. The battle was pretty even, with the bass having an edge in fighting spirit and the tyke an edge (very slight) in the weight.

Fights Last Night

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

RICHMOND, Calif. — Charlie Sipes, 140½, Oakland, Calif., knocked out Oscar Ortegon, 140, Fresno, Calif., 6.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. — Ollie Blackshear, 135, Houston, Tex., knocked out Pedro Rodriguez, 134½, Mexico, 4.

Even the most persnickety luxury-lover couldn't ask for very much more than a Jet-smooth Chevrolet (like, for instance, that Impala Sport Coupe at the top). Yet all of it—Body-by-Fisher room and elegance, road-gentling Jet-smooth ride with Full Coil suspension, your choice of V8 or 6 engine, the works—comes for a Chevrolet price. (You know how low that is.)

JET-SMOOTH CHEVROLET

Here's about the best thing that's happened to make money go farther since budgets—the lively low-cost Chevy II. It's got all kinds of room (Body by Fisher, what else?), a 6 that thrives on regular gasoline, plus things like bolt-on front-end components for rock-bottom upkeep. Eleven-model selection includes the Nova 2-Door Sedan (second from top).

CHEVY II NOVA

The Corvair Monza is kind of like two cars for one low price—a roomy family car and a sporty driver's car. And with the engine at the rear for better traction and easy handling, it plays both roles to the hilt. The Monza comes in three flavors—Club Coupe (third from top), Sedan or Convertible. Care to join the club—and get all the fun of a once-a-year buy, to boot?

EMPLOYMENT

NOTICE TO JOB APPLICANTS
The Kingston Daily Freeman does not knowingly accept help wanted advertisements from employers covered by the Federal Wage-Hour Law if they offer less than legal minimum wages. Beginning September 3, 1961, employees engaged in interstate or foreign commerce or in the production of goods for such commerce must be paid not less than $1.15 an hour and at least time and one-half for hours worked after 40 in a workweek, unless specifically exempt. Employees of certain large retail, service, construction, and other enterprises must be paid not less than $1.00 an hour after September 3, 1961, but no overtime for such employment is required until September 3, 1963. If you are offered less by covered employers, or if you have questions concerning this law or other activities of the U. S. Department of Labor, call or write the Department's local office at Bronx: Abraham Klainnard, Investigation Supr., 881 Gerard Ave., Bronx, N. Y. WYandotte 2-1235.

BUY ME
I'm an impressive 70' brick ranch, affording beauty in Woodstock. I'm situated on a 1 acre site with trees and expensive landscaping. I contain 1700 square ft. of better workmanship, divided into 8 well proportioned rooms including a glass enclosed family room overlooking a secluded yard. I also have a brick walled living room fireplace and wood paneling. For something out of the ordinary in a luxury home I say "Buy Me." I am expensive but do not cost much. My owner wants $26,250, and take my word I'M WORTH IT.

Now you Know!

The answers to everyday insurance problems* by HERMAN J. EATON, C.L.U.

QUESTION: Is it true that there is no such thing as Earthquake Insurance?

ANSWER: No. Many insurance companies write Earthquake insurance—usually on a deductible basis — with the building owner paying for all damage up to a certain amount and the company paying for damage in excess of that amount.

 If you'll address your own insurance questions to this office we'll try to give you the correct answers and there will be NO CHARGE or OBLIGATION OF ANY KIND.

BANK DECORATIONS — Depicting early Hudson Valley history, a wallpaper mural decorates the north wall of the State of New York National Bank, 301 Wall Street. The historical theme is carried out in the interior of the bank through other prints and draperies. (Freeman photo).

Historic Themes Used to Decorate Uptown Building

Although thousands of customers of the State of New York National Bank, 301 Wall Street, have viewed the newly decorated bank, A. Raymond Atkins, president, invites everyone in the area to visit the bank and to see one of the most interesting interiors in the Hudson Valley.

Designed by Fred J. Johnston, president of the board of trustees of the Senate House Association and curator of the Van Alstyne-Marsh Museum, the theme of the recently redecorated bank is the historical background of Kingston, as well as that of the world renowned beauty of the Hudson River Valley in which, during the second half of the 19th century, the Hudson River School of Painting flourished.

A hand-painted mural effect is achieved on the north wall of the bank with the same wallpaper which sparked the restoration of the White House where it is hung in the Diplomatic Reception Room. The wallpaper was painted by F. Zipelius and Eugene Ehramann of Mulhouse, France in 1834 and later printed from 1675 hand blocks. These are the original blocks from which both the White House wallpaper and that in the State of New York National Bank were printed. The subject matter, meticulously executed, features the New York Bay, Niagara Falls and West Point.

Mr. Johnson further carried out the New York and Hudson River Valley themes in the bank by hanging four antique medium folio Currier & Ives prints. One is a view from Peekskill looking through the Hudson River narrows, another a view from Hudson looking across the river at the Town of Catskill, the Catskill Mountains in the background; another is a view from West Point looking to the Hudson River highlands to Newburgh, and one is a view of Niagara Falls. These prints are of the period from 1850 to 1860.

Draperies of hand woven material featuring an eagle design and the motto E Pluribus Unum are hung at all the windows. The designs were inspired by the now rare hand loomed bedspreads that were made in so many places in the Hudson Valley. The eagle motif was used as a border decoration in the 1830's.

In keeping with the new program of redecoration which so many uptown Kingston businesses are in process of carrying out, the beautiful and historic interior of the State of New York National Bank marks an important step. The bank at 301 Wall Street is open daily from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. and Friday evenings from 6:45 to 8 p. m.

Knights Slate Cabrini School Outing Thursday

The annual outing and picnic, sponsored by the Kingston Assembly, Knights of Columbus for over 40 years, will be held for the Mother Cabrini School for girls, West Park, Thursday.

Led by an escort of the New York State Police, 25 cars will form a motorcade, leaving the Sacred Heart School grounds at 9 a. m. They will be met at the city line by an escort of the Kingston police, through the city to Route 28 to the Ashokan, where a stopover will be made at the aerators. The motorcade will then return to Kingston's Forsyth Park, where a picnic lunch will be served by the Columbiettes of the Kingston Knights of Columbus, headed by President Mrs. Vincent McDonough and her committee, to over 120 girls and to the missionary nuns of the Sacred Heart Mother Cabrini staff.

Then a full afternoon of games for all will conclude with soda and ice cream. At 4 p. m. all will return to West Park.

For many decades, the Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus has provided the school with these outings and support has always come from both member and civic groups of the City of Kingston and its suburban areas.

Year after year the automobile dealers have provided new autos so that all the children could have transportation in grand style. The Columbiettes have provided food and services.

Spiritual guidance is given by Faithful Frair Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph D. Ostermann, pastor of St. Peter's Church. The entire project is under the chairmanship of Faithful Captain Frank Castiglione and his committee men, appointed by the Faithful Navigator James F. Kelly.

Firemen Rescue Mother and 5 Today in Hudson

HUDSON, N. Y. (AP) — A mother and her five children were plucked to safety by firemen today as fire swept a three-story apartment building in the downtown section.

Firemen used an extension ladder to rescue Mrs. George Yates and her children when flames blocked off the stairway.

Fourth other adults and 10 children escaped without assistance. No one was injured.

The cause of the fire was not determined.

State Democrats Plan On Public Hearings

NEW YORK (AP) — Democratic State Chairman William H. McKeon today called on the party's county chairmen throughout the state to assist in plans for public hearings to be held by a committee in a move to develop Democratic party positions.

The committee, headed by Alan K. Campbell, Syracuse University professor of political science, will report to the platform and resolutions committee of the Democratic State Convention.

McKeon sent letters to the county chairmen asking them to contact groups and individuals who might want to appear at the hearings.

By DON MCKEE

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—The first contingent of a promised "preacher pilgrimage" from other states has arrived in Albany to support integrationists in their battle for equal rights for Negroes.

"We do not intend to leave Albany until we have some word from the President," said one of the clergymen, Dr. Milton A. Reid of Petersburg, Va.

Reid was among 100 ministers who marched on the White House Monday in protest to segregation here and to seek audience with President Kennedy.

The Baptist minister arrived in Albany Tuesday with three other Negroes—the Rev. S. H. LaGarde of Edenton, N.C.; and Rev. Virgil Wood of Lynchburg, Va.; and the Rev. Curtis Harris of Hopewell, Va.

All four are connected with the Southern Christian Leadership Conference headed by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., in jail for demonstrating against segregation policies of this south Georgia City.

Swedish Doctor Sees Expectant Mother on Surgery

STOCKHOLM (AP)—Mrs. Sherri Finkbine finally saw a Swedish doctor Tuesday and is expected to seek official approval early next week for abortion of the baby she fears has been deformed by thalidomide.

Her husband, Robert, told newsmen his wife, a Phoenix, Ariz., television personality, will see the doctor again Friday. He said the application for the abortion probably will be submitted to the Royal Medical Board one day next week.

The Finkbines arrived Sunday to seek the abortion which was refused legal sanction by an Arizona court earlier. The 30-year-old brunette had taken the tranquilizer thalidomide during her early pregnancy. The drug has been blamed for the birth of several thousand European babies with deformed arms, legs and internal organs.

Prominent Naturalist Dies, Indian Authority

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP) — Ellsworth Jaeger, a prominent naturalist, died in a hospital here Tuesday. He was 64.

Jaeger, an authority on North American Indians, wrote four books on nature, had articles published in more than a dozen magazines, and at one time wrote a newspaper column on wildlife which appeared in 13 newspapers.

He had been education curator at the Buffalo Museum of Science since 1941, and in 1948 he surveyed adult education facilities in American museums for the United Nations Educational, Scientific & Cultural Organization.

To Remove Cataract

Kowal, 57, is expected to be hospitalized about three weeks.
